Population and Political Systems in Tropical Africa Robert F. Stevenson, 1968 Population and Political Systems in Tropical Africa Anna Sharpe, 1968 Africa Air University (U.S.). Library, 1968 Politics and Change in Developing Countries Colin Leys, 2011-02-03 This 1969 work gathers together essays on Third World development by nine social scientists with diverse academic interests These contributions are united by a relative uncertainty in relation to development derived from the contemporary critical reappraisal of the area together with a need to create fresh methodologies for the advancement of their respective fields Colonialism and Change Maxwell Owusu, 2011-07-22 No detailed description available for Colonialism and Change The Oxford Handbook of Nigerian History Toyin Falola, Matthew M. Heaton, 2022 Thirty six chapters covering the history of Nigeria from prehistoric times to the twenty first century Accessible overviews of both the political narrative as well as the deeper histories of social organization identity formation and inter group relationships cutting edge analysis of key themes from highly respected scholars in a single forward facing volume Book jacket Population and political system in tropical Africa Robert F. Stevenson, 1968

Jack Goody between Social Anthropology and World History Chris Hann, Han F. Vermeulen, A giant of British social anthropology Jack Goody 1919 2015 laboured for sixty years to transcend the view that anthropology was the study of other cultures He wanted to move it in the direction of a more sociological postcolonial comparative social science The most important precondition for this science was the freeing of world history from centuries of Eurocentric bias From his base in Cambridge Goody s influence and inspiration spread out internationally In Germany as a long term adviser to the Max Planck Society he played a key role in the establishment of the Max Planck Institute for Social Anthropology in Halle Saale in 1999 This volume presents twelve Goody Lectures delivered in Halle between 2011 and 2022 together with an unpublished lecture given in 2004 by Goody himself and biographical and bibliographical essays by the editors The Early State Henri J. M. Claessen, Peter Skolnik, 2011-11-02 No detailed description available for The Early State The Organization of Ancient Economies Kenneth Hirth, 2020-09-17 In this book Kenneth Hirth provides a comparative view of the organization of ancient and premodern society and economy Hirth establishes that humans adapted to their environments not as individuals but in the social groups where they lived and worked out the details of their livelihoods He explores the variation in economic organization used by simple and complex societies to procure produce and distribute resources required by both individual households and the social and political institutions that they supported Drawing on a wealth of archaeological historic and ethnographic information he develops and applies an analytical framework for studying ancient societies that range from the hunting and gathering groups of native North America to the large state societies of both the New and Old Worlds Hirth demonstrates that despite differences in transportation and communication technologies the economic organization of ancient and modern societies are not as different as we sometimes think Ethnicity and the Colonial State Alexander

Keese,2015-11-30 Ethnicity and the Colonial State compares the choices of community leaders in three different West African groups Wolof Temne and Ewe with regard to selling their identifications to the colonial rulers The book thereby addresses ethnicity as a factor in global history The Great Breakthrough and Its Cause Julian Lincoln Simon,2000 Illuminates and explains the emergence of modern economic development in Western Europe after the seventeenth century

Dictionary Catalog of the Schomburg Collection of Negro Literature & History Schomburg Collection of Negro Literature and History,1962 Egalitarian Revolution in the Savanna Stephen A. Dueppen,2014-09-11 Many West African societies have egalitarian political systems with non centralised distributions of power Egalitarian Revolution in the Savanna analyses a wide range of archaeological data to explore the development of such societies The volume offers a detailed case study of the village settlement of Kirikongo in western Burkina Faso Over the course of the first millennium this single homestead extended control over a growing community The book argues that the decentralization of power in the twelfth century BCE radically transformed this society changing gender roles public activities pottery making and iron working Egalitarian Revolution in the Savanna will be of interest to students of political science anthropology archaeology and the history of West Africa Advances in Archaeological Method and Theory ,2014-06-28 Advances in Archaeological Method and Theory

1968 Annual Supplement John B. Simeone,Alfred de Grazia,Carl E. Martinson,2013-12-01 Companion Encyclopedia of Archaeology Graeme Barker,1999 This comprehensive fully illustrated Companion answers the need for an in depth archaeology reference that provides authoritative coverage of this complex and interdisciplinary field The work brings together the myriad strands and the great temporal and spatial breadth of the field into two thematically organized volumes In twenty six authoritative and clearly written essays this Companion explores the origins aims methods and problems of archaeology Each essay is written by a scholar of international standing and illustrations complement the text

The Geography of the Third World Michael Pacione,2012-08-06 First published in 1988 this reissue presents a comprehensive overview of contemporary developments and research into the geography of the Third World at a time when economies and societies there were changing at a much more rapid rate than their counterparts in the developing world It covers the topic both systematically and by region showing how the unique background of each region affects developments there

Cannibals and Kings Marvin Harris,2011-07-13 In this brilliant and profound study the distinguished American anthropologist Marvin Harris shows how the endless varieties of cultural behavior often so puzzling at first glance can be explained as adaptations to particular ecological conditions His aim is to account for the evolution of cultural forms as Darwin accounted for the evolution of biological forms to show how cultures adopt their characteristic forms in response to changing ecological modes A magisterial interpretation of the rise and fall of human cultures and societies Robert Lekachman Washington Post Book World Its persuasive arguments asserting the primacy of cultural rather than genetic or psychological factors in human life deserve the widest possible audience Gloria Levitas The New Leader An original and urgent theory about the nature of man and at the reason that human cultures take so many diverse shapes The New Yorker
