Late Antique Portraits and Early Christian Icons Andrew Paterson, 2022-06-30 This book focuses on the earliest surviving Christian icons dated to the sixth and seventh centuries which bear many resemblances to three other well established genres of sacred portrait also produced during late antiquity namely Roman imperial portraiture Graeco Egyptian funerary portraiture and panel paintings depicting non Christian deities Andrew Paterson addresses two fundamental questions about devotional portraiture both Christian and non Christian in the late antique period Firstly how did artists visualise and construct these images of divine or sanctified figures And secondly how did their intended viewers look at respond to and even interact with these images Paterson argues that a key factor of many of these portrait images is the emphasis given to the depicted gaze which invites an intensified form of personal encounter with the portrait s subject The book will be of interest to scholars working in art history theology religion and classical studies A Catalogue of the Extensive, Valuable, and Highly Interesting Collection of Prints, the Property of Thomas Lloyd, Esq. ... ,1825 Reports of the U.S. Board of Tax Appeals United States.
