Bodies out of Place Barbara Harris Combs, 2022-09-01 Bodies out of Place asserts that anti Black racism is not better than it used to be it is just performed in more nuanced ways Barbara Harris Combs argues that racism is dynamic so new theories are needed to help expose it The Bodies out of Place BOP theory she advances in the book offers such a corrective lens Interrogating several recent racialized events the Central Park birding incident the killing of Ahmaud Arbery sleeping while Black occurrences and others Combs demonstrates how the underlying belief that undergirds each encounter is a false presumption that Black bodies in certain contexts are out of place Within these examples she illustrates how even amid professions to color blindness fixed attitudes about where Black bodies belong in what positions at what time and with whom still predominate Combs describes a long historical pattern of White pushback against Black advancement and illuminates how each of the various forms of pushback is aimed at social control and regulation of Black bodies She describes overt and covert attempts to push Black bodies back into their presumed place in U S society While the pushback takes many forms each works to paint a narrative to justify rationalize and excuse continuing violence against Black bodies Equally important Combs celebrates the resilient Black agency that has resisted this subjugation

The Intelligence of Place Jeff Malpas, 2015-10-22 Place has become a widespread concept in contemporary work in the humanities creative arts and social sciences Yet in spite of its centrality place remains a concept more often deployed than interrogated and there are relatively few works that focus directly on the concept of place as such The Intelligence of Place fills this gap providing an exploration of place from various perspectives encompassing anthropology architecture geography media philosophy and the arts and as it stands in relation to a range of other concepts Drawing together many of the key thinkers currently writing on the topic The Intelligence of Place offers a unique point of entry into the contemporary thinking of place into its topographies and poetics providing new insights into a concept crucial to understanding our world and ourselves

The Riot Grrrl Collection Lisa Darms, 2015-01-19 Archival material from the 1990s underground movement preserves a vital history of feminism Ann Cvetkovich author of Depression A Public Feeling For the past two decades young women and men have found their way to feminism through Riot Grrrl Against the backdrop of the culture wars and before the rise of the Internet or desktop publishing the zine and music culture of the Riot Grrrl movement empowered young women across the country to speak out against sexism and oppression creating a powerful new force of liberation and unity within and outside of the women's movement While feminist bands like Bikini Kill and Bratmobile fought for their place in a male dominated punk scene their members and fans developed an extensive DIY network of activism and support The Riot Grrrl Collection reproduces a sampling of the original zines posters and printed matter for the first time since their initial distribution in the 1980s and 90s and includes an original essay by Johanna Fateman and an introduction by Lisa Darms

Experiencing Music Video Carol Vernallis, 2004-06-16 Music videos have ranged from simple tableaux of a band playing its instruments to multimillion dollar high concept extravaganzas Born of a sudden expansion in new broadcast channels music videos continue to exert an enormous influence on popular music They help to create an artist's identity to affect a song's mood to determine chart success the music video has changed our idea of the popular song Here at last is a study that treats music video as a distinct multimedia artistic genre different from film television and indeed from the songs they illuminate and sell Carol Vernallis describes how verbal musical and visual codes combine in music video to create defining representations of race class gender sexuality and performance The book explores the complex interactions of narrative settings props costumes lyrics and much more Three chapters contain close analyses of important videos Madonna's Cherish Prince's Gett Off and Peter Dinklage's Mercy St

Posthumanism and the Massive Open Online Course Jeremy Knox, 2016-01-29 Posthumanism and the Massive Open Online Course critiques the problematic reliance on humanism that pervades online education and the MOOC and explores theoretical frameworks that look beyond these limitations While MOOCs massive open online courses have attracted significant academic and media attention critical analyses of their development have been rare Following an overview of MOOCs and their corporate means of promotion this book unravels the tendencies in research and theory that continue to adopt normative views of user access participation and educational space in order to offer alternatives to the dominant understandings of community and authenticity in education

Japan's Hidden Face Toshihiko Abe, Jeanne Rejaunier, 1998 Written by the former director of European and American operations for Casio Computer Ltd this major new work calls for revolutionary changes in Japanese society including the diminished role of the emperor and the establishment of an American style business management system Illustrations

The Video Source Book David J. WEINER, 1990 The Bloomsbury Handbook of Popular Music Video Analysis Lori A. Burns, Stan Hawkins, 2019-10-17 Music videos promote popular artists in cultural forms that circulate widely across social media networks With the advent of YouTube in 2005 and the proliferation of handheld technologies and social networking sites the music video has become available to millions worldwide and continues to serve as a fertile platform for the debate of issues and themes in popular culture This volume of essays serves as a foundational handbook for the study and interpretation of the popular music video with the specific aim of examining the industry contexts cultural concepts and aesthetic materials that videos rely upon in order to be both intelligible and meaningful Easily accessible to viewers in everyday life music videos offer profound cultural interventions and negotiations while traversing a range of media forms From a variety of unique perspectives the contributors to this volume undertake discussions that open up new avenues for exploring the creative changes and developments in music video production With chapters that address music video authorship distribution cultural representations mediations aesthetics and discourses this study signals a major initiative to provide a deeper understanding of the intersecting and interdisciplinary approaches that are invoked in the analysis of this popular and influential musical form

Resources in Education , 1996-04 Common Ground Akemi Kikumura-Yano, Lane Ryo Hirabayashi, James A. Hirabayashi, 2004-12-15 Los Angeles s Japanese American National Museum established in 1992 remains the only museum in the United States expressly dedicated to sharing the story of Americans of Japanese ancestry The National Museum is a unique institution that operates in collaboration with other institutions museums researchers audiences and funders In this collection of seventeen essays anthropologists art historians museum curators writers designers and historians provide case studies exploring collaboration with community oriented partners in order to document interpret and present their histories and experiences and provide a new understanding of what museums can and should be in the United States Current scholarship in museum studies is generally limited to interpretations by scholars and curators Common Ground brings descriptive data to the intellectual canon and illustrates how museum institutions must be transformed and recreated to suit the needs of the twenty first century

Location Awareness in the Age of Google Maps Rebecca Noone, 2024-07-12 Location Awareness in the Age of Google Maps explores the mundane act of navigating cities in the age of digital mapping infrastructures Noone follows the frictions routing through Google Maps categorising and classifying of spatial information Complicating the assumption that digital maps distort a sense of direction Noone argues that Google Maps location awareness does more than just organise and orient a representation of space it also organises and orients imaginaries of publicness selfsufficiency legibility and error At the same time Location Awareness in the Age of Google Maps helps to animate the ordinary ways people are challenging and refusing Google Maps vision of the world Drawing on an arts based field study spanning the streets of London New York London Toronto and Amsterdam Noone s encounters of asking for directions open up lines of inquiry and spatial scores that cut through Google s universal mapping project Location Awareness in the Age of Google Maps will be essential reading for information studies and media studies scholars and students with an interest in embodied information practices critical information studies and critical data studies The book will also appeal to an urban studies audience engaged in work on the digital city and the datafication of urban environments Edinburgh Companion to Contemporary Scottish Literature Berthold Schoene,2007-04-11 The Edinburgh Companion to Contemporary Scottish Literature examines the ways in which the cultural and political role of Scottish writing has changed since the country s successful referendum on national self rule in 1997 In doing so it makes a convincing case for a distinctive post devolution Scottish criticism Introducing over forty original essays under four main headings Contexts Genres Authors and Topics the volume covers the entire spectrum of current interests and topical concerns in the field of Scottish studies and heralds a new era in Scottish writing literary criticism and cultural theory It records and critically outlines prominent literary trends and developments the specific political circumstances and aesthetic agendas that propel them as well as literature s capacity for envisioning new and alternative futures Issues under discussion include class sexuality and gender nationhood and globalisation the New Europe and cosmopolitan citizenship postcoloniality Proceedings of the International Conference on Communication and Applied Technologies 2023 \(ICOMTA 2023\) Paulo Carlos López-López,Daniel Barredo Ibáñez,Carla Irene Ríos Calleja,José Rúas-Araújo,2023-09-30 This is an open access book ICOMTA 23 The 2023 International Conference on Communication and Applied Technologies has as organizing entities the Universidad del Rosario Bogota Colombia and the Benemerita Universidad Autonoma de Puebla Mexico and as collaborators at the Universidade de Vigo Galicia Spain Universidade de Santiago de Compostela Equipo de Investigaciones Políticas Galicia España International Media Management Academic Association IMMAA and International Research Network of Communication Management XESCOM The conference which will take place at the Angelopolis Campus of the Benemerita Universidad Autonoma de Puebla between September 6 7 and 8 2023 will take place in a mixed mode face to face and virtual Handbook of Arts-Based Research Patricia Leavy,2019-02-27 The handbook is heavy on methods chapters in different genres There are chapters on actual methods that include methodological instruction and examples There is also ample attention given to practical issues including evaluation writing ethics and publishing With respect to writing style contributors have made their chapters reader friendly by limiting their use of jargon providing methodological instruction when appropriate and offering robust research examples from their own work and or others The People, Place, and Space Reader Jen Jack Gieseeking,William Mangold,Cindi Katz,Setha

Low, Susan Saegert, 2014-04-16 The People Place and Space Reader brings together the writings of scholars designers and activists from a variety of fields to make sense of the makings and meanings of the world we inhabit They help us to understand the relationships between people and the environment at all scales and to consider the active roles individuals groups and social structures play in creating the environments in which people live work and play These readings highlight the ways in which space and place are produced through large and small scale social political and economic practices and offer new ways to think about how people engage the environment in multiple and diverse ways Providing an essential resource for students of urban studies geography sociology and many other areas this book brings together important but till now widely dispersed writings across many inter related disciplines Introductions from the editors precede each section introducing the texts demonstrating their significance and outlining the key issues surrounding the topic A companion website PeoplePlaceSpace.org extends the work even further by providing an on going series of additional reading lists that cover issues ranging from food security to foreclosure psychiatric spaces to the environments of predator animals
