Rights For Aborigines:

Rights for Aborigines Bain Attwood, 2020-07-24 We cannot help but wonder why it has taken the white Australians just on 200 years to recognise us as a race of people Bill Onus 1967 Aboriginal people were the original landowners in Australia yet this was easily forgotten by Europeans settling this old continent Labelled as a primitive and dying race by the end of the nineteenth century most Aborigines were denied the right to vote to determine where their families would live and to maintain their cultural traditions In this groundbreaking work Bain Attwood charts a century long struggle for rights for Aborigines in Australia He tracks the ever shifting perceptions of race and history and how these impacted on the ideals and goals of campaigners for rights for indigenous people He looks at prominent Aboriginal and non Aboriginal campaigners and what motivated their involvement in key incidents and movements Drawing on oral and documentary sources he investigates how they found enough common ground to fight together for justice and equality for Aboriginal people Rights for Aborigines illuminates questions of race history political and social rights that are central to our understanding of relations between Aboriginal and non Aboriginal Australians

The Struggle for Aboriginal Rights Bain Attwood, 2020-07-22 The Struggle for Aboriginal Rights is the first book of its kind Not only does it tell the history of the political struggle for Aboriginal rights in all parts of Australia it does so almost entirely through a selection of historical documents created by the Aboriginal campaigners themselves many of which have never been published It presents Aboriginal perspectives of their dispossession and their long and continuing fight to overcome this In charting the story of Aboriginal political activity from its beginnings on Flinders Island in the 1830s to the fight over native title today this book aims to help Australians better understand both the continuities and the changes in Aboriginal politics over the last 150 years in the leadership of the Aboriginal political struggle the objectives of these campaigners for rights for Aborigines their aspirations the sources of their programmes for change their methods of protest and the outcomes of their protest Through the words of Aboriginal activists across 150 years The Struggle for Aboriginal Rights charts the relationship between political involvement and Aboriginal identity

Historical Dictionary of Australian Aborigines Mitchell Rolls, Murray Johnson, 2019-11-05 The Aboriginal Australians first arrived on the continent at least 60 000 years ago occupying and adapting to a range of environmental conditions from tropical estuarine habitats densely forested regions open plains and arid desert country to cold mountainous and often wet and snowy high country Cultures adapted according to the different conditions and adapted again to environmental changes brought about by rising sea levels at the end of the last ice age European colonization of the island continent in 1788 not only introduced diseases to which Aborigines had no immunity but also began an enduring and at times violent conflict over land and resources Reconciliation between Aborigines and the settler population remains unresolved This second edition of the Historical Dictionary of Australian Aborigines contains a chronology an introduction an extensive bibliography and more than 300 cross referenced entries on the politics economy foreign relations religion and culture of the Aborigines This book is an excellent resource for students researchers and anyone wanting to know more about the indigenous people of Australia

Aboriginal Rights and Self-Government Curtis Cook, Juan David Lindau, 2000 The essays address problems of constructing new political arrangements practical questions about the viability of multiple governments within one political system and epistemological questions about recognizing and understanding the other BOOK JACKET The Question of Aborigines in the Law and Practice of Nations Alpheus Henry Snow, 1921 Indigenous Land Rights in Israel Morad Elsana, 2020-11-29

Introducing the Negev Bedouin land issue from the international indigenous land rights perspective this comparative study suggests options for the recognition of their land The book demonstrates that the Bedouin land dispossession like many indigenous peoples progressed through several phases that included eviction and displacement legislation and judicial decisions that support acts of dispossession and deny the Bedouin s traditional land rights Examining the Mawat legal doctrine on which the State and the Court rely on to deny Bedouin land rights this volume introduces the relevant international law protecting indigenous land rights and shows how the limitations of this law prevent any meaningful protection of Bedouin land rights In the second part of the work the Aborigines land in Australia is introduced as an example of indigenous peoples successful struggle for their traditional land rights The final chapter analyzes the basic elements of judicial recognition of the land and shows that the basic elements needed for Bedouin land recognition exist in the Israeli legal system Proposing practical recommendations for the recognition of Bedouin land this volume is a key resource to scholars and students interested in land rights international law comparative studies and the Middle East APAIS 1992:
