The Faces of Human Rights Kasey McCall-Smith, Jan Wouters, Felipe Gómez Isa, 2019-05-16 As human rights discourse increasingly focuses on analysing states and the institutions that promote and support the human rights machinery that states have created this volume serves to recall that despite the growing size of the machinery and unwieldy nature of states human rights began with real people It samples a broad range of actors and localities where everyday people fought to ensure that the basic principles of human rights became a reality for all This volume will give a face to the everyday people to whom credit is due for shaping human rights It also responds to the perennial question of how to begin a career in human rights by highlighting that there is no single path into this dynamic field a field built on the back of small initiatives by people across a broad spectrum of career paths

Human Rights in the Community Colin Harvey, 2005-04-22 There has been a considerable focus in the last few years on the meaning of the Human Rights Act 1998 and its real and potential impact on judges and lawyers Much has been written on the implications of the new legislation for a variety of areas of law With the rising level of case law the emphasis is now turning to the impact of the legislation on specific areas of social life In this volume the focus is on the practice of human rights and how they are enforced in reality There is much discussion in the literature of a human rights culture but how precisely is such a culture to be created and how do we make sense of human rights In order to address these questions this volume is in two parts Part I examines general issues surrounding the full and effective implementation of human rights Part II explores the implications of human rights standards in particular areas in order to test whether a human rights culture has emerged ThirdWay ,2000-11 Monthly current affairs magazine from a Christian perspective with a focus on politics society economics and culture Hearings, Reports and Prints of the House Committee on International Relations United States.
