Youth Crime and Justice Barry Goldson, John Muncie, 2006-05-15 Youth Crime and Justice presents a detailed and comprehensive critical analysis of evidence from leading national and international scholars As such it provides a powerful antidote to the excesses of contemporary correctionalism Professor Andrew Rutherford University of Southampton Youth Crime and Justice is the most comprehensive and up to date collection on the market today A must for all researchers teachers and students of youth justice Professor Tim Newburn London School of Economics and Political Science and President of the British Society of Criminology For the first time leading national and international scholars have been brought together to engage explicitly with a comprehensive critical assessment of the relation between evidence and contemporary youth justice policy formation This book along with its companion volume Comparative Youth Justice edited by John Muncie and Barry Goldson will significantly advance the development of an emerging youth criminology The book is essential reading for criminology and criminal justice students researchers and practitioners Contributors Affiliations Tim Bateman is a Senior Policy Development Officer with Nacro a UK based crime reduction agency Chris Cunneen is Professor of Criminology and Director of the Institute of Criminology at the University of Sydney Matthew Follett is a Lecturer in Criminology at the University of Leicester Loraine Gelsthorpe is a Reader in Criminology and Criminal Justice at the Institute of Criminology University of Cambridge Barry Goldson is a Senior Lecturer in Sociology at the University of Liverpool England Kevin Haines is Head of Applied Social Sciences at the University of Swansea Lynn Hancock is a Lecturer in Sociology at the University of Liverpool Harry Hendrick is an Associate Professor of History at the University of Southern Denmark Gordon Hughes is Professor of Criminology at the International Centre for Comparative Criminological Research at the Open University Fergus McNeill is a Senior Lecturer at the Glasgow School of Social Work Universities of Glasgow and Strathclyde Phil Mizen is a Senior Lecturer in Sociology at the University of Warwick John Muncie is Professor of Criminology and Co Director of the International Centre for Comparative Criminological Research at the Open University David O Mahony is a Senior Lecturer in Youth Justice at the Institute of Criminology and Criminal Justice School of Law Queen s University Belfast Gilly Sharpe is a Doctoral Research Student at the Institute of Criminology University of Cambridge David Smith is Professor of Criminology at Lancaster University Roger Smith is a Lecturer in Social Work at the University of Leicester Colin Webster is a Senior Lecturer in Criminology at the University of Teesside Rob White is Professor of Sociology and Head of the School of Sociology and Social Work at the University of Tasmania Comparative Youth Justice John Muncie, Barry Goldson, 2006-05-15 In this pathbreaking volume Muncie and Goldson bring together leading authors to examine and compare youth justice systems around the world Comparative Youth Justice will be of interest to all criminologists concerned with comparative penal policy and will be essential to all scholars of youth justice Professor Tim

Newburn London School of Economics and Political Science and President of the British Society of Criminology Comparative Youth Justice is what we need in an era of hardening social policies and irresponsible political demagoguery thoughtful critiques comparative analysis and a commitment to the rights of youth John Muncie and Barry Goldson have done a fine job of bringing together a group of commentators who know the inner workings of juvenile justice and what it will take to change the current law and order model A book that is required reading for practitioners professors policy makers researchers and students concerned about the bankrupt state of juvenile justice and willing to consider new ideas and directions Tony Platt California State University Sacramento With contributions from leading commentators from 13 different countries this carefully integrated edited collection comprises the most authoritative comparative analysis of international youth justice currently available However Comparative Youth Justice is not simply an attempt to document national similarities and differences but looks critically at how global trends are translated at the local level This book also examines how youth justice is implemented in practice with a view to promoting change as well as reflection Each chapter addresses key critical issues the degree of compliance with international law the extent of repenalisation adulteration tolerance the impact of experiments in restoration and risk management This book is designed as a companion volume to Youth Crime and Justice edited by Barry Goldson and John Muncie published simultaneously by SAGE Publications This is a brilliant set of edited volumes that will be an indispensable and timely source of information and analysis for anyone with an interest in issues of youth justice and comparative criminology David A Green Oxford University Curriculum Series Ontario Institute for Studies in Education, 1967 Canadian Books in Print, 1995 A Question of Commitment Thomas Waldock, 2020-04-09 With the adoption of the United Nations Convention on the Rights of the Child 1989 commentators began to situate the evolution of the status of children within the context of the property to persons trajectory that other human rights stories had followed In the first edition of A Question of Commitment editors R Brian Howe and Katherine Covell provided a template of analysis for understanding this evolution They identified three overlapping stages of development as children transitioned from being regarded as objects to subjects in their own right social laissez faire paternalistic protection and children s rights In the social laissez faire stage children are regarded as objects and largely as the property of parents In the paternalistic protection stage children are seen as vulnerable and in need of protection The children s rights stage lays emphasis on children as rights bearers as individuals in their own right with entitlements In this second edition new essays assess the extent to which children s rights have been incorporated into their respective areas of policy and law The authors draw conclusions about what the situation reveals about the status of children in Canada Overall many challenges remain on the pathway to full recognition and citizenship The ^AOxford Handbook of Children's Rights Law Jonathan Todres, Shani M. King, 2020-02-19 This book is a foundational interdisciplinary volume on children s rights that is relevant to scholars practitioners and students with an interest in children s rights human rights family law and related topics With contributions from leading experts in the field of children s rights this book provides both in depth analysis of children s rights as a discipline and maps the critical issues for advancing children s rights today and in the future

Politics, Participation & Power Relations Richard C. Mitchell, Shannon A. Moore, 2012-10-01 Until recently youth have become the great absence regarding matters of citizenship justice and democracy Rarely are young people taken up with the important discourses of freedom and citizenship especially discourses that transcend national boundaries and academic disciplines Richard Mitchell and Shannon Moore have put together a brilliant book that not only fills this void but makes one of the most powerful cases I have read for addressing young people in terms that not only allow them to talk back be heard but also to enjoy those rights and freedoms that give democracy a real claim on its ideals and promises Every educator parent student and all those young people now making their voices heard all over the world should read this book Henry A Giroux This diverse collection will appeal to students in senior undergraduate and graduate courses looking into the new cosmopolitanism in social policy citizenship or cultural studies in child and youth studies and in post colonial approaches to education sociology and political science
