Rip Van Winkle Renascent:

Rip Van Winkle Renascent Roger Hill, Orson Welles, 1984 Orson Welles Barbara Leaming, 2004-07 A beautifully researched valuable study of one of America's most influential and mysterious artists What makes this book remarkable is Welles's own contribution His comments opinions interviews cut in and out of the narrative with an almost cinematic force Patricia Bosworth Marching Song Orson Welles, 2019-08-09 Before The Cradle Will Rock before War of the Worlds before Citizen Kane there was Marching Song At the age of 25 Orson Welles co wrote directed and starred in Citizen Kane widely regarded as one of the greatest films of all time But this was not the first achievement in the young artist's career A few years earlier he terrorized America with his radio broadcast of War of the Worlds And even before he conquered the airwaves Welles had made a name for himself in New York theatre with his dynamic stagings of Shakespeare classics and the politically charged musical The Cradle Will Rock But before all of these there was Marching Song a play about abolitionist John Brown that Welles had co written at the age of 17 While attending the Todd School for Boys Welles collaborated with Roger Hill the schoolmaster at Todd to produce this full length drama Marching Song A Play is a work by one of America's true geniuses at an early stage of his creative growth Steeped in historical detail the play chronicles Brown's fight against slavery his raid on Harper's Ferry his capture his conviction for treason and his execution In addition to the entire text of the play this volume features a biographical sketch of Welles and Hill written by Hill's grandson during their days together at Todd A fascinating dramatization of a pivotal event in American history this play also demonstrates Welles's burgeoning development as social commentator and an advocate for human rights particularly on behalf of African Americans Featuring a foreword by noted Welles biographer Simon Callow Marching Song A Play is an important work by an American icon

What Ever Happened to Orson Welles? Joseph McBride, 2014-04-23 A personal and passionate account of the Citizen Kane director's years as an expatriate and self funded filmmaker Los Angeles Times At twenty five Orson Welles directed co wrote and starred in Citizen Kane widely considered the best film ever made But Welles was such a revolutionary filmmaker that he found himself at odds with the Hollywood studio system and his work was so far ahead of its time that he never regained the popular following he once enjoyed Frustrated by Hollywood and falling victim to the postwar blacklist Welles left for a long European exile But he kept making films functioning with the creative freedom of an independent filmmaker before that term became common and eventually preserving his independence by funding virtually all his own projects Because he worked defiantly outside the system Welles has often been maligned as an errant genius who squandered his early promise Film critic Joseph McBride who acted in Welles's unfinished film The Other Side of the Wind challenges conventional wisdom about Welles's supposed creative decline in this first comprehensive examination of the films of Welles's artistically rich yet little known later period During the 1970s and 80s Welles was breaking new aesthetic ground experimenting as adventurously as he had throughout his career McBride's friendship and collaboration with Welles and his interviews with those who knew and worked with him make What Ever Happened to Orson Welles a portrait of rare intimacy and insight Reassessing Welles's final period in the context of his entire life and work this revealing portrait of this great film artist will change the terms of how Orson Welles is regarded An anecdote illuminated account of Welles's later years The Washington Post Joseph McBride has a clearer understanding of Welles and his films than almost anyone Martin Scorsese A definitive study Milwaukee Journal Sentinel From Fiction to Libretto Nassim Winnie Balestrini, 2005 This study introduces the reader to the mostly unknown world of libretto adaptations of nineteenth century American fiction The analysis of stage works based on Washington Irving's Rip Van Winkle Nathaniel Hawthorne's The Scarlet Letter and Henry James's Washington Square explores a largely unexamined area of the reception history of these authors and narratives As opera and drama have been interlinked throughout American theater history the discussion of adaptations will include multiple types of spoken and musical theater Appendices documenting the existence of over 350 stage works based on nineteenth century American fiction further illustrate how librettists composers and playwrights have participated in the endeavor to understand and contextualize literary texts within cultural history Common Cause , 1948

African-Centred Management Education David N. Abdulai, 2016-04-01 In African Centred Management Education Professor Abdulai looks critically at the failings of management education in Africa and how that has impacted growth and development efforts especially at this critical stage in the continent's positive growth and development trajectory He concludes that Africa's current positive economic growth cannot be sustained without a significant contribution from its human capital He adds that the outstanding economic record of Asian economies in recent decades dramatically illustrates how important human capital is to growth These countries lacking natural resources and importing practically all their energy requirements have grown rapidly by relying on a well trained educated and conscientious workforce Professor Abdulai believes that Africa too can sustain its current growth and development by effectively combining its abundant natural resources with its human capital to attain its economic development but this will require an African cadre of well trained managers at the helm of both private and public sector institutions For this to become a reality management education in Africa will have to play a significant role but the author argues that it cannot be effective by continually mimicking the West in the programmes it delivers It must come up with innovative and relevant pedagogy that will address the special challenges that the continent faces and deliver an African centred management education As well as pointing to the failures of management education in Africa Abdulai offers suggestions as to how to make management education really contribute to the education of Africans in order to sustain current and future development Newsweek , 1948-11 Books in Print Supplement , 1984 The Time Machine H. G. Wells, 2002-10-01 Illus in black and white When a turn of the century scientist travels into the distant future in his time machine he expects to find progress and superior people But instead he discovers a world in decay Reading level 2 4
