Rise And Fall Of The House Of Medici:

The House of Medici Christopher Hibbert, 1975 An account of the fortunes and influences of the great Florentine banking family covering over three hundred years of soldiers art patrons collectors builders popes statesmen and scholars The Rise and Fall of the House of Medici Christopher Hibbert, 1979 The Rise and Fall of the House of Medici, 1996 A History of Credit and Power in the Western World Scott B. MacDonald, Albert L. Gastmann, 2001 This volume examines the evolution of credit in the western world and its relationship to power Spanning several centuries of human endeavour it focuses on western Europe and the United States and also considers how the western system became the global credit system

Management History Morgen Witzel, 2010-01-21 Management History is not simply a book about the history of business or even the history of management The goal of this book is to demonstrate that despite the relative newness of management science as an academic subject management has been around since ancient times Through understanding the history of management both in practice and theory one is able to approach the complex and challenging problems of modern management from a new perspective The book not only traces the development of management from history to the present day but also examines the way this evolution impacts how management is practiced today and how it may develop in the future It incorporates case studies from around the world cutting across a range of time periods from the Egyptian royal tomb builders of Deir el Medina to H J Heinz Cadbury Brothers and Tata Steel Management History is ideal for instructors wishing to incorporate historical content and analysis into management education courses modules and training programs particularly at the MBA level and higher The Late Medieval Age of Crisis and Renewal, 1300-1500 Clayton J.

Drees, 2000-11-30 As part of a unique series covering the grand sweep of Western civilization from ancient to present times this biographical dictionary provides introductory information on 315 leading cultural figures of late medieval and early modern Europe Taking a cultural approach not typically found in general biographical dictionaries the work includes literary philosophical artistic military religious humanistic musical economic and exploratory figures Political figures are included only if they patronized the arts and coverage focuses on their cultural impact Figures from western European countries such as Italy France England Iberia the Low Countries and the Holy Roman Empire predominate but outlying areas such as Scotland Scandinavia and Eastern Europe are also represented Late medieval Europe was an age of crisis With the Papacy removed to Avignon the schism in the Catholic Church shook the very core of medieval belief The Hundred Years War devastated France The Black Death decimated the population Yet out of this crisis grew an age of renewal leading to the Renaissance The great Italian city states developed Humanism reawakened interest in the cultures of ancient Greece and Rome Dante and Boccaccio began writing in their Tuscan vernacular Italian artists became humanists and flourished As the genius of Italy began spreading to northern and western Europe at the end of the 15th century the age of renewal was completed This book provides thorough basic information on the major cultural figures of this tumultuous era of crisis and renewal Encyclopedia of Blacks in European History and Culture Eric Martone,2008-12-08 Blacks have played a significant part in European civilization since ancient times This encyclopedia illuminates blacks in European history literature and popular culture It emphasizes the considerable scope of black influence in and contributions to European culture The first blacks arrived in Europe as slaves and later as laborers and soldiers and black immigrants today along with others are transforming Europe into multicultural states This indispensable set expands our knowledge of blacks in Western civilization More than 350 essay entries introduce students and other readers to the white European response to blacks in their countries the black experiences and impact there and the major interactions between Europe and Africa the Caribbean and the United States that resulted in the settling of blacks in Europe The range of information presented is impressive with entries on noted European political literary and cultural figures of black descent from ancient times to the present major literary works that had a substantial impact on European perceptions of blacks black holidays and festivals the struggle for civil equality for blacks the role and influence of blacks in contemporary European popular culture black immigration to Europe black European identity and much more Offered as well are entries on organizations that contributed to the development of black political and social rights in Europe representations of blacks in European art and cultural symbols and European intellectual and scientific theories on blacks Individual entries on Britain Spain Portugal France Italy Germany the Netherlands Russia Central Europe Scandinavia and Eastern Europe include historical overviews of the presence and contributions of blacks and discussion of country s role in the African slave trade and abolition and its colonies in Africa and the Caribbean Suggestions for further reading accompany each entry A chronology resource guide and photos complement the text Voices of the Renaissance John A. Wagner,2022-02-04 The documents in this collection trace the course of the Renaissance in Italy and northern Europe describing the emergence of a vibrant and varied intellectual and artistic culture in various states cities and kingdoms Voices of the Renaissance Contemporary Accounts of Daily Life contains excerpts from 52 different documents relating to the period of European history known as the Renaissance In the 14th century the rise of humanism a philosophy based on the study of the languages literature and material culture of ancient Greece and Rome led to a sense of revitalization and renewal among the city states of northern Italy The political development and economic expansion of those cities provided the ideal conditions for humanist scholarship to flourish This period of literary artistic architectural and cultural flowering is today known as the Renaissance a term taken from the French and meaning rebirth The Italian Renaissance reached its height in the 15th and early 16th centuries In the 1490s the ideals of the Italian Renaissance spread north of the Alps and gave rise to a series of national cultural rebirths in various states In many places this Northern Renaissance extended into the 17th century when war and religious discord put an end to the Renaissance era

Historical Dictionary of the Financial System in China Lawrence R. Sullivan,Nancy Liu-Sullivan,2024-10-21 Major themes in the history of finance in China reflect the persistent tension between a powerful state guiding the economy versus vibrant market forces operating according to basic commercial principles Included is the continuity and discontinuity of financial developments in imperial and modern history creation of a modern banking system beginning in the late nineteenth century and emergence of complex and sophisticated financial institutions and products since the introduction of economic reforms in the People s Republic of China in 1978 1979 The Historical Dictionary of the Financial System in China contains a chronology an introduction and an extensive bibliography The dictionary section has more than 300 cross referenced entries on important financiers entrepreneurs and government officials involved in finance large state owned banks SOBs state owned enterprises SOEs hedge funds exchange traded funds and asset management companies This book is an excellent resource for students researchers and anyone wanting to know more about the Chinese financial system The Cinema of Ermanno Olmi Ian Pettigrew, 2020-11-13 Ermanno Olmi is one of cinema s great unsung filmmakers Emerging onto the Italian art film scene just as the last canonical neo realist movies were released in the late 1950s and early 1960s several of Olmi s films including Il Posto 1961 The Tree of Wooden Clogs 1978 and The Legend of the Holy Drinker 1988 won top prizes at Cannes and Venice However the majority of his work has remained unappreciated This the first English language book on Olmi explores the director s style and evolving environmentalism from his early institutional short films made while working at an Italian energy company to his 19 feature films
