King, Stephen C. Druce, 2020-10-29 This book analyses the processes of social and economic change in Brunei Darussalam Drawing on recent studies undertaken by both locally based scholars and senior researchers from outside the state the book explores the underlying strengths characteristics and uniqueness of Malay Islamic Monarchy in Brunei Darussalam in a historical context and examines these in an increasingly challenging regional and global environment It considers events in Brunei's recent history and current socio cultural transformations which give expression to the traumatic years of decolonisation in Southeast Asia A wide range of issues focus on foreign non Bruneian narratives of Brunei as against insider or domestic accounts of the sultanate the status of minority ethnic groups in Brunei and the concept of Brunei society as well as changes in the character and composition of the famous water village Kampong Ayer as the cultural heartland of Brunei Malay culture and the socio cultural and economic effects of the resettlement of substantial segments of the population from a life on water to a life on land A timely and very important study on Brunei Darussalam the book will be of interest to anthropologists sociologists historians geographers and area studies specialists in Southeast Asian Studies and Asian Studies Borneo Studies in History, Society and Culture Victor T. King, Zawawi Ibrahim, Noor Hasharina Hassan, 2016-08-12 This edited book is the first major review of what has been achieved in Borneo Studies to date Chapters in this book situate research on Borneo within the general disciplinary fields of the social sciences with the weight of attention devoted to anthropological research and related fields such as development studies gender studies environmental studies social policy studies and cultural studies Some of the chapters in this book are extended versions of presentations at the Borneo Research Council's international conference hosted by Universiti Brunei Darussalam in June 2012 and a Borneo Studies workshop organised in Brunei in 2012 The volume examines some of the major debates and controversies in Borneo Studies including those which have served to connect post war research on Borneo to wider scholarship It also assesses some of the more recent contributions and interests of locally based researchers in universities and other institutions in Borneo itself The major strength of the book is the inclusion of a substantial amount of research undertaken by scholars working and teaching within the Southeast Asian region In particular there is an examination of research materials published in the vernacular notably the outpouring of work published in Indonesian by the Institut Dayakologi in Pontianak In doing so the book also addresses the urgent matters which have not received the attention they deserve specifically subjects themes and issues that have already been covered but require further contemplation elaboration and research and the scope for disciplinary and multidisciplinary collaboration in Borneo Studies The book is a valuable resource and reference work for students and researchers interested in social science scholarship on Borneo and for those with wider interests in Indonesia and Malaysia and in the Southeast Asian region
