Phenomenology and the Extreme Sport Experience Eric Brymer, Robert Schweitzer, 2017-03-27
Understanding the motivations behind those who partake in extreme sports can be difficult for some If the popular conception holds that the incentive behind extreme sports participation is entirely to do with risking one's life then this confusion will continue to exist However an in depth examination of the phenomenology of the extreme sport experience yields a much more complex picture This book revisits the definition of extreme sports as those activities where a mismanaged mistake or accident would most likely result in death Extreme sports are not necessarily synonymous with risk and participation may not be about risk taking Participants report deep inner transformations that influence world views and meaningfulness feelings of coming home and authentic integration as well as a freedom beyond the everyday Phenomenologically these experiences have been interpreted as transcendent of time other space and body Extreme sport participation therefore points to a more potent life enhancing endeavour worthy of further investigation This book adopts a broad hermeneutic phenomenological approach to critique the assumed relationship to risk taking the death wish and the concept of No Fear in extreme sports and repositions the experience in a previously unexplored manner This is valuable reading for students and academics interested in Sports Psychology Social Psychology Health Psychology Tourism Leisure Studies and the practical applications of phenomenology How to Write Your Life Stories Steve Boga,2009-09-14 Do people say you should write your life stories This clear hands on approach guides you through the process of writing your personal stories so that future generations can truly know your life and times By reading your memoirs they will become intimate with your culture understand your work lifestyle travel values and beliefs and they will get to know the people you loved and lost If your stories are well written they will be fascinated by what you have to say If your life has known goals and obstacles conflict and motion you have the makings of a gripping story Discover how to Find the time to write regularly Set manageable goals Improve your writing skills Craft gripping leads Become a captivating storyteller Find a publisher for your writing Iron War Matt Fitzgerald,2022-03-01 The classic account of an unforgettable endurance test now updated with a new introduction The 1989 Ironman World Championship was the greatest race ever in endurance sports In a spectacular duel that became known as the Iron War the world's two strongest athletes raced side by side at world record pace for a grueling 139 miles Driven by one of the fiercest rivalries in triathlon Dave Scott and Mark Allen raced shoulder to shoulder through Ironman's 2.4 mile swim 112 mile bike race and 26.2 mile marathon After 8 punishing hours both men would demolish the previous record and cross the finish line a mere 58 seconds apart In Iron War sports journalist Matt Fitzgerald writes a riveting epic about how Allen and Scott drove themselves and each other through the most awe inspiring race in sports history Iron War goes beyond the pulse pounding race story to offer a fascinating exploration of the lives of the world's two toughest men and their unquenchable desire to succeed Weaving an examination of mental resolve into a gripping tale of athletic adventure Iron War is a soaring narrative of two champions and the paths that led to their stunning final showdown
