Metamorphic Imagery in Ancient

Chinese Art and Religion Elizabeth Childs-Johnson, John S Major, 2023-05-30 Metamorphic Imagery in Ancient Chinese Art and Religion demonstrates that the concept of metamorphism was central to ancient Chinese religious belief and practices from at least the late Neolithic period through the Warring States Period of the Zhou dynasty Central to the authors argument is the ubiquitous motif in early Chinese figurative art the metamorphic power mask While the motif underwent stylistic variation over time its formal properties remained stable underscoring the image's ongoing religious centrality It symbolized the metamorphosis through the phenomenon of death of royal personages from living humans to deceased ancestors who required worship and sacrificial offerings Treated with deference and respect the royal ancestors lent support to their living descendants ratifying and upholding their rule neglected they became dangerous even malevolent Employing a multidisciplinary approach that integrates archaeologically recovered objects with literary evidence from oracle bone and bronze inscriptions to canonical texts all situated in the appropriate historical context the study presents detailed analyses of form and style and of change over time observing the importance of relationality and the dynamic between imagery materials and affects This book is a significant publication in the field of early China studies presenting an integrated conception of ancient art and religion that surpasses any other work now available

Study of Prehistoric Aesthetic Consciousness of the Chinese Nation Wangheng Chen, 2025-07-29 This book explores how prehistoric aesthetic consciousness of the Chinese nation evolved from animality and barbarism how it was epitomized in prehistoric artifacts and most importantly how this aesthetic consciousness has exerted an ever lasting influence upon the Chinese mind and culture by examining prehistoric archaeological discoveries particularly pottery objects jade ware and rock paintings from prehistoric cultures and by studying ancient Chinese historical and literary documents This is the first academic effort to trace the very beginning of the aesthetic consciousness of the Chinese nation back to prehistoric times Its strength lies in the comprehensive and detailed examination of all the major prehistoric cultures and artifacts as well as in its insights into the relationship between prehistoric consciousness and the Chinese mind and culture This book benefits graduate students and researchers who are interested in Chinese prehistoric culture and Chinese history of aesthetics

A General History of Chinese Art Xifan Li, 2022-10-03 This volume explores the prehistoric beginnings of Chinese art and its development during the Xia Shang and Zhou Dynasties It analyses the conditions of the emergence of Chinese art and its transformation of form content and function throughout the Three Dynasties a historical period marked by important changes in the social and cultural Chinese landscape A General History of Chinese Art comprises six volumes with a total of nine parts spanning from the Prehistoric Era until the 3rd year of Xuanton during the Qing Dynasty 1911 The work provides a comprehensive compilation of in depth studies of the development of art throughout the subsequent reign of Chinese dynasties and explores the emergence of a wide range of artistic categories such as but not limited to music dance acrobatics singing story telling painting calligraphy sculpture architecture and crafts Unlike previous reference books A General History of Chinese Art offers a broader overview of the notion of Chinese art by asserting a more diverse and less material understanding of arts as has often been the case in Western scholarship

An Introduction to Chinese Culture through the Family Howard Giskin, Bettye S. Walsh, 2001-07-19 An Introduction to Chinese Culture through the Family covers a central element of Chinese culture the idea of family or jia Written for both beginners and specialists this book considers the role of family literally metaphorically and as an organizing principle in the creation of the Chinese worldview Individual chapters explore philosophy art language music folk literature fiction architecture film and women and gender

Chinese Sculpture Angela Falco Howard, Wu Hung, Li Song, Yang Hong, 2006-01-01 Spanning some 7000 years Chinese Sculpture explores a beautiful and diverse world of objects many of which have only come to light in the later half of the 20th century The authors analyse and present mostly in colour some 500 examples of Chinese sculpture

Chinese Religious Art Patricia Eichenbaum Karetzky, 2013-12-19 Chinese Religious Art is a broad survey of the origins and development of the various forms of artistic expression of Chinese religions The study begins with an overview of ancient archaeology in order to identify nascent religious ideologies in various Neolithic Cultures and early Chinese historical eras including the Shang dynasty 1300 1050 BCE and Zhou Dynasty 1000 221 BCE up until the era of the First Emperor 221 210 BCE Part Two treats Confucianism as a religious tradition examining its scriptures images temples and rituals Adopted as the state ideology in the Han dynasty Confucian ideas permeated society for over two thousand years Filial piety ethical behavior and other principles shaped the pictorial arts Part Three considers the various schools of Daoist belief and their expression in art The ideas of a utopian society and the pursuit of immortality characterize this religion from its earliest phase Daoism has an elaborate pantheon and ritualistic art as well as a secular tradition best expressed in monochrome ink painting Part Four covers the development of Buddhist art beginning with its entry into China in the second century Its monuments comprised largely of cave temples carved high in the mountains along the frontiers of China and large metropolitan temples provide evidence of its evolution including the adoption of savior cults of the Buddha of the Western Paradise the Buddha of the Future the rise of Chan Zen and esoteric Buddhism In their development these various religious traditions interacted sharing art architecture iconography and rituals By the twelfth century a stage of syncretism merged all three traditions into a popular religion All the religions are reviving after their extirpation during the Cultural Revolution Using historical records and artistic evidence much of which has not been published this study examines their individual and shared manner of worshipping the divine forces
