William B. Thesing, 1995 Centennial Essays for Robinson Jeffers Robert Zaller, 1991 This work is the first volume of critical essays devoted to the poetry of Robinson Jeffers Although Jeffers was likened to some of the greatest figures in the literary world his work was controversial His preoccupation with violence and sexuality was denounced by some his alleged blasphemy by others Condemned by moralists Marxists and Cold Warriors alike Jeffers fell into obscurity until his death in 1962 Included are nine original essays by leading Jeffers scholars Towers of Myth and Stone Deborah Fleming, 2015-09-15 In this critical study of the influence of W B Yeats 1865 1939 on the poetry and drama of Robinson Jeffers 1887 1962 Deborah Fleming examines similarities in imagery landscape belief in eternal recurrence use of myth distrust of rationalism and dedication to tradition Although Yeats's and Jeffers's styles differed widely Towers of Myth and Stone examines how the two men shared a vision of modernity rejected contemporary values in favor of traditions some of their own making and created poetry that sought to change those values Jeffers's well known opposition to modernist poetry forced him for decades to the margins of critical appraisal where he was seen as an eccentric without aesthetic content Yet both Yeats and Jeffers formulated social and poetic philosophies that continue to find relevance in critical and cultural theory Engaging Yeats's work enabled Jeffers to develop a related though distinct sense of what themes and subject matter were best suited for poetic endeavor His connection to Yeats helps to explain the nature of Jeffers's poetry even as it helps to clarify Yeats's influence on those who followed him Moreover Fleming argues Jeffers's interest in Yeats suggests that critics misunderstand Jeffers if they take his rejection of modernism as exemplified by Wallace Stevens William Carlos Williams and Ezra Pound as a rejection of contemporary poetry or the process by which modern poetry came into being The Postmoderns Donald Allen, George F. Butterick, 1982 This anthology includes many of the major poets to have emerged and gained pre eminence since World War II and whose writing reflects not only the significant changes in this nation's postwar history and the coming to grips with a nuclear age but also an entirely new way of looking at and structuring reality United by their postmodernist concerns with spontaneity instantism formal and syntactic flexibility and the revelation of both the creator and the process through the writing itself these 38 poets represent very diverse strains of an essential American individualism Included are many of the poets whose work first gained widespread national attention with the 1960 publication of The New American Poetry Charles Olson Allen Ginsberg Paul Blackburn LeRoi Jones Amiri Baraka Denise Levertov Robert Duncan and others Among the poets included here for the first time are Anne Waldman Diane di Prima Ed Sanders Jerome Rothenberg and James Koller In addition to a new preface by Allen and Butterick the book provides autobiographical notes of all the poets and listings of their major works Power and the Pursuit of Peace: Theory and Practice in the History of Relations Between States F. H. Hinsley, Francis Harry Hinsley, 1967-10 In the last years of the nineteenth century peace proposals were first stimulated by fear of the danger of war rather than in consequence of its outbreak In this study of the nature and history of international relations Mr Hinsley presents his conclusions about the causes of war and the development of men's efforts to avoid it. In the first part he examines international theories from the end of the middle ages to the establishment of the League of Nations in their historical setting. This enables him to show how far modern peace proposals are merely copies or elaborations of earlier schemes. He believes there has been a marked reluctance to test these theories not only against the formidable criticisms of men like Rousseau, Kant and Bentham but also against what we have learned about the nature of international relations and the history of the practice of states. This leads him to the second part of his study: an analysis of the origins of the modern states system and of its evolution between the eighteenth century and the First World War.

Now I Know Only So Far Dell H. Hymes, 2003-01-01

Now I Know Only So Far sociolinguist and ethnopoeitic scholar Dell Hymes examines the power and significance of Native North American literatures and how they can best be approached and appreciated. Such narratives Hymes argues are ways of making sense of the world. To truly comprehend the importance and durability of these narratives one must investigate the ways of thinking expressed in these texts: the cultural sensibilities also deeply affected by storytellers' particular experiences and mastery of form. Included here are seminal overviews and reflections on the history and potential of the field of ethnopoeitics. Native North American stories from areas ranging from the Northwest Coast to the Southwest take center stage in this book which features careful scrutiny of different realizations and tellings of the same story or related stories. Such narratives are illuminated through a series of verse analyses in which patterned relations of lines throw into relief differences in emphasis, shape and interpretation. A final group of essays sheds light on the often misunderstood and always controversial role of editing and interpreting texts. Now I Know Only So Far provides penetrating discussions and absorbing insights into stories and worlds both traditional and new.

William Everson Steven Herrmann, 2015-12-10

In 1991 author and Jungian psychotherapist Steven Herrmann was called by the poet shaman William Everson to collaborate on writing a book. It is from that event that the subtitle of this book emerged: The Shaman's Call. Its aim is to instill in readers that if one follows one's calling from the shamanic archetype with the right attitude it could culminate in true cosmic awareness. And it would interconnect the psyche with nature or what C. G. Jung called the Self. Such awareness is made clear through the transfiguring power of American poet shamans who transmit what they are called by nature to convey that an experience of the Self is a life altering experience. The calling can be transmitted by way of an animal power to a person through dreams, transformative relationships in depth psychotherapy, religious experiences, art, scientific endeavor or through the hearing, reading or writing of shamanic poetry. During the conversations with Everson emerged a vision of the way shamanism has been portrayed in American poetry from Herman Melville's Moby Dick to Walt Whitman's Leaves of Grass to Emily Dickinson's The Complete Poetry to what Everson achieved in his seminal poems October Tragedy, The Encounter and Black Hills and in his literature course at the University of California Santa Cruz. The conversations form a link between the 80 year old poet shaman and the 35 year old Jungian author Steven Herrmann who was just beginning to find his own wings as a poet The Expanded edition commemorates William Everson s birth on September 10 1912 Herrmann co organized three Centennial events to celebrate Everson s work in the fall of 2012 Part II contains Seven Meditations William Everson s Basic Teachings on Vocation a final conversation with Everson on vocatypes and Herrmann s Centennial essays and poems
