Robinson for the Defence Larry Robinson, Chrys Goyens, 1988      General Defences in Criminal Law Alan Reed, Michael Bohlander, 2016-04-15 The law relating to general defences is one of the most important areas in the criminal law yet the current state of the law in the United Kingdom reveals significant problems in the adoption of a consistent approach to their doctrinal and theoretical underpinnings as exemplified by a number of recent developments in legislation and case law A coherent and joined up approach is still missing This volume provides an analysis of the main contentious areas in British law and proposes ways forward for reform The collection includes contributions from leading experts across various jurisdictions Part I examines the law in the United Kingdom with specialist contributions on Irish and Scottish law Part II consists of contributions by authors from a number of foreign jurisdictions all written to a common research grid for maximum comparability which provide a wider background of how other legal systems treat problems relating to general defences in the context of the criminal law and which may serve as points of reference for domestic law reform      Predestination in Early Modern Reformed Theology Richard A. Muller, 2024-04-24 Dr Richard A Muller investigates the complexity and development of predestination in Reformed thought in the sixteenth and seventeenth centuries      Zeppelin vs British Home Defence 1915-18 Jon Guttman, 2018-03-09 When Ferdinand Graf von Zeppelin's rigid airship LZ 1 flew over Lake Constance in 1900 it was the most advanced and impressive flying machine in the world a colossal lighter than air craft capable of controlled flight In World War I Zeppelins were first used in a reconnaissance role but on 19 January 1915 Kaiser Wilhelm II authorised their use in bombing strategic targets in England From then on Zeppelin became synonymous with terror to the British and indeed the airship's effectiveness was more psychological than material Still their raids compelled the Royal Flying Corps and Royal Naval Air Service to embark on a program of modernising their aerial defences accelerating a process that would ultimately make the aeroplane rather than the airship the paramount flying machine of the war Using specially commissioned artwork contemporary photographs and first hand accounts this book tells the fascinating story of Britain's first Blitz from the airships who terrorised the public to the men who sought to defend the skies      John Robinson and the English Separatist Tradition Timothy George, 1982 This study was undertaken with the belief that a careful reading of Robinson's works would yield a more accurate assessment of his significance as a leading exponent of English Separatism      The Gentleman's Magazine and Historical Review, 1867      The Gentleman's Magazine, and Historical Chronicle, for the Year ..., 1867      The Gentleman's Magazine: Or, Monthly Intelligencer Edward Cave, 1867      Gentleman's Magazine, Or Monthly Intelligencer Sylvanus Urban (pseud. van Edward Cave.), 1867      Routledge Handbook of Military Ethics George Lucas, 2015-05-22 The Routledge Handbook of Military Ethics is a comprehensive reference work that addresses concerns held in common by the military services of many nations It attempts to discern both moral dilemmas and clusters of moral principles held in common by all practitioners of this profession regardless of nation or culture Comprising essays by contributors drawn from the four service branches Army Navy Air Force and Marine corps as well as civilian academics specializing in this field this handbook discusses the relationship of ethics in the military setting to applied and professional ethics generally Leading scholars and senior military practitioners from countries including the US UK France China Australia and Japan discuss various national cultural views of the moral dimensions of military service With reference to the responsibilities of professional orientation and education as well as the challenges posed by recent technological developments this handbook examines the difficulties underpinning the fundamental framework of military service This book will be of much interest to students of military studies war theory ethics philosophy sociology war and conflict studies and security studies The Nineteenth Century and After ,1918 Official Report of Debates, House of Commons Canada. Parliament. House of Commons,1925 House of Commons Debates, Official Report Canada. Parliament. House of Commons,1925 Another Life Andrew R B Simpson,2011-08-31 T E Lawrence found global recognition for his leadership of the Arab Revolt during World War I preparing the ground for the final Allied offensive in 1918 He was hailed as a hero but little is known about this mysterious and charismatic man after those events Here is Lawrence's life after Arabia his service in the RAF and the Tank Corps as a mere ranker and how he became an expert in the technology of the new RAF The book examines the work he did for the 1929 Schneider Trophy Race the development of the new RAF 200 seaplane tender and the development of its armour plated offspring the Armoured Target Boat It also investigates his literary endeavours and his tragically early death a sad end to a Renaissance man of all talents an academic a talented engineer and a soldier sans pareil T E was offered exalted diplomatic positions by Churchill implored by Nancy Astor to re enter the fray as the Nazi threat grew socialised with the Cliveden set argued with the Archbishop of Canterbury He made lasting friendships with humble squaddies His self loathing was expressed physically Consulting primary sources and also having interviewed some of those who knew Lawrence after Arabia the author portrays the last years of one of the most astonishing figures of the 20th century Air University Library Index to Military Periodicals ,1998 Mental State Defences in Criminal Law Steven Yannoulidis,2016-04-22 By defining appropriate boundaries for the defence of insanity and the doctrine of automatism this book presents a consistent and principled approach to the reform of mental state defences In particular by undertaking an interdisciplinary analysis of the various factors that inform these defences the book concludes with several practical and robust reform proposals There are three objectives that underpin the suggested reform proposals First to ensure that an accused will be able to raise a defence of insanity for involuntary conduct arising from mental disorder even where he or she is aware of the nature and quality of such conduct Second to provide principled means by which to establish the criminal responsibility of an accused for conduct performed in a state of drug induced psychosis Third to ensure that criminal conduct arising from a state of impaired consciousness does not automatically result in the outright acquittal of an accused In articulating the competing demands that must be balanced in order to secure a principled approach to the reform of mental state defences the book will be of relevance to all common law countries Parliamentary Debates (Hansard). Great Britain. Parliament. House of Commons,1993 Pearson's Magazine ,1912 Vol 49 no 9 Sept 1922 accompanied by a separately paged section entitled ERA electronic reactions of Abrams Antiballistic Missile Defence in the 1980s Ian Bellany,Coit D. Blacker,2021-01-26 This book first published in 1983 analyses the technical and political developments in the two decades after the 1972 Soviet American ABM treaty It signposts the route for discussion of the antiballistic missile question with its shared tacit assumption that nuclear war is for deterring and not fighting and examines the dangerous tendency to conduct the ABM debate of the 1980s with the technical and political assumptions of the 1960s Review of historical publications relating to Canada ,1911
