Faber,2023-05-01 In Robot Suicide

Death Identity and AI in Science Fiction Liz W Faber blends cultural studies philosophy sociology and medical sciences to show how fictional robots hold up a mirror to our cultural perceptions about suicide and can help us rethink real world policies regarding mental health For decades we ve been asking whether we could make a robot live but a new question is whether a living robot could make itself die And if it could how might we humans react Suicide is a longstanding taboo in Western culture particularly in relationship to mental health marginalized identities and individual choice But science fiction offers us space to tackle the taboo by exploring whether and under what circumstances robots as metaphorical stand ins for humans might choose to die Faber looks at a broad range of science fiction from classics like The Terminator franchise to recent hits like C Robert Cargill s novel Sea of Rust Sequels Janet G.
