Santería Healing A Journey Into The Afro Cuban World Of Divinities Spirits And Sorcery:

Santería Healing Johan Wedel, 2004 Will be of interest not only to specialists in Afro Cuban and African Diaspora religions but also to medical anthropologists and students of anthropology psychology and religious studies This work provides a particularly revealing entry way into the realities of contemporary Cuba George Brandon Sophie Davis School of Biomedical Education City University of New York Johan Wedel offers a visit inside the world of Santería a healing Drawing upon extensive fieldwork in contemporary Cuba including interviews with Santería devotees firsthand observations of divination sessions and interviews with healed patients supplemented by comments from Santería healers Wedel demonstrates how Santería healing is carried out and experienced by the participants Santería with roots in Africa and the slave trade and rituals including divination animal sacrifice and possession trance would seem an anachronism in the modern world Still Wedel argues it offers treatment and ideas about illness that are flourishing and even spreading in the face of Western medicine He shows that Santería healing is best understood as a transformation of the self allowing the patient to experience the world in a new way He grounds his analysis of Santería in lively and sometimes frightening narratives in which people reveal in their own words the experience of illness sorcery and healing Wedel's account will appeal to scholars and others interested in Santería Cuba and religious healing He shows that Santería is not only a challenge to Western medical theory but also an important contribution to our understanding of illness suffering and well being Johan Wedel is instructor in social anthropology at Göteborg University Sweden

Sacral Grooves, Limbo Gateways Keith Cartwright, 2013 We re seeing people that we didn t know exist the director of FEMA acknowledged in the wake of Hurricane Katrina Sacral Grooves Limbo Gateways offers a corrective to some of America s institutionalized invisibilities by delving into the submerged networks of ritual performance writing intercultural history and migration that have linked the coastal U S South with the Caribbean and the wider Atlantic world This interdisciplinary study slips beneath the bar of rigid national and literary periods embarking upon deeper more rhythmic and embodied signatures of time It swings low through ecologies and symbolic orders of creolized space And it reappraises pluralistic modes of knowledge kinship and authority that have sustained vital forms of agency such as jazz amid abysses of racialized trauma Drawing from Haitian Vodou and New Orleanian Voudou and from Cuban and South Floridian Santería as well as from Afro Baptist Caribbean Geechee and Bahamian models of encounters with otherness this book reemplaces deep southern texts within the counterclockwise ring stepping of a long Afro Atlantic modernity Turning to an orphan girl s West African initiation tale to follow a remarkably traveled body of feminine rites and writing in works by Paule Marshall Zora Neale Hurston Lydia Cabrera William Faulkner James Weldon Johnson and LeAnne Howe among others Cartwright argues that only in holistic form emergent from gulfs of cross cultural witness can literary and humanistic authority find legitimacy Without such grounding he contends our educational institutions blind and even poison students bringing them to swallow lye like the grandson of Phoenix Jackson in Eudora Welty s A Worn Path Here literary study may open pathways to alternative medicines fetched by tenacious avatars like Phoenix or an orphan Kumba or a shell shaking Turtle to remedy the lies our partial histories have made us swallow The Geography of Religion Roger W.

Stump, 2008-04-04 The only book of its kind this balanced and accessibly written text explores the geographical study of religion Roger W Stump presents a clear and meticulous examination of the intersection of religious belief and practice with the concepts of place and space He begins by analyzing the factors that have shaped the spatial distributions of religious groups including the seminal events that have fostered the organization of religions in diverse hearths and the subsequent processes of migration and conversion that have spread religious beliefs The author then assesses how major religions have diversified as they have become established in disparate places producing a variety of religious systems from a common tradition Stump explores the efforts of religious groups to control secular space at various scales relating their own uses of particular spaces and the meanings they attribute to space beyond the boundaries of their own communities Examining sacred space as a diverse but recurring theme in religious belief the book considers its role in religious forms of spatial behavior and as a source of conflict within and between religious groups Refreshingly jargon free and impartial this text provides a broad comparative view of religion as a focus of geographical inquiry Botánica Los Angeles Patrick Arthur

Polk, Donald Cosentino, 2004 Material expressions of spiritual belief are integral components of the Los Angeles landscape Cathedrals temples churches and shrines dot the city but they are not the only sites where notions of the divine or at least the supernatural are made visible Reflecting the broad ethnic and cultural reconfiguration of Southern California in recent years botanicas have emerged as one of the most frequent purveyors of sacramental items This book explores these fascinating venues and their role in transmitting transforming and critiquing traditional faiths An ever evolving combination of spiritual center religious supply house and alternate healthcare facility the botanica is generally associated with folk Catholicism and other Latin American religious traditions Vivid photographs and essays describe these sites of spirit infused artistry ceremonial activity and community building Patrick Arthur Polk is visiting assistant professor of world arts and cultures at UCLA Other contributors include Donald J Cosentino Ysamur Flores Pena Miki Garcia Claudia J Hernandez
