Saskatchewan First Nations Lives Past And Present:

Saskatchewan First Nations University of Regina. Canadian Plains Research Center, 2004 This book begins with an introductory section that briefly reviews the history of First Nations political development in Saskatchewan the historical process of First Nations education health care among Saskatchewan First Nations the development of First Nations media and First Nations people in sports The main section contains over 125 biographies of Saskatchewan First Nations people which together demonstrate the diversity department of this community and their contribution to the province

Saskatchewan History, 2003 The West and Beyond Sarah Carter, Alvin Finkel, Peter Fortna, 2010 The West and Beyond evaluates and appraises the state of Western Canadian history acknowledging and assessing the contributions of historians of the past and present while showcasing the research interests of a new generation of scholars It charts new directions for the future and stimulates further interrogations of our past This collection encourages dialogue among the generations of historians of the West and among practitioners of diverse approaches to the past It also reflects a broad range of disciplinary and professional boundaries suggesting a number of different ways to understand the west Hunger, Horses, and Government Men Shelley A. M. Gavigan, 2012-10-15 Scholars often accept without question that the Indian Act 1876 criminalized First Nations Drawing on court files police and penitentiary records and newspaper accounts from the Saskatchewan region of the North West Territories between 1870 and 1905 Shelley Gavigan argues that the notion of criminalization captures neither the complexities of Aboriginal participation in the criminal courts nor the significance of the Indian Act as a form of law This illuminating book paints a vivid portrait of Aboriginal defendants witnesses and informants whose encounters with the criminal law and the Indian Act included both the mediation and the enforcement of relations of inequality Our Towns David McLennan, 2008 In this illustrated book author David McLennan guides us on an alphabetical tour of 725 Saskatchewan communities Our Towns Saskatchewan Communities from Abbey to Zenon Park is the result of many years of travel throughout the province Meticulously researched and illustrated with more than 1 000 stunning previously unpublished photographs both historical and contemporary Our Towns is a truly unique reflection of the province's history and people BOOK JACKET The Memoirs of Miss Chief Eagle Testickle: Vol. 2 Kent Monkman, Gisele Gordon, 2025-05-27 From global art superstar Kent Monkman and his longtime collaborator Gisele Gordon a transformational work of true stories and imagined history that will remake readers understanding of the land called North America For decades the singular and provocative paintings by Cree artist Kent Monkman have featured a recurring character an alter ego of sorts a shape shifting time travelling elemental being named Miss Chief Eagle Testickle Though we have glimpsed her across the years and on countless canvases it is finally time to hear her story in her own words And in doing so to hear the whole history of Turtle Island anew The Memoirs of Miss Chief Eagle Testickle A True and Exact Accounting of the History of Turtle Island is a genre demolishing work of genius the imagined history of a legendary figure through which a profound truths emerge a deeply Cree and gloriously queer understanding of our shared world its past its present and its possibilities Volume Two which takes us from the moment of confederation to the present day is a heartbreaking and intimate examination of the tragedies of the nineteenth and twentieth century Zeroing in on the story of one family told across generations Miss Chief bears witness to the genocidal forces and structures that dispossessed and attempted to erase Indigenous peoples Featuring many figures pulled from history as well as new individuals created for this story Volume Two explores the legacy of colonial violence in the children s work camps called residential schools by some the Sixties Scoop and the urban disconnection of contemporary life Ultimately it is a story of resilience and reconnection and charts the beginnings of an Indigenous future that is deeply rooted in an experience of Indigenous history a perspective Miss Chief a millennia old legendary being can offer like none other Blending history fiction and memoir in bold new ways The Memoirs of Miss Chief Eagle Testickle are unlike anything published before And in their power to reshape our shared understanding they promise to change the way we see everything that lies ahead
