Genealogical Fictions Jobst Welge, 2015-02-16 Moving through time he uncovers often unsuspected novelistic continuities and international transformations and echoes from Maria Edgeworth's Castle Rackrent published in 1800 to G. Tomasi di Lampedusa's 1958 book Il Gattopardo By revealing the family resemblance of novels from Great Britain Italy Spain Portugal and Brazil this volume shows how genealogical narratives take on special significance in contexts of cultural periphery Welge links private and public histories while simultaneously integrating detailed accounts of various literary fields across the globe In combining theories of the novel recent discussions of cultural geography and new approaches to genealogical narratives Genealogical Fictions addresses a significant part of European and Latin American literary history in which texts from different national cultures illuminate each other in unsuspected ways and reveal the repetition as well as the variation among them

Spanish Word Formation and Lexical Creation José Luis Cifuentes Honrubia, José Luis Cifuentes, Susana Rodríguez Rosique, 2011 This volume contributes a wider approach to word formation processes and sheds light on some unsolved issues While the formal relationships established between the different constituents of a complex word have been analyzed in great depth the semantic links have received little dedication

In order to complete the analysis it is necessary to pay attention to the semantic properties associated to verbalization. The main purpose of the book is to integrate both the semantic proposals and the formal perspectives concerning word formation. This theoretical aim becomes the framework to study several mechanisms of lexical creation and neologisms. Furthermore, word formation is presented as a new source for Applied Linguistics. Although the volume uses Spanish as a starting point, it means to delimit formation patterns which may also be productive in other languages. This book is sure to become an important reference in the controversial field of word formation.

Critical Approaches to the Writings of Juan Benet Robert C. Manteiga, David K. Herzberger, Malcolm Alan Compitello, 1984

Narrating the Past David K. Herzberger, 1995-05-24

The relationship between fiction and historiography in Francoist Spain 1939-1975 is a contentious one. The intricacies of this relationship in which fiction works to subvert the regime's authority to write the past are the focus of David K. Herzberger's book. The narrative and rhetorical strategies of historical discourse figure in both the fiction and historiography of postwar Spain. Herzberger analyzes these strategies, identifying the structures and vocabularies they use to frame the past and endow it with particular meanings. He shows how Francoist historians sought to affirm the historical necessity of Franco by linking the regime to a heroic and Christian past, while several types of postwar fiction, such as social realism, the novel of memory, and postmodern novels, created a voice of opposition to this practice. Focusing on the concept of writing history, that these opposing strategies convey, Herzberger discloses the layering of truth and meaning that lies at the heart of postwar Spanish narrative from the early 1940s to the fall of Franco. His study clearly reveals how the novel in postwar Spain became a crucial form of dissent from the past as it was conceived and used by the State. Making a decisive intervention in the debate about the ways in which narration determines both the meaning and truth of history and fiction, Narrating the Past will be of special interest to students and scholars of the politics, history, and literature of twentieth-century Spain.

The Cambridge History of Spanish Literature David T. Gies, 2004. Publisher Description

The Spanish Civil War in Literature, Film, and Art Peter Monteath, 1994-09-30. This bibliography is the first attempt to establish a comprehensive list of secondary material relating to the Spanish Civil War in literature, film, and art. It includes books, articles, and chapters in a wide range of languages, including Spanish, English, Russian, French, German, and Italian. Monteath begins the work with an introductory essay surveying the breadth of the scholarship on the cultural manifestations of the war, which he places in its broader cultural and historical context. The bibliography is organized alphabetically within sections devoted to literature, film, and art, and a general subject index completes the work. Anyone interested in the fiction of Hemingway, the film of Ivens, the art of Picasso, and many of the key figures in Western culture of the 1930s will find this work of value.

Mapping the Fiction of Cristina Fernández Cubas Kathleen Mary Glenn, Janet Pérez, 2005. Cristina Fernández Cubas is without question one of the most important of the Spanish writers who have begun to publish since the end of the Franco dictatorship. Credited with playing a major role in the renaissance of the short story in Spain, she has won national and international acclaim for her fiction. Works by her have been translated into eight languages and have become a staple of university courses on contemporary Peninsular literature. Fernandez Cubas has created a remarkably coherent narrative world nourished by a core of fundamental concerns. The eleven essays of Mapping the Fiction of Cristina Fernandez Cubas examine the intellectual preoccupations, narrative strategies and rhetorical devices that distinguish the four volumes of short stories, two novels, the play and the book of memoirs that she has published to date.

Encyclopedia of Contemporary Spanish Culture Professor Eamonn Rodgers, Eamonn Rodgers, 2002-03-11. Some 750 alphabetically arranged entries provide insights into recent cultural and political developments within Spain, including the cultures of Catalonia, Galicia and the Basque country. Entries include Antonio Gaudí, science, Antonio Banderas, golf, dance, education, politics, racism, urbanization. This Encyclopedia is essential reading for anyone interested in Spanish culture. It provides essential cultural context for students of Spanish, European History, Comparative European Studies and Cultural Studies.

The Cambridge Companion to the Spanish Novel Harriet Turner, Adelaida López de Martínez, 2003-09-11. The Cambridge Companion to the Spanish Novel presents the development of the modern Spanish novel from 1600 to the present. Drawing on the combined legacies of Don Quijote and the traditions of the picaresque novel, these essays focus on the question of invention and experiment on what constitutes the singular features of evolving fictional forms. It examines how the novel articulates the relationships between history and fiction, high and popular culture, art and ideology, and gender and society. Contributors highlight the role played by historical events and cultural contexts in the elaboration of the Spanish novel, which often takes a self-conscious stance toward literary tradition. Topics covered include the regional novel, women writers and film, and literature. This companionable survey, which includes a chronology and guide to further reading, conveys a vivid sense of the innovative techniques of the Spanish novel and of the debates surrounding it.

A Companion to the Twentieth-century Spanish Novel Marta E. Altisent, 2008. The Spanish novel in a turbulent century. This collection of studies by eighteen prominent theorists and critics offers a diverse panorama of the modern Spanish novel seen through the prism of Spain's recent political, cultural and ideological history. It considers the development of the novel as a social mirror and as a changing literary form, torn between the tradition of stern realism and the aesthetics of rupture affecting all Western literature from the Avant Garde to the Postmodern age. While some essays emphasise the Spanish cultural context and canonical writers, others are of a broader nature, grouping lesser-known writers under certain literary tendencies: the metaphysical novel, the urban novel, recuperative accounts of the Civil War, feminine first-person narrations, and the rise of the popular detective, historical and erotic novels. Three studies address the resurgence of the Catalan, Basque and Galician novel and their departure from a poetics of identity to one of global concerns. Interdisciplinary approaches address the reciprocal impacts of literature and cinema and the effects of the marketplace on the consumption of fiction are not forgotten The Companion provides ample bibliographies and a valuable chronology while all titles and quotations are translated into English Contributors Marta E Altisent Katarzyna Olga Beilin Ram n Buckley Jos F Colmeiro Stacey Dolgin Casado Sebastiaan Faber David K Herzberger Carlos Alex Longhurst Kathleen N March Cristina Mart nez Carazo Alfredo Mart nez Exp sito Nina L Molinaro Gonzalo Navajas Mari Jose Olaziregi Janet D P rez Randolph D Pope Josep Miquel Sobrer H Rosi Song Anales de la Literatura Española Contemporánea ,1982 The Holy Bible Adam Clarke,1837 A New History of Spanish Writing, 1939 to the 1990s Chris Perriam,2000 A New History of Spanish Writing 1939 to the 1990s explores the diversity of some sixty years of imaginative writing by Spaniards its interactions with Spain s peculiarly dramatic history since the end of its Civil War and its wider thematic significance It covers the famous and canonical texts of the most recent in Modern Spanish literature but also explores areas less well known outside Spain essays and editorials queer narrative new poetry comics and texts of the militant and reactionary Right More space than is usual in literary histories is allowed for commentary on famous texts but the book also makes room for the marginalized and for socially contextualized explorations of the interconnectedness of various forms of writing The overall structure is not chronological but thematic dealing with abstract and topical issues such as silence the family or realism Joshua to Esther Adam Clarke,1846 The Comprehensive Bible ,1827
