Saving The City How To Halt The Destruction Of Dublin:

Saving the City Frank McDonald,1989-01-01      Jack Lynch, A Biography Dermot Keogh,2009-09-04 Jack Lynch is one of the most important and perhaps most underrated Irish political leaders of the twentieth century A sportsman who won six All Ireland medals in a row with Cork he was also a civil servant and a barrister before being elected to Dail Eireann in 1948 During his thirty one years as a parliamentarian he held the ministries of Education Industry and Commerce and Finance before succeeding Seán Lemass as Taoiseach in 1966 Lynch held office during the critical years of the late 1960s and early 1970s when Northern Ireland disintegrated and civil unrest swept through Belfast Derry and other towns This precipitated one of the worst crises in the history of the Irish state Jack Lynch upheld the parliamentary democratic tradition at great personal and political cost even to the point of fracturing the unity of his government and his party If you want to know what happened during those terrible years read this book

Management of Historic Centres Robert Pickard,2013-01-11 This book examines key themes for the management of historic urban centres within a representative sample of centres in different European countries The twelve historic centres that have been chosen are spread throughout Europe They are diverse in character and the range includes small towns cities and urban centres within cities Some have been designated by UNESCO as World Heritage Sites or Cities whilst others have recognition or have been proposed as European Cities of Culture The centres have all faced different problems and a variety of approaches have been utilised which are also examined For each of the historic centres in the book the authors broadly cover a number of common themes the policy and planning framework management and regeneration action environmental management tourism and heritage management and sustainability

Space and the Irish Cultural Imagination Gerry Smyth,2001-07-18 This book reconstitutes the category of space as a crucial element within contemporary cultural literary and historical studies in Ireland The study is based on the dual premise of an explosion of interest in the category of space in modern cultural criticism and social inquiry and the consolidation of Irish studies as a significant scholarly field across a number of institutional and intellectual contexts Besides a methodological theoretical introduction and extended case studies the book includes an auto critical dimension which extends its interest into the fields of local history and life writing

Creating Smart Cities Claudio Coletta,Leighton Evans,Liam Heaphy,Rob Kitchin,2018-10-26 In cities around the world digital technologies are utilized to manage city services and infrastructures to govern urban life to solve urban issues and to drive local and regional economies While smart city advocates are keen to promote the benefits of smart urbanism increased efficiency sustainability resilience competitiveness safety and security critics point to the negative effects such as the production of technocratic governance the corporatization of urban services technological lock ins privacy harms and vulnerability to cyberattack This book through a range of international case studies suggests social political and practical interventions that would enable more equitable and just smart cities reaping the benefits of smart city initiatives while minimizing some of their perils Included are case studies from Ireland the United States of America Colombia the Netherlands Singapore India and the United Kingdom These chapters discuss a range of issues including political economy citizenship standards testbedding urban regeneration ethics surveillance privacy and cybersecurity This book will be of interest to urban policymakers as well as researchers in Regional Studies and Urban Planning

Sustainable Cities for the Third Millennium: The Odyssey of Urban Excellence Voula P. Mega, 2010-09-21 At the dawn of the third millennium planet Earth entered a zone of turbulence The 2008 crisis added economic uncertainty to the threat of global warming and extreme events such as droughts floods and cyclones the persisting crisis of poverty and the spectrum of pandemics and terrorism Against this global landscape in an era of fragility cities already sheltering more than half of humankind appear as Janus faced realities the best and worst of places vulnerable but still full of hope and will to overcome the crisis of societal values and progress in the path of sustainable development This book addresses the most critical challenges for cities humanity's collective masterpieces in danger and analyses breakthrough responses for sustainable development a globalisation with human face and the transition to inclusive post carbon communities The ultimate wish is that experts city planners decision makers and citizens in search of sustainable cities could find here some sources of information and inspiration to enhance the immense possibilities of cities and embrace the best possible trajectories of change

Copy Proof Academie St. Joost, 2000 The book presents the theory and practice of a new kind of designing geared to the demands of rapidly changing technology new patterns in the exchange and communication of information and the changing needs of society Introductory essays examine the history and current practice of education in design and five prominent Dutch authors analyse the final projects of ten Post St Joost designers work which is also extensively illustrated

Creating Neighbourhoods and Places in the Built Environment David Chapman, 2003-09-02 This design primer examines the forces at work in the built environment and their impact on the form of buildings and their environments The actions of a range of individuals and agencies and the interaction between them is examined exploring the competing interests which exist their interaction with physical and environmental forces and the uncertain results of both individual and corporate intervention

Ireland and Transatlantic Poetics Brian Caraher, Robert Mahony, 2007 Transatlantic poetics is the principal theme and the constructive burden of these essays The motive toward its articulation lies in the demand for cross national international and post nationalist comprehension of cultural relations and critical practices across modern Anglophone British Irish and North American literary developments literary filiations and literary history Anglophone literary study needs to articulate ever more clearly the poetics of literary practices including the cultural politics of literary histories and literary reading Ireland is a small island yet its finest writers have insistently articulated its modern culture within a transatlantic neighborhood stretching from continental Europe across the British and Irish archipelago to the western reaches of North America Modern Dublin is a cultural location for constructing transatlantic literary relations and poetics This collection foregrounds modern Dublin its writers its universities its literary journals its teachers and critics of English Studies as well as the contested critical construction of regional and international poetics and cultural politics that emerges from the often tense interaction of local and global literary practices and critical desires

The Sustainable Nation Liam Leonard, 2017-11-10 Drawing on almost 20 years of Liam Leonard's research in the field this volume provides a detailed case study of a modern European state's tumultuous development through first decades of the Millennium The book provides an in depth and up to date study on Ireland's growth and the substantial changes experienced there during the last two decades Irish Publishing Record, 1988 Culture and Capitalism in Contemporary Ireland Paul Keating, Derry Desmond, 1993 This book is the result of extensive empirical research into the economy of the Republic of Ireland As its title suggests it is concerned to determine whether and to what extent Irish culture has impacted on the development of Irish capitalism and thus on the economic development of that country The explanatory focus of the book lies in cultural meanings it aims to ease out the meanings with which actors endow economic activity and to show how salient features of the culture through which these meanings are structured influence the nature extent and intensity of actors economic engagements and so react on the character of Irish capitalism and the level of Irish economic development

Writings on Irish History, 1989 Ireland and the Irish John Ardagh, 1994 This perceptive and highly readable book is primarily about the Republic and how it has changed profoundly over the past forty years as a traditional rural based society has adapted to a wider modern world Once so enclosed the Irish are now committed Europeans and have gained much from Europe They have banished their old poverty modernized their economy and lifestyles but are they losing the old Irish values On this the nation is split as a powerful Catholic Church sees its authority contested and social change leads to moral confusion Ardagh has talked with President Mary Robinson Gay Byrne the king of Irish TV Eamonn Casey the disgraced ex Bishop of Galway and countless others His book ranges widely from the Dublin slums to the fate of the small Mayo farms it takes in the changing role of women the young novelists the music revival the fight for the Irish language the new style emigrants the creaking political system The long chapter on the North gives an upbeat picture of the patient grass roots efforts at reconciliation and of how a resilient people continue normal life in the shadow of the ongoing conflict The logic of history may well lead to a united Ireland but not by any means yet BOOK JACKET Title Summary field provided by Blackwell North America Inc All Rights Reserved Urbanisation and the Functions of Cities in the European Community European Institute of Urban Affairs (Liverpool John Moores University), Commission of the European Communities.
