Shattered Stories Of Children And War:

Shattered Jennifer Armstrong, 2007-12-18 As bullets ring and bombs are dropped children watch mostly from the sidelines but occasionally in the direct line of fire Unaware of the political issues or power struggles behind the battle all they know are the human emotional consequences of this thing called war This collection examines all of war's implications for young people from those caught in the line of fire to the children of the veterans of wars long past Critically acclaimed author Jennifer Armstrong brings together 12 powerful voices in young people's literature to explore the realities of war from a child's perspective The settings vary widely the Soviet invasion of Afghanistan an attempted coup in Venezuela the American Civil War crisis in the Middle East but the effects are largely the same In war no life is ever left untouched In war lives are shattered Shattered Stories of Children and War Jennifer Armstrong, 2002-01 Shattered Jennifer

Armstrong, 2003-07-01 Stories explore the ways in which children are affected by war from two Native American soldiers fighting in the Civil War to an Afghan girl whose village is destroyed by the Soviets The Political Responsibilities of

Everyday Bystanders Stephen L. Esquith, 2011-02-28 In a world where every person is exposed daily through the mass media to images of violence and suffering as most dramatically exemplified in recent years by the ongoing tragedy in Darfur the question naturally arises What responsibilities do we as bystanders to such social injustice bear in holding accountable those who have created the conditions for this suffering And what is our own complicity in the continuance of such violence it involves settling accounts as well as recognizing our own complicity even as bystanders Shabanu Suzanne Fisher
