Mapping Multimodal Performance Studies Maria Grazia Sindoni, Janina Wildfeuer, Kay O'Halloran, 2016-12-01 This book is a first attempt to map the broad context of performance studies from a multimodal perspective It collects original research on traditional performing arts theatre dance opera live durational performance and mediated recorded performances films television shows as well as performative discursive practices on social media by adopting several theories and methodologies all dealing with the notion of multimodality As a mostly dynamic and also interactive environment for various text types and genres the context of performance studies provides many opportunities to produce meaning verbally and non verbally All chapters in this book develop frameworks for the analysis of performance related events and activities and explore empirical case studies in a range of different ages and cultures A further focus lies on the communicative strategies deployed by different communities of practice taking into account processes of production distribution and consumption of such texts in diverse spatial and temporal contexts

Debating Authenticity Thomas Fillitz, A. Jamie Saris, 2012-12-01 The longing for authenticity on an individual or collective level connects the search for external expressions to internal orientations What is largely referred to as production of authenticity is a reformulation of cultural values and norms within the ongoing process of modernity impacted by globalization and contemporary transnational cultural flows This collection interrogates the notion of authenticity from an anthropological point of view and considers authenticity in terms of how meaning is produced in and through discourses about authenticity Incorporating case studies from four continents the topics reach from art and colonialism to exoticism primitivism film ritual and wilderness Some contributors emphasise the dichotomy between the academic use of the term and the one deployed in public spaces and political projects All however consider authenticity as something that can only be understood ethnographically and not as a simple characteristic or category used to distinguish some behaviors experiences or material things from other less authentic versions

Planning and Task Performance in a Second Language Rod Ellis, 2005-03-11 The last decade has seen a growing body of research investigating various aspects of L2 learners performance of tasks This book focuses on one task implementation variable planning It considers theories of how opportunities to plan a task affect performance and tests claims derived from these theories in a series of empirical studies The book examines different types of planning i e task rehearsal pre task planning and within task planning addressing both what learners do when they plan and the effects of the different types of planning on L2 production The choice of planning as the variable for investigation in this book is motivated both by its importance for current theorizing about L2 acquisition in particular with regard to cognitive theories that view acquisition in terms of information processing and its utility to language teachers and language testers for unlike many other constructs in SLA planning lends itself to external manipulation The study of planning then provides a suitable forum for demonstrating the interconnectedness of theory research and pedagogy in SLA

Performance Criticism of the Pauline Letters Bernhard Oestreich, 2016-10-28 Receiving a letter from Paul was a major event in the early churches Given the orally oriented culture of the time a letter was designed to be read out loud in front of an audience The document was an intermediate state for the local transport of the message but the actual medium of communication was the performance event This event was embedded in the written text in a manner comparable to a theater script After careful preparation because of high expectations from ancient audiences a presenter embodied the message with his voice gazes and gestures and made it not only understood but jointly experienced After presenting a short history of performance criticism this book clarifies what is meant by the highly ambiguous term performance and develops steps to analyze ancient texts in order to find and understand the embedded signals of performance This leads to a critical assessment of the potential of performance criticism as a method Then the method is applied to the Pauline Epistles and other early Christian letters It proves to be highly rewarding difficult passages become comprehensible new aspects come to light the text's impact on the audience is felt in short the texts come alive

collection of works authored by leading scientists from the US and Russia Human Computer Interaction and Operators Performance Optimizing Work Design with Activity Theory describes applied and systemic structural activity theory as it is used to study human computer interaction aviation design and training Important from a theoretical and Translating Scripture for Sound and Performance James A. Maxey, Ernst Wendland, 2012-11-01 The various studies presented in this anthology underscore the foundational matter of translation in biblical studies as understood from the specific perspective of Biblical Performance Criticism If the assumption for the biblical messages being received is not individual silent reading then the question becomes how does this public performative mode of communication affect the translation of this biblical material Rather than respond to this in general theoretical terms most in this collection of articles offer specific applications to particular Hebrew and Greek passages of Scripture Almost all the authors have firsthand experience with the translation of biblical materials into non European languages in communities who maintain a vibrant oral tradition The premise is that the original Scriptures which were composed in and for performance are being prepared again for live audiences who will receive these sacred texts not primarily in printed form but first and foremost in community by means of oral and visual media This volume is an invitation for others to join us in researching more intensely this intersection of sound performance and translation in a contemporary communication of the Word Social Performance Jeffrey C. Alexander, Bernhard Giesen, Jason L. Mast, 2006-05-04 Jeffrey C Alexander brings together new and leading contributors to make a powerful and coherently argued case for a new direction in cultural sociology one that focuses on the intersection between performance ritual and social action Performance has always been used by sociologists to understand the social world but this volume offers the first systematic analytical framework based on the performance metaphor to explain large scale social and cultural processes From September 11 to the Clinton Lewinsky affair to the role of the South African Truth and Reconciliation Commission Social Performance draws on recent work in performative theory in the humanities and in cultural studies to offer a novel approach to the sociology of culture Inspired by the theories of Austin Derrida Durkheim Goffman and Turner this is a path breaking volume that makes a major contribution to the field It will appeal to scholars and students alike

Tale, Performance, and Culture in EFL Storytelling with Young Learners Licia Masoni, 2019-10-10 This book analyses the interplay between storytelling with specific reference to oral retellings of authentic picture books language learning culture and emotions in the EFL pre school and primary classroom Using a multidisciplinary approach it applies oral narrative studies as well as research on shared reading with children and literature in picture books to foreign and second language teaching theory and practice while also discussing the impact of EFL storytelling on intercultural understanding Although specifically conceived for teaching English as a foreign language most contents apply to foreign second language teaching to young children in general Performance Cultures as Epistemic Cultures, Volume II Torsten Jost, Erika Fischer-Lichte, Milos Kasic, Astrid Schenka, 2023-04-07 This volume investigates performance cultures as rich and dynamic environments of knowledge practice through which distinctive epistemologies are continuously re generated cultivated and celebrated Epistemologies are dynamic formations of rules tools and procedures not only for understanding but also for doing knowledges This volume deals in particular with epistemological challenges posed by practices and processes of interweaving performance cultures These challenges arise in artistic and academic contexts because of hierarchies between epistemologies European colonialism worked determinedly violently and often with devastating effects on instituting and sustaining a hegemony of modern Euro American rules of knowing in many parts of the world Therefore Interweaving Epistemologies critically interrogates the im possibilities of interweaving epistemologies in artistic and academic contexts today Writing from diverse geographical locations and knowledge cultures the book s contributors philosophers and political scientists as well as practitioners and scholars of theater performance and dance investigate prevailing forms of epistemic ignorance and violence They introduce key concepts and theories that enable critique of unequal power relations between epistemologies Moreover contributions explore historical cases of interweaving epistemologies and examine innovative present day methods of working across and through epistemological divides in nonhegemonic sustainable creative and critical ways Ideal for practitioners students and researchers of theater performance and dance Interweaving Epistemologies emphasizes the urgent need to acknowledge study and promote epistemological plurality and diversity in practices of performance making as well as in scholarship on theater and performance around the globe today
