Monet Water Lilies:

Claude Monet Ann Temkin, Claude Monet, Nora Lawrence, 2009 Claude Monet 1840 1926 devoted the last 25 years of his career to paintings of the Japanese style pond and gardens of his house in Giverny France Two of these luminous panels Reflections of Clouds on the Water Lily Pond a mural sized triptych and Water Lilies a single canvas are among the most well known and beloved works in the collection of The Museum of Modern Art These late works were for many years less appreciated than Monet's classic Impressionist works being considered unstructured even unfinished but with the emergence of Abstract Expressionism in the 1950s Monet became an extraordinarily relevant predecessor In 1955 MoMA became the first American museum to acquire one of Monet's large scale water lily compositions In 1958 when a fire destroyed this and another water lily painting the public's widespread expression of loss led to the acquisition of the works currently in the collection This lively volume recounts the history of Monet's water lilies at the Museum and through interviews with contemporary artists underscores the paintings resonance with the art and artists of the last half century

Monet Water Lilies Jean-Dominique Rey, Denis Rouart, 2016-09-06 A complete catalog of Monet's famous Water Lilies featuring 210 paintings from private and public collections Monet devoted the last twenty five years of his life to painting the water lilies that floated on the pond of his garden in Giverny In capturing the reflections on the mirror like water and the subtle interplay of light the artist's genius went beyond painting committing to his canvas the otherwise ephemeral The Water Lilies brought together in this volume are mirrors of time that influenced the greatest painters of modern times A catalogue raisonné of the 251 Water Lilies known to exist essays of art historians Jean Dominique Rey and the late Denis Rouart panoramic photographs of the Orangerie murals in Paris period photographs of Giverny by Henri Cartier Bresson and rare archival documents complete the work

Mad Enchantment Ross King, 2016-09-06 From bestselling author Ross King a brilliant portrait of the legendary artist and the story of his most memorable achievement Claude Monet is perhaps the world's most beloved artist and among all his creations the paintings of the water lilies in his garden at Giverny are most famous Monet intended the water lilies to provide an asylum of peaceful meditation Yet as Ross King reveals in his magisterial chronicle of both artist and masterpiece these beautiful canvases featured in black and white images throughout as well as a 16 pg color insert belie the intense frustration Monet experienced in trying to capture the fugitive effects of light water and color They also reflect the terrible personal torments Monet suffered in the last dozen years of his life Mad Enchantment tells the full story behind the creation of the Water Lilies as the horrors of World War I came ever closer to Paris and Giverny and a new generation of younger artists led by Henri Matisse and Pablo Picasso were challenging the achievements of Impressionism By early 1914 French newspapers were reporting that Monet by then seventy three had retired his brushes He had lost his beloved wife Alice and his eldest son Jean His famously acute vision what Paul Cézanne called the most prodigious eye in the history of painting was threatened by cataracts And yet despite ill health self doubt and advancing age Monet began painting again on a more ambitious scale than ever before Linking great artistic achievement to the personal and historical dramas unfolding around it Ross King presents the most intimate and revealing portrait of an iconic figure in world culture Claude Monet Flame Flame Tree, Julian Beecroft, 2015-08-17 Towards the end of his life and much inspired by Japanese water gardens Monet spent a great deal of time in his beloved Giverny Its famous green wooden footbridge was built across the water and its waterlilies became the focus of perhaps the most famous series of paintings the world has ever seen Water Lilies Claude Monet, 1988 Monet's Water Lilies Charles S.
