A History of Africa John Fage,with William Tordoff,2013-10-23 A History of Africa is a thorough narrative history of the continent from its beginnings to the twenty first century Long established at the forefront of African Studies this book addresses the events of the 1990s and beyond The issues discussed include post apartheid South Africa the prospects for democratization in Africa at the beginning of the new millennium developments in Muslim North Africa including the threat of Islamic fundamentalism economic and social developments including the devastating impact of Third World debt and the provision of debt relief cultural environmental and gender issues in Modern Africa A History of Postcolonial Lusophone Africa Patrick Chabal,David Birmingham,2002-06-13 useful timely and important a good and informative book on the Lusophone countries Portuguese colonialism and postcolonial influences Phyllis Martin Indiana University This book produced by the obvious and distinguished corps of country specialists fills a real gap in both state level and regional broadly defined studies of contemporary Africa Norrie MacQueen University of Dundee Although the five Portuguese speaking countries in Africa that gained independence in 1974 75 Angola Mozambique Guinea Bissau Cape Verde and S o Tom e Pr ncipe differ from each other in many ways they share a history of Portuguese rule going back to the 15th century which has left a mark to this day Patrick Chabal and his co authors assess the nature of the Portuguese legacy using a twofold approach In Part I three analytical thematic chapters by Chabal examine what the five countries have in common and how they differ from the rest of Africa In Part II individual chapters by leading specialists each devoted to a specific country survey the histories of those countries since independence The book places the postcolonial experience of the Lusophone countries within the context of their precolonial and colonial past and compares and contrasts their experience with that of non Lusophone African states The result is a comprehensive readable and up to date text and reference work on the evolution of postcolonial Portuguese speaking Africa The Winds of History Andreas Zeman,2023-10-24 Based on extensive archival research in six countries and intensive fieldwork the book analyzes the history of the village of Nkhlongue on the eastern Mozambican shores of Lake Malawi from the time of its formation in the 19th century to the present day The study uses Nkhlongue as a microhistorical lens to examine such diverse topics as the slave trade the spread of Islam colonization subsistence production counter insurgency decolonization civil war ecotourism and matriliney Thereby the book attempts to reflect as much as possible on the generalizability and global comparability of local findings by framing analyses in historiographical discussions that aim to go beyond the regional or national level Although the chapters of the book deal with very different topics they are united by a common interest in the social history of rural Africa in the longue dure Contrary to persistent clichés of rural inertia in Africa the book as a whole underscores the profound changeability of social conditions and relations in Nkhlongue over the years and highlights how people's room for maneuver kept changing as a result of the Winds of History the frequent and often violent ruptures brought to the village from outside On the Social History of Persecution Christian Gerlach,2023-03-20 This multi disciplinary volume is one of the few collections about social change covering various cases of mass violence and genocide In life under persecution social relations and social structures were not absent and not simply replaced by an ethno racial order The studies in this book show the influence of social structures like gender age and class on life under persecution Exploring practices in family and labor relations and of collective action they counter claims of an atomization of society or total uprootedness of victims Despite being exposed to poverty and want and under the permanent threat of political violence persecuted people tried to develop their own agency Case studies are about the Jewish and Armenian persecutions Rwanda the war of decolonization in Mozambique and civilian refugees in Belarus during World War II The authors are a mix of experienced scholars and young researchers The Routledge History of World Peace since 1750 Christian Philip Peterson,William M. Knoblach,Michael Loadenthal,2018-10-10 The Routledge History of World Peace since 1750 examines the varied and multifaceted scholarship surrounding the topic of peace and engages in a fruitful dialogue about the global history of peace since 1750 Interdisciplinary in nature the book includes contributions from authors working in fields as diverse as history philosophy literature art sociology and Peace Studies The book crosses the divide between historical inquiry and Peace Studies scholarship with traditional aspects of peace promotion sitting alongside expansive analyses of peace through other lenses including specific regional investigations of the Middle East Africa Latin America and other parts of the world Divided thematically into six parts that are loosely chronological in structure the book offers a broad overview of peace issues such as peacebuilding state building and or conflict resolution in individual countries or regions and indicates the unique challenges of achieving peace from a range of perspectives Global in

Transnational Histories of Southern Africa's Liberation Movements Jocelyn Alexander, JoAnn McGregor, Blessing-Miles Tendi, 2020-05-21 Transnational Histories of Southern Africa's Liberation Movements offers new perspectives on southern Africa's wars of national liberation drawing on extensive oral historical and archival research Assuming neither the primacy of nationalist loyalties as they exist today nor any single path to liberation the book unpicks any notion of a straightforward imposition of Cold War ideologies or strategic interests on liberation wars This approach adds new dimensions to the rich literatures on the Global Cold War and on solidarity movements The contributors trace the ways that ideas and practices were made adopted and circulated through time and space through a focus on African soldiers politicians and diplomats The book also asks what motivated the men and women who crossed borders to join liberation movements how Cold War influences were acted upon interpreted and used and why certain moments venues and relations took on exaggerated importance The connections among liberation movements between them and their hosts and across an extraordinarily diverse set of external actors reveal surprising exchanges and lasting legacies that have too often been obscured by the assertion of monolithic national histories Tracing an extraordinarily diverse set of interactions and exchanges Transnational Histories of Southern Africa's Liberation Movements will be of great interest to scholars of Southern Africa Transnational History the Cold War and African Politics The chapters were originally published as a special issue of the Journal of Southern African Studies

The Subversive Seventies Michael Hardt, 2023 In The Subversive Seventies Michael Hardt sets out to show that popular understandings of the political movements of the seventies often seen as fractious violent and largely unsuccessful are not just inaccurate but foreclose valuable lessons for the political struggles of today Looking at a wide range of movements around the globe during the 1970s from the United States to Guinea Bissau South Korea Chile Turkey and Italy Hardt argues that the movements of the 1970s identified and attempted to resolve the political problems that still face contemporary radical political thought and action

The Cambridge History of Africa J. D. Fage, Roland Anthony Oliver, Michael Crowder, 1975 The eighth and final volume of The Cambridge History of Africa covers the period 1940-75 It begins with a discussion of the role of the Second World War in the political decolonisation of Africa Its terminal date of 1975 coincides with the retreat of Portugal the last European colonial power in Africa from its possessions and their accession to independence The fifteen chapters which make up this volume examine on both a continental and regional scale the extent to which formal transfer of political power by the European colonial rulers also involved economic social and cultural decolonisation A major theme of the volume is the way the African successors to the colonial rulers dealt with their inheritance and how far they benefited particular economic groups and disadvantaged others The contributors to this volume represent different disciplinary traditions and do not share a single theoretical perspective on the recent history of the continent a subject that is still the occasion for passionate debate

Africa Air University (U.S.). Library,1985 Warfare in Independent Africa William Reno,2011-06-13 This book surveys the history of armed conflict in Africa in the period since decolonization and independence The number of post independence conflicts in Africa has been considerable and this book introduces to readers a comprehensive analysis of their causes and character Tracing the evolution of warfare from anti colonial and anti apartheid campaigns to complex conflicts in which factionalized armies militias and rebel groups fight with each other and prey upon non combatants it allows the readers a new perspective to understand violence on the continent The book is written to appeal not only to students of history and African politics but also to experts in the policy community the military and humanitarian agencies Social Impact Analysis And Development Planning In The Third World William Derman,Scott Whiteford,2019-06-26 Although national governments and international agencies have committed vast sums of money to development many projects have not only failed to improve the lives of the poor but in some cases have created additional social and economic problems Such failures can often be traced to an inadequate understanding of the socio cultural reality of the people most directly affected and to a lack of their participation in project planning implementation and evaluation In this collection of essays scholars and practitioners from diverse disciplines examine many of the perplexing social issues of development planning from the perspective of social impact analysis Drawing on national regional and local case studies the authors demonstrate why sociocultural factors are seldom adequately understood and discuss how they can be effectively incorporated into the planning process
