Nuremberg Raid:

The Nuremberg Raid Martin Middlebrook, 2009-06-25 A thorough history of the RAF Bomber Command attack on the German city during World War II by the author of The First Day on the Somme This book describes one twenty four hour period in the Allied Strategic Bomber Offensive in the greatest possible detail Author Martin Middlebrook sets the scene by outlining the course of the bombing war from 1939 to the night of the Nuremberg raid the characters and aims of the British bombing leaders and the composition of the opposing Bomber Command and German night fighter forces The aim of the Nuremberg raid was not unlike many hundreds of other Royal Air Force missions but due to the difficulties and dangers of the enemy defenses and weather plus bad luck it went horribly wrong The result was so notorious that it became a turning point in the campaign The target the symbolic Nazi rally city of Nuremberg was only lightly damaged and 96 out of 779 bombers went missing Middlebrook recreates the events of the fateful night in astonishing detail The result is a meticulous dramatic and often controversial account It is also a moving tribute to the bravery of the RAF bomber crews and their adversaries Praise for The Nuremberg Raid Employing hundreds of eyewitness accounts he shows the raid from the point of view of the German defenses and the civilians on the ground Factual and analytical this is a portrait of mechanized warfare at the level of personal experience Simon Mawer Wall Street Journal The Nuremberg Raid Martin Middlebrook, 1992-06

bomber crews in 1944 the turning point year in Bomber Command's war against Germany There were many ways for a combat crew to die during Bomber Command's war of 1944 Over German territory bursts of heavy flak could tear the wings from their planes in a split second Flaming bullets from German fighter planes could explode their fuel tanks cut their oxygen supplies destroy their engines In the spring of that year thousands of young men were shot blown up or thrown from their planes five miles above the earth and even those who returned faced the subtler dangers of ice and fog as they tried to land their battered aircraft back home The winter of 1944 was the most dangerous time to be a combat airman in RAF Bomber Command The chances of surviving a tour were as low as one in five and morale had finally hit rock bottom In this comprehensive history of the air war that year Kevin Wilson describes the most dangerous period of the Battle of Berlin and the unparalleled losses over Magdeburg Leipzig and Nuremberg He tells how ordinary men coped with constant pressure of flying the loss of their colleagues and the threat of death or capture And by telling the story of the famous events of this period the Great Escape D Day the defeat of the V1 menace he shows how through sheer grit and determination the Men of Air finally turned the tide against the Germans

Airborne in 1943 Kevin Wilson, 2018-12-04 The year 1943 saw the beginning of an unprecedented bombing campaign against Germany Over the next twelve months tens of thousands of aircrews flew across the North Sea to drop bombs on German cities They were opposed not only by the full force of the Luftwaffe but by a nightmare of flak treacherously icy conditions and constant mechanical malfunction Most of these courageous crews were either shot down and killed or taken prisoner by an increasingly hostile enemy This is the story of the everyday heroism of these crews in the days when it was widely believed that the Allies could win the Second World War by air alone American pilots had a special role in the Dambusters campaign in particular Even before the attacks on Pearl Harbor scores of eager pilots travelled across the Canadian border to train with other future Dam busters all eager to take part Authoritative and gripping Airborne in 1943 brings these remarkable men and women to vivid life

The Second World War Winston Churchill, 1948 Churchill's six volume history of World War II the definitive work remarkable both for its sweep and its sense of personal involvement universally acknowledged as a magnificent historical reconstruction and an enduring work of literature V 1 The step by step decline into war with Churchill becoming prime minister as the tocsin was about to sound V 2 The eight uneasy dangerous months from May to December 1940 as Britain stands isolated and Germany follows its war path V 3 The momentous year 1941 the Bismarck is sunk Hitler marches on Russia Japan strikes Pearl Harbor and the Grand Alliance is formed V 4 From uninterrupted defeat to almost unbroken success a year when Rommel is gradually thrown back in North Africa and in the Pacific the tide turns V 5 The drive to victory between June 1943 and July 1944 as the Allies consolidate their achievements with enormous difficulty and great divergence of opinion V 6 From Anglo American landings in Normandy in June 1944 to the unconditional surrender of Japan in September 1945

wrote This is no war of chieftains or of princes of dynasties or national ambition it is a war of peoples and of causes There are vast numbers not only in this island but in every land who still render faithful service in the war but whose names will never be known whose deeds will never be recorded Here is their story sixty years on The Empire Has An Answer Tony James Brady,2019-06-05 If we do not win the battle of training we shall win no other battle in the air In 1943 the Royal Air Force recognised that training a vast amount of aircrew for a high attrition war was essential to an Allied victory and that the key to winning the battle of training was the Empire Air Training Scheme EATS 37 576 Australian aircrew graduated from the EATS Over 300 were killed whilst training for war and 9874 aircrew were killed or listed as missing while on active duty Those who fought under this scheme during World War II amounted to just 6 7 per cent of Australian service personnel serving overseas yet the aircrew losses amounted to almost 25 per cent of all the Australian fatalities during the war This made serving in EATS among the most hazardous duties of the war The Empire has an Answer was researched using more than 35 000 articles from 150 metropolitan regional and district newspapers and what materialised was a story of one of if not the greatest training programs the world has seen Follow the journey from the conception and implementation of the scheme through recruitment and basic training flight training and then into combat The individual accounts woven into the narrative provide a first hand experience of the triumphs and trials of typical airmen and airwomen who performed extraordinary feats in a time of great need The significant achievements and success of the Empire Air Training Scheme has for the most part been overlooked in our history until now Pathfinder Lionel Bennett,2024-01-19 In the spring of 1940 on a path barely lit by a thin crescent moon a schoolteacher with a hard held dream sets out on a sixteen mile trek through Ontario bush Arriving in time to catch the midnight train he settles in for the ride to Winnipeg where he intends to enlist in the Royal Canadian Air Force His journey is just beginning The schoolteacher is Gordon Wellington Bennett a young man whose passion for flight and determination to serve lead him to pilot training then overseas to England where he becomes a flying instructor and meets the love of his life Stella and starts a family But all of this fades to a blurry background as the war intensifies When Gordon is tasked as a bomber pilot his family expands to include his crew six young men all seeking honour and glory all grappling with the horrific realities of war From here Gordon s journey becomes one of dogged survival At the centre of it all is the impossible question of morality Confounded by his role in the devastation Gordon a secular humanist seeks answers with the guidance of Father Charles Brimley a retired Anglican priest who becomes an important mentor Based on true events Pathfinder tells the heartbreaking coming of age of one young Canadian man a man whose gallantry earns him a Distinguished Flying Cross a man with a dream and a unique story just like every other man who served his country during the deadliest conflict in human history
