Nursing Care of the Older Adult Mildred O. Hogstel, 1981      Current Catalog National Library of Medicine (U.S.), First multi year cumulation covers six years 1965-70      Handbook on Ethnicity, Aging, and Mental Health Deborah Padgett, 1995-01-30 This state of the art multi disciplinary reference is the first to assess the empirical research and conceptual frameworks for understanding the mental health needs and services use of the ethnic elderly. Leading scholars, researchers and clinicians in gerontology, epidemiology, psychiatry, psychology, sociology, anthropology, nursing and social work appraise varying approaches, the demographics, the mental health status and service use of the ethnic elderly and issues in the diagnosis, treatment and mental health service delivery for the ethnic aged: for African Americans, American Indians, Asian and Pacific Islander Americans and Hispanic/Latino Americans. This unique handbook is a valuable resource and text for students, teachers and professionals in a broad array of fields and settings. The handbook considers such problems as Alzheimer's Disease, depression and problems of coping, culturally specific psychosocial nursing care programs, the role of culture and class in mental and physical co-morbidity among the elderly and important life course perspectives for specific groups. Students, teachers and professionals in many fields and settings will find this unique handbook a valuable resource and text.

National Library of Medicine Current Catalog National Library of Medicine (U.S.), 1971 First multi year cumulation covers six years 1965-70      EBOOK: Quality of Life and Older People John Bond, Lynne Corner, 2004-09-16 What is quality of life? How should we assess quality of life for older people? What are the personal and external influences on quality of life for older people? Quality of Life and Older People provides a critical approach to the conceptualization and measurement of quality of life in social gerontology and health and social care research. The book re-examines what we mean by quality of life in a post-modern world and examines the impact of continuous personal and social changes on the lives of older people. The book explores ideas about quality of life in social gerontological literature and describes the experiences of older people through both their own personal accounts and representations in everyday life, popular culture and scientific research. In this way, the book is unique since it reviews the way that older people talk about their quality of life and how this differs from the ways that younger people, researchers and scientists, policy makers and professionals discuss it. The book draws on a range of behavioural and social science knowledge to present a new way of thinking about and understanding quality of life and older people. While the book provides a critique of existing social science theories underpinning conceptions of quality of life, it also addresses operational issues for the use of quality of life in social gerontological research. Quality of Life and Older People is essential reading for undergraduate and postgraduate students taking courses in gerontology, medicine, nursing, social work and social sciences. It is also of interest to social gerontologists and health and social care researchers as well as to those involved in the planning and delivery of services to older adults.

The Ethics of Caring for Older People British Medical Association, 2009-02-23 This book is the British Medical Association's statement on the ethics related to care of the elderly written and reviewed by a panel of renowned medical ethicists As such it is an authoritative and considered reference written in an accessible non jargon so as to be useful for anyone charged with looking after the elderly The book includes useful case examples so that it can be used by a range of health professionals and carers who need to know the law and ethics of looking after older people The authors focus on practical issues such as helping older people stick to their treatment regimes the sort of information they should be given to give valid consent and their rights to confidentiality as well as discussion about where they want to end their lives when it comes to that point Advanced
