Rowland, Beatrice L. Rowland, 1997 With the recent new and radical developments in the health care field that have been introduced at a breathless pace nurse administrators must work to stay informed of the developments that affect their nursing departments both directly and indirectly The Nursing Administration Handbook has a long track record both as a textbook and as a hands on tool for nurse executives seeking insight and step by step guidance in all aspects of administration The fourth edition of this text surveys the entire field of nursing administration and incorporates the most significant new developments and current practices Management and Leadership for Nurse Managers Russell C. Swansburg, 1996 This edition of the highly acclaimed

Management and Leadership for Nurse Managers offers theoretical and practical perspectives on the major management functions as they are practiced in today's organizations. The author introduces current and future nurse managers to the challenges of planning, organizing, leading, and controlling. The most recent research on management theory is incorporated throughout the book in the context of its practical application. New coverage includes total quality management pay for performance, the rising temporary workforce, and downsizing. Human Resource Development in the Public Sector Sally Sambrook, Jim Stewart, 2007-01-24. Across Europe and the world, countries are attempting to develop their health and social policies and practices to address the global challenge of increasing demand and pressurized supply created by ageing populations, emerging technologies, and finite resources, financial and human. This text provides examples of attempts to develop HRD practices in health and social care contexts within France, Ireland, The Netherlands, Romania, Russia, the UK, and the USA. Thus, the book is European and international in both scope and appeal. Resources in Education, 1999-10

Management and Leadership for Nurse Administrators Linda Roussel, Richard J. Swansburg, Russell C. Swansburg, 2006.
