Sex Work in Nepal Lisa Caviglia,2017-09-05 This book explores sex work in Nepal as a social and analytical category Narrating stories of those subsumed under such definition it examines changes as well as continuities characterising socio cultural norms and perceptions through an analysis of sexual consumption It also highlights the ways in which the development sector media and local community discourses frame sex work as a distinct category How does the work of development aid projects affect the understanding of the sex worker category How are visual and media images employed to mark spaces of perdition in the Nepalese urban setting and what forms of imagination do they trigger How are intimate practices and relations transformed by imported notions of love and how do standards of propriety related to such interactions shift This book attempts to answer some of these questions An in depth and intimate ethnography the book deconstructs the sex worker category against the backdrop of global influences within local urban surroundings and points to the contradictions therein Furthermore through thorough descriptions of the experiences agency decision making processes and lives of those labelled as sex workers the book challenges concepts such as deviance and victimhood It proposes a counternarrative by rethinking ideas of gender objectification marginality symbolic violence and discrimination This book will greatly interest researchers and scholars in women and gender studies sociology and social anthropology South Asian studies and social sciences as well as NGOs and those involved in the development sector

Anthropological Perspectives on Education in Nepal Karen Valentin, Uma Pradhan, 2023 This volume illuminates educational transformations and avenues of learning in the context of wider social and political changes in Nepal

Encompassing a Fractal World Gil Daryn, 2006-01-01 Encompassing a Fractal World presents a groundbreaking innovative paradigm which opens up new perspectives for understanding and analyzing Hindu life and culture In particular it has crucial implications for the understanding of Hindu cosmology ritual architecture kinship social relationships and agriculture as well as modern anthropological theories of ritual action and agency Gil Daryn s main thrust is not that the fractal concept may neatly bring together much of what has been written about Hindu culture but instead it argues the case for an additional and gendered fractal dimension Encompassing a Fractal World is exceptional in scope drawing from an extensive set of comparative materials ranging from Vedic cosmogonies and sacrifice through Puranic mythology to contemporary ethnographic accounts from Nepal and India This book is an interdisciplinary comparative work which attempts to connect the dots moving beyond isolated local village based studies in order to bridge the gulf between anthropology and Hindu studies

Intimate Relationships and Social Change Christina L. Scott, Sampson Lee Blair, 2017-09-20 This multidisciplinary volume provides a unique and truly global collection of research on the nature of dating mating and coupling as they occur across a variety of cultures in dynamically shifting societies

Understanding War Through Intersectional Lens Keshab Giri, 2025 The exponential growth in literature on female combatants in rebel groups so far has explored why women rebel where women rebel and when women rebel Yet existing literature largely assume women combatants as homogenous universal category having similar experiences of war and post war In this milieu this book focuses on how women rebel given their multiple intersecting identities and social subjectivities It looks how female combatants experience war and post war both in public and private spheres by using intersectionality both as a theoretical framework and methodological tool inspired by feminist research methodology to explore complex experiences of women combatants during and after the war This book is based on thirty nine in depth interviews with Maoist female ex combatants their leaders and experts in Nepal between 2017 and 2018 complemented by wide ranging primary and secondary sources such as key Maoist statements and policy documents from the war era women ex combatants memoirs media sources and academic literature The book finds that female combatants experiences of war and post war both in public and private spheres are conditioned by their interlocking systems of oppression and identities such as class caste ethnicity social status educational status and geographical location The book makes an important contribution to the feminist IR literature feminist security studies and has significant policy implications particularly concerning reintegration of female combatants peacebuilding and Women Peace and Security agenda

Bombay Going Susanne Åsman, 2018-09-15 Susanne Åsman's compelling ethnographic account examines migration for sex work in the Sindhupalchowk district of Nepal Åsman explores how this migration known as Bombay Going is understood by the locals With a focus on agency Åsman investigates how the migrants carve out a space for themselves and create relatedness in the spaces in between from their homes in rural Nepal to the brothels of Mumbai This book is essential reading for anyone interested in the politics of sex trafficking gender migration or the global south

Himalayan Mobilities Robert E. Beazley, James P. Lassoie, 2017-06-22 The goals of this book are to update information on the effects of rural road development both in Nepal and globally explain the environmental socioeconomic and sociocultural impacts of expanding rural road networks in the Nepalese Himalaya and to promote further studies on rural road development throughout the world based on studies and investigations performed in Nepal Readers will learn about the history of rural road development as well as the challenges to effectively design and construct rural roads and how these obstacles may be overcome Chapter one offers a global review of road development and both the positive and negative impacts of rural road implementation Chapter two defines mobilities within the context of coupled social and ecological systems specifically in the Nepalese Himalaya Chapters three through five detail the environmental socioeconomic and sociocultural impacts expanding rural road networks through several case studies The concluding chapter summarizes the findings of the book discussing the need for interdisciplinary cooperation and collaboration to avoid negative consequences This book will be of interest to teachers researchers policy makers and development organizations

Love and Honor in the Himalayas Ernestine McHugh, 2011-06-07 American anthropologist Ernestine McHugh arrived in the foothills of the Annapurna mountains in Nepal and surrounded by terraced fields rushing streams and rocky paths she began one of several sojourns among the Gurung people whose ramro hawa pani good wind and water not only describes the enduring bounty of their land but also reflects the climate of goodwill they seek to sustain in their community It was in their steep Himalayan villages that McHugh came to know another culture witnessing and learning the Buddhist appreciation for equanimity in moments of precious joy and inevitable sorrow Love and Honor in the Himalayas is McHugh's gripping ethnographic memoir based on research among the Gurungs conducted over a span of fourteen years As she chronicles the events of her fieldwork she also tells a story that admits feeling and involvement writing of the people who housed her in the terms in which they cast their relationship with her that of family Welcomed to call her host Ama and become a daughter in the household McHugh engaged in a strong network of kin and friendship She intimately describes with a sure sense of comedy and pathos the family's diverse experiences of life and loss self and personhood hope knowledge and affection In mundane as well as dramatic rituals the Gurungs ever emphasize the importance of love and honor in everyday life regardless of circumstances in all human relationships Such was the lesson learned by McHugh who arrived a young woman facing her own hardships and came to understand and experience the power of their ways of being While it attends to a particular place and its inhabitants Love and Honor in the Himalayas is above all about human possibility about what people make of their lives Through the compelling force of her narrative McHugh lets her emotionally open fieldwork reveal insight into the privilege of joining a community and a culture It is an invitation to sustain grace and kindness in the face of adversity cultivate harmony and mutual support and cherish life fully Menstruation in Nepal Sara Parker, Kay

Standing, Madhusudan Subedi, 2024-06-28 This book examines the complexities of menstrual beliefs and practices in Nepal Taking an interdisciplinary and intersectional approach it explores and promotes the rights of women girls and people who menstruate to a dignified and healthy menstruation The volume collates current research in Nepal from local academics early career researchers and the Dignity Without Danger research project provides a more nuanced understanding of the complex stigmas and taboos that surround menstruation highlights the importance of rethinking ideas of religion gender menstruation stigma and taboos cultural practises and discrimination proposes a counter narrative that places sociological studies at the heart of the discussion surrounding menstruation and calls for more collaborative action research to strengthen the links between academia and activism across disciplines An authoritative contribution the book will be of interest to scholars and researchers of gender studies public health sociology human rights South Asian studies medical sociology cultural studies and social medicine particularly for those concerned with Nepal Nationalism and Ethnic Conflict in Nepal Mahendra Lawoti, Susan Hangen, 2013 Ethnic and nationalist movements surged forward in Nepal after restoration of democracy in 1990 This book analyses the rise in ethnic mobilization the dynamics and trajectories of these movements and their consequences for Nepal
