One day on Beetle Rock ... Illustrations by Eileen Mayo. [An account of the fauna.] Sally Carrighar, Eileen Mayo, 1946 At Home on this Earth Lorraine Anderson, Thomas S. Edwards, 2002 The first chronological presentation of U S nature writing by key women authors of the last two centuries Nature Writing Don Scheese, 2013-10-28 In this comprehensive study of the genre Don Scheese traces its evolution from the pastoralism evident in the natural history observations of Aristotle and the poetry of Virgil to current American writers He documents the emergence of the modern form of nature writing as a reaction to industrialization Scheese s personal observations of natural settings sharpen the reader s understanding of the dynamics between author and locale His study is further informed by ample use of illustrations and close readings core writers such as Thoreau John Muir and Mary Austin showing how each writer s work exemplifies the pastoral tradition and celebrate a spirit of place in the United States Bureau Publication , 1912 Modern Criticism and Theory Nigel Wood, David Lodge, 2014-06-11 This third edition of Modern Criticism and Theory represents a major expansion on its previous incarnations with some twenty five new pieces or essays included This expansion has two principal purposes Firstly in keeping with the collection s aim to reflect contemporary preoccupations the reader has expanded forward to include such newly emergent considerations as ecocriticism and post theory Secondly with the aim of presenting as broad an account of modern theory as possible the reader expands backwards to take in exemplary pieces by formative writers and thinkers of the late nineteenth and early twentieth centuries such as Marx Freud and Virginia Woolf This radical expansion of content is prefaced by a wide ranging introduction which provides a rationale for the collection and demonstrates how connections can be made between competing theories and critical schools The purpose of the collection remains that of introducing the reader to the guiding concepts of contemporary literary and cultural debate It does so by presenting substantial extracts from seminal thinkers and surrounding them with the contextual materials necessary to a full understanding Each selection has a headnote which gives biographical details of the author and provides suggestions for further reading and footnotes that help explain difficult references The collection is ordered both historically and thematically and readers are encouraged to draw for themselves connections between essays and theories Modern Criticism and Theory has long been regarded as a necessary collection Now revised for the twenty first century it goes further and provides students and the general reader with a wide ranging survey of the complex landscape of modern theory and a critical assessment of the way we think and live in the world today A History of California Literature Blake Allmendinger, 2015-05-19 Blake Allmendinger's A History of California Literature surveys the paradoxical image of the Golden State as a site of dreams and disenchantment formidable beginnings and ruinous ends This history encompasses the prismatic nature of California by exploring a variety of historical periods literary genres and cultural movements affecting the state's development from the colonial era to the twenty first century Written by a host of leading historians and literary critics this book offers readers insight into the tensions and contradictions that have shaped the literary landscape of California and also American literature generally For the Children's Bookshelf, a Booklist for Parents Marion Lyon Faegre, 1912 Catalog of Copyright Entries. New Series Library of Congress. Copyright Office, 1943 Includes Part 1 Books Group 1 Nos 1 12 1943 1944 Companion to A Sand County Almanac J. Baird Callicott, 1987-09-01 The first sustained study of Leopold's seminal book as well as a work of art philosophy and social commentary Environmentalism David Peterson Del Mar, 2014-05-22 Environmental movements have produced some impressive results including cleaner air and the preservation of selected species and places But movements that challenged western prosperity and comfort seldom made much progress and many radical environmentalists have been unabashed utopianists In this short guide Peterson del Mar untangles this paradox by showing how prosperity is essential to environmentalism Industrialisation made conservation sensible but also drove people to look for meaning in nature even as they consumed its products more relentlessly Hence England led the way in both manufacturing and preserving its countryside and the United States created a matchless set of national parks as it became the world's pre eminent economic and military power Environmentalism considers both the conservation and preservation movements and less organized forms of nature loving from seaside vacations to ecotourism to argue that these activities have commonly distracted us from the hard work of creating a sustainable and sensible relationship with the environment For the Children's Bookshelf Marion Lyon Faegre, Nora Ernestine Beust, 1943

Threads from the Web of Life & The Shark and the Jellyfish Stephen Daubert, 2019-08-15 Ecology like all literary narrative has the potential for turnabout surprise lessons learned and tragedy The stories in Threads from the Web of Life and The Shark and the Jellyfish describe protagonists their competitors and the habitats that provide the setting for their interaction habitats that have become surprisingly complex with the passage of evolutionary time One niche moves across a world of flowers that reaches its earliest peak bloom in the low valleys and then peaks later among the slopes of the foothills a rolling habitat Another hops across the ocean floor compelling its occupants to migrate from the fallen body of one dead whale to the next Yet another appears in the aftermath of typhoons requiring its inhabitants to search the tropical coastline for the latest storm landfall These tales are filled with no less intrigue than other literary works but they transpire out of the sight of most readers Once known only to ecologists in Threads from the Web of Life and The Shark and the writers illustrators landscape and garden designers ornithologists botanists biologists and conservationists Norwood begins by showing that the study and promotion of botany was an activity deemed appropriate for women in the early 1800s After highlighting the work of nineteenth century scientific illustrators and garden designers she focuses on nature s advocates such as Rachel Carson and Dian Fossey who differed strongly with men on both women s nature and the value of the natural world These women challenged the dominant male controlled ideologies often framing their critique with reference to values arising from the female experience Norwood concludes with an analysis of the utopian solutions posed by ecofeminists the most recent group of women to contest men over the meaning and value of nature
