Concordance to the French Poetry and Prose of John Gower R. F. Yeager, Mark West, Robin L. Hinson, 2012-01-01 That the poet John Gower was a major literary figure in England at the close of the fourteenth century is no longer in question Scholarly attention paid to him and to his work over the past twenty five years has redeemed him from an undeserved obscurity imposed by the preceding two hundred The facts of his life and career are now documented and recent critical assessment has placed his achievement most accurately alongside Chaucer's Langland's and the Gawain poet's Unique among his contemporaries all of whom undoubtedly read and used French in some measure Gower alone has left us a significant body of verse and prose in Anglo Norman chiefly the twelve stanza poem Mirour de l'Homme the Cinkante Balades and the Traité pour les amantz marietz We are offered in this concordance of his Anglo Norman work a unique opportunity to view a poetic language as it was written and read in England until Gower's death in 1408 and beyond Catalogue of Printed Books British Museum, 1892

Complete Poetry and Prose Louise Labé, 2007-11-01 Thanks to her acclaimed volume of poetry and prose published in France in 1555 Louise Labé 1522-66 remains one of the most important and influential women writers of the Continental Renaissance Best known for her exquisite collection of love sonnets Labé played off the Petrarchan male tradition with wit and irony and her elegies respond with lyric skill to predecessors such as Sappho and Ovid The first complete bilingual edition of this singular and broad ranging female author Complete Poetry and Prose also features the only translations of Labé's sonnets to follow the exacting rhyme patterns of the originals and the first rhymed translation of Labé's elegies in their entirety Poetry, Bible and Theology from Late Antiquity to the Middle Ages Michele Cutino, 2020-07-06 This volume examines for the first time the most important methodological issues concerning Christian poetry i.e biblical and theological poetry in classical meters from a diachronic perspective Thus it is possible to evaluate the doctrinal significance of these compositions and the role that they play in the development of Christian theological ideas and biblical exegesis Bryn Mawr College Monographs, 1915

The Medieval Opus: Imitation, Rewriting and Transmission in the French Tradition, 1996 The Medieval Opus is a broad but detailed study of the art of imitation as rewriting that was practiced in medieval French texts and in texts in other languages influenced by French models It contains the proceedings of a symposium on this topic The volume will be of interest to scholars and students of medieval French as well as other medieval literatures influenced by French models The range of texts is broad from epic to romance and from lyric to late medieval lyric narrative genres The authors teach in a number of countries in Europe and North America and they represent a variety of approaches ages and critical perspectives on medieval rewriting Two major concepts inform the papers the bridge work and the specimen text The bridge work Tony Hunt s term refers here two works that have identifiable links to others and that by those links reveals something of the art of writing for both works Specimen texts are works representative of the art of imitation illustrated by the bridge works The proceedings move beyond the analysis of a general art of composition to investigate original rewriting in specific works that serve as specimen texts The goal of the proceedings has been to appreciate originality within the framework of the medieval art of literary writing

Out of the Mouths of Babes Julie Singer, 2025-03-10 A wide ranging study of the rich questions raised by speaking infants in medieval French literature Medieval literature is full of strange moments when infants even fetuses speak In Out of the Mouths of Babes Julie Singer explores the unsettling questions raised by these events including What is a person Is speech fundamental to our humanity And what does it mean or what does it matter to speak truth to power Singer contends that descriptions of baby talk in medieval French literature are far from trivial Through treatises manuals poetry and devotional texts Singer charts how writers imagined infants to speak with an authority untainted by human experience What their children say then offers unique insight into medieval hopes for universal answers to life s deepest wonderings

The Prose Poem in France Mary Ann Caws, Hermine B. Riffaterre, 1983 Although deconstruction has become a popular catchword as an intellectual movement it has never entirely caught on within the university For some in the academy deconstruction and Jacques Derrida in particular are responsible for the demise of accountability in the study of literature Countering these facile dismissals of Derrida and deconstruction Herman Rapaport explores the incoherence that has plagued critical theory since the 1960s and the resulting legitimacy crisis in the humanities Against the backdrop of a rich informed discussion of Derrida s writings and how they have been misconstrued by critics and admirers alike The Theory Mess investigates the vicissitudes of Anglo American criticism over the past thirty years and proposes some possibilities for reform
