Protecting Children A Practical Guide:

Protecting Children: a Practical Guide Janet Kay, Aimed at childcare workers this book covers the processes of child protection the context of child abuse and the legal framework as it affects practising childcare workers The chapters progress from the identification of abuse to investigation of possible outcomes and on to working with children in the aftermath of abuse Each chapter has exercises with sample answers to help in the preparation of evidence of NVQs of extend something As well as this each chapter also provides the reader with points of reflection called A Chance to Think and extensive case studies and examples drawn from practice as well as being illustrated with drawings and icons

Protecting Children Janet Kay, 2003-01-22 This fully up dated second edition of Protecting Children provides the framework for understanding child abuse and child protection issues for people who work with children in a variety of professional and informal settings Written in Kay s characteristically lucid and approachable style the text brims with case studies points for reflection self assessment exercises and suggestions for developing readers own practices Practical Guide to Child Protection Joanna Nicolas, 2015-08-21 Informed by the author s experience writing serious case reviews this book offers the practical information that child protection practitioners need and which is often absent in formal training It offers advice for the known difficulties in practice such as home visiting communicating with children and working with resistant clients Protecting Children Featherstone, Brid, Gupta, Anna, 2018-09-19 The state is increasingly experienced as both intrusive and neglectful particularly by those living in poverty leading to loss of trust and widespread feelings of alienation and disconnection Against this tense background this innovative book argues that child protection policies and practices have become part of the problem rather than ensuring children s well being and safety Building on the ideas in the best selling Re imagining child protection and drawing together a wide range of social theorists and disciplines the book Challenges existing notions of child protection revealing their limits Ensures that the harms children and families experience are explored in a way that acknowledges the social and economic contexts in which they live Explains how the protective capacities within families and communities can be mobilised and practices of co production adopted Places ethics and human rights at the centre of everyday conversations and practices The Child Protection Practice Manual Gayle Hann, Caroline Fertleman, 2016-01-14 Around 85 children die each year in the UK due to abuse or neglect A number of these deaths are later deemed preventable because the child involved was known to either social services or to a health professional Cases such as those of Baby P and Victoria Climbié highlighted the failings of these organisations ones set up to safeguard children It is the responsibility of every health professional worldwide to identify and respond to child abuse and yet that very responsibility is both emotionally and strategically challenging The Child Protection Practice Manual Training practitioners how to safeguard children equips professionals with the ability to recognise a child at risk and the knowledge of how to work with a child already suffering abuse Practical advice is offered on how to navigate the multi disciplinary processes Fictional case studies and exercises immerse the reader in scenarios Building on this the authors lead readers through learning points recommendations and legislation With new definitions in child protection ranging from child sexual exploitation gang violence radicalisation and internet bullying through to female genital mutilation witchcraft and spirit possession honour based violence and forced marriage this book will be a valuable resource for qualified paediatricians and those in training as well as professionals who have contact with children such as GPs nurses health visitors social workers midwives teachers lawyers and community workers
