Asia-Pacific Trusts Law, Volume 1 Ying Khai Liew,Matthew Harding,2021-08-26 At a time when Asia represents the fastest growing economic region there is no better moment to consider what trusts law can contribute to societal stability and economic prosperity This book does this by offering the first work that systematically explores trusts law across the region Many Asian Pacific jurisdictions have integrated and developed trusts law in their legal systems either through colonial heritage or statutory activism But the diversity of legal traditions and local contexts has resulted in trusts laws having a significantly varied impact across the region In the modern globalised world there is growing need to adopt an outward looking approach in dealing with matters of common interest This book answers this need by bringing together leading legal scholars and practitioners in the region to explore the theory and practice of trusts law contextualised to specific jurisdictions in the Asia Pacific Exploring 17 jurisdictions in Asia it bring both an academic and practitioner perspective to trusts law in the region Women's Land Rights & Privatization in Eastern Africa Birgit Englert, Elizabeth Daley, 2008 This collection examines women s land rights in East Africa in the context of land tenure reforms and privatization Property and Protection Frank Meisel, Peter J Cook, 2000-12 This book dedicated to Brian Harvey brings new insights to issues of property law consumer protection auction sales and tax Equality in Asia-Pacific Phil C. W. Chan, 2014-02-04 In 1948 the United Nations General Assembly proclaimed the Universal Declaration of Human Rights stating every human being s right of equality in dignity and right However notwithstanding recognition by the international community of its importance and codification in numerous national and sub national constitutions and legislation reinforced by various multilateral and regional human rights treaties the right of equality continues to be unable to take complete firm hold in all regions and countries Evidence as presented by the insightful papers in this collection published initially as a Special Double Issue of The International Journal of Human Rights dedicated to exploring the place of equality in Asia Pacific societies suggests that although progress is being made the right of equality has not yet fully materialized both in law and in reality in the world s most populous region Many factors particularly entrenched cultural heritage and practices the lingering effects of colonialism and newly found independence and above all pervasive ignorance and prejudices continue to impede the recognition development and protection of equality in this region Of course equality a normative right and entitlement by virtue of our humanity has neither been fully achieved in societies outside the region Such neo colonial thinking in fact perpetuates and assists in the subjugation of the right of equality in the Asia Pacific Region as a matter of relevance and concern only to Western countries Accordingly we hope that our discussions will also be able to shed light and generate reflections on realities outside the region as interlinked with our aim The Editor s book fee has been donated to the UNICEF Tsunami Fund This book was previously published as a special issue of The International Journal of Human Rights women is widely considered a private matter The authors of the chapters share a common goal of raising public awareness of the significance in nuanced local experiences of women and other individuals from gender and sexual minority groups facing gender based violence Furthermore the authors attend analytically to the newly emerging overlapping influences of COVID 19 and global warming Their research findings acknowledge and provide a detailed account of how the two ecological and socio economic crises can combine to produce economic devastation disconnect victims from necessary social services and assistance and create a large degree of panic and uncertainty In addition they intend to offer insights into next steps to not only adjust existing public policies legislation and social services to the ever changing national and global contexts but also to make new ones The book is intended for a wide range of scholars both professors and students and practitioners in a large number of areas including but not limited to criminal justice criminology law human rights social justice social work nursing sociology and political or public affairs
