

Manifesto from Protestant Ministers.

"Conscription and Christianity."

To the Electors of Australia.

Fellow Citizens,—

With almost complete unanimity the several branches of the Protestant Church have given their strong support to the principle of Conscription.

As these bodies are religious and not political they must base their attitude upon the Christian religion.

We, therefore, the undersigned ministers of religion, desire to express our complete dissent from the view commonly taken by our fellow ministers. We, too, claim to base our attitude upon those fundamental principles of Christianity which are the common possession of all Churches. We declare we can conceive no more amazing or incongruous spectacle than that of ministers of the Prince of Peace advocating often with intemperate zeal, the subordination of the rights of individual conscience to alleged military necessity.

In taking such a course Christian ministers seem to be abandoning the Christian tradition, and to be proclaiming to the world the failure of the laws of Christ.

We are far from accusing our brethren of hypocrisy or conscious desertion of Christian principle. We believe that they are acting from what they conceive to be the highest motives. We hold, nevertheless, that they are grievously misrepresenting their Master, and irreparably damaging the moral prestige of the Christian Church.

The present indefensible position of many Churches and ministers is, we believe, the result of a gradual process of which they themselves are hardly conscious, by which a new religion is being built on the ruins of that Christianity which the war is trampling underfoot.

The new religion which is invading the Christian Churches is the religion of the State.

In this new religion patriotism is the virtue which takes the place of Christian brotherhood; the State replaces God, and the national flag replaces the Cross. Its supreme law is not the law of God, but the military safety of the country.

We earnestly commend to the attention of our fellow Christians the words recently spoken in the British Parliament by Lord Hugh Cecil:—

"There are a great many people who care about religion, but care much more 'profoundly about their country. Those people have embarked upon the path down which Germany has gone. To say that the safety of the Republic is the supreme law 'is profoundly untrue. Not the safety of the Republic but the Divine law is the supreme law. For the honor and credit of this House, for the sake of the country of which we are citizens, because I would rather die than abandon the faith I hold so dear, I earnestly hope that we shall adhere now and for ever to the old doctrine, that much as we love our country, we love something better, and when appeal is made, our answer 'will be clear, firm and without hesitation.'"

These words state forcibly, yet charitably, a truth of vital importance to us all. We believe that when our fellow ministers preach Conscription in the name of religion, they are speaking not in the name of the Christian religion but of that other religion which we have described as the religion of the State, and that if we take care not to confuse these two things, but seek an answer to the question in the light simply of Christian principles, we shall recognise the incompatibility of Christianity and Conscription.

In all charity and good will we urge upon our fellow Christians the earnest consideration of our view.

Protestant Manifesto Introduction

In this digital age, the convenience of accessing information at our fingertips has become a necessity. Whether its research papers, eBooks, or user manuals, PDF files have become the preferred format for sharing and reading documents. However, the cost associated with purchasing PDF files can sometimes be a barrier for many individuals and organizations. Thankfully, there are numerous websites and platforms that allow users to download free PDF files legally. In this article, we will explore some of the best platforms to download free PDFs. One of the most popular platforms to download free PDF files is Project Gutenberg. This online library offers over 60,000 free eBooks that are in the public domain. From classic literature to historical documents, Project Gutenberg provides a wide range of PDF files that can be downloaded and enjoyed on various devices. The website is user-friendly and allows users to search for specific titles or browse through different categories. Another reliable platform for downloading Protestant Manifesto free PDF files is Open Library. With its vast collection of over 1 million eBooks, Open Library has something for every reader. The website offers a seamless experience by providing options to borrow or download PDF files. Users simply need to create a free account to access this treasure trove of knowledge. Open Library also allows users to contribute by uploading and sharing their own PDF files, making it a collaborative platform for book enthusiasts. For those interested in academic resources, there are websites dedicated to providing free PDFs of research papers and scientific articles. One such website is Academia.edu, which allows researchers and scholars to share their work with a global audience. Users can download PDF files of research papers, theses, and dissertations covering a wide range of subjects. Academia.edu also provides a platform for discussions and networking within the academic community. When it comes to downloading Protestant Manifesto free PDF files of magazines, brochures, and catalogs, Issuu is a popular choice. This digital publishing platform hosts a vast collection of publications from around the world. Users can search for specific titles or explore various categories and genres. Issuu offers a seamless reading experience with its user-friendly interface and allows users to download PDF files for offline reading. Apart from dedicated platforms, search engines also play a crucial role in finding free PDF files. Google, for instance, has an advanced search feature that allows users to filter results by file type. By specifying the file type as "PDF," users can find websites that offer free PDF downloads on a specific topic. While downloading Protestant Manifesto free PDF files is convenient, its important to note that copyright laws must be respected. Always ensure that the PDF files you download are legally available for free.

Many authors and publishers voluntarily provide free PDF versions of their work, but it's essential to be cautious and verify the authenticity of the source before downloading Protestant Manifesto. In conclusion, the internet offers numerous platforms and websites that allow users to download free PDF files legally. Whether it's classic literature, research papers, or magazines, there is something for everyone. The platforms mentioned in this article, such as Project Gutenberg, Open Library, Academia.edu, and Issuu, provide access to a vast collection of PDF files. However, users should always be cautious and verify the legality of the source before downloading Protestant Manifesto any PDF files. With these platforms, the world of PDF downloads is just a click away.
