Divine Becoming Charlene Embrey Burns, The universally human element of Jesus' incarnation Despite the feverish pace of publishing in historical Jesus studies biblical scholars and theologians have not notably progressed in addressing the meaning and significance of the figure of Jesus in ways credible for contemporary persons In this creative and insightful work Burns seeks to understand the significance of Jesus and his incarnation through the category of participation The central theological claims in the traditional concept of incarnation are anchored and illumined by Jesus particular ability for empathy sympathy attunement and entrainment This notion derived from the psychological research of Daniel Stern allows Burns to show that incarnation the capacity to participate in the life of others is present not only in Jesus but to some extent in all people and in all religions It further illumines features of God's trinitarian life and our lifelong journey into God deification
