Baptism in the Reformed Tradition John Wheelan Riggs, 2002-01-01 This premier work considers the development of the doctrine of baptism in the Reformed tradition Riggs studies the major early Reformers concentrating on Calvin s views and then moves on to trace the trajectory of Reformed baptismal theology from the Reformed Confessions through Schleiermacher and on to the present day He analyses the rite in the contemporary Book of Common Worship and makes practical suggestions about its understandings and adequacy

Evangelical versus Liturgical? Melanie Ross, 2014-07-02 Why is there such a deep divide between evangelical and liturgical churches especially when it comes to worship How did this unfortunate evangelical liturgical dichotomy develop and what can be done about it In this book Melanie Ross draws on historical analysis systematic theology and the worship life of two vibrant congregations to argue that the common ground shared by evangelical and liturgical churches is much more important than the differences that divide them As a longtime evangelical church member who is at the same time a teacher of liturgical studies Ross is well qualified to address this subject and she does so with passion and intelligence Evangelical versus Liturgical is an important addition to the scant literature explaining nondenominational worship practices to those from more historically established liturgical traditions Worshiping with the Anaheim

Vineyard Park et al, 2017 Using narrative testimonies from leaders and members and photographs this book tells the story and explains the remarkable influence of the Vineyard Church of Anaheim on both the early years of the Vineyard movement and the emergence of contemporary worship in the broader church Not only does this volume present an in depth look at the congregation's pastor John Wimber and the church's first several years it also tells an inspiring story of revival and renewal for people hungering for deeper knowledge of God With interviews sermon excerpts sidebars timelines and a glossary of terms to enhance the text Worshiping with the Anaheim Vineyard addresses core issues about knowing God intimately for all Christians More than Luther: Karla Apperloo-Boersma, Herman J. Selderhuis, Siegrid Westphal, Christopher B.

Brown, Günter Frank, Bruce Gordon, Barbara Mahlmann-Bauer, Tarald Rasmussen, Violet Soen, Zsombor Tóth, Günther Wassilowsky, 2019-03-11 This volume contains the plenary papers and a selection of short papers from the Seventh Annual RefoRC conference which was held May 10-12th 2017 in Wittenberg The contributions concentrate on the effects of Luther's new theology and draw the lines from Luther's contemporaries into the early seventeenth century Developments in art catholic responses and Calvinistic reception are only some of the topics The volume reflects the interdisciplinarity and interconfessionality that characterizes present research on the 16th century reformations and underlines the fact that this research has not come to a conclusion in 2017 The papers in this conference volume point to lacunae and will certainly stimulate further research Contributors Wim Franx, Antonio Gerace, Siegrid Westphal, Edit Szegedi, Maria Lucia Weigel, Graeme Chatfield, Jane Schatkin, Hettrick, Marta Quatrone, Aurelio A. García Jeannette Kreijkes, Csilla Gabor, Gabor Itz's, Balázs David Magyar, Tomoji Odori, Gregory Soderberg, Herman A. Speelman, Izabela Winiarska, Gorska, Erik A. de Boer, Donald Sinnema, Dolf te Velde Teach Us to Pray Katharine Mahon, 2019-04-01 The study of liturgical reform is usually undertaken through a close examination of liturgical texts In order to consider the impact of reform on the worship life of Christians Katharine Mahon takes a wider view of liturgy by considering the worship practices of Christian churches beyond what appears in the rites themselves Looking at how Christians were taught how to pray and instructed in liturgical and sacramental participation Mahon explores the late medieval patterns of Christian ritual formation and the transformation of these patterns in the sixteenth century reforms of Martin Luther, Thomas Cranmer and Roman Catholic leaders She uses the Lord's Prayer the backbone of medieval lay catechesis, liturgical participation and private prayer to paint a panorama of medieval ritual formation integrated into the life of the church in the fourteenth and fifteenth centuries She then follows the disintegration and reconstruction of that system of formation through the changing functions of the Lord's Prayer in the official reforms of catechesis liturgy and prayer in the sixteenth century Towards Liturgies that Reconcile Scott Haldeman, 2016-12-05 Towards Liturgies that Reconcile reflects upon Christian worship as it is shaped and mis shaped by human prejudice specifically by racism African Americans and European Americans have lived together for 400 years on the continent of North America but they have done so as slave and master outsider and insider oppressed and oppressor Scott Haldeman traces the development of Protestant worship among whites and blacks showing that the following exist in tension African American and European American Protestant liturgical traditions are both interdependent and distinct and that multicultural communities must both understand and celebrate the uniqueness of various member groups while also accepting the risk and possibility of praying themselves into an integrated body one new culture
