Proust Questions Didentite Legenda Special Lecture Series 1:

The Kristeva Critical Reader John Lechte, Mary Zournazi, 2003 This in depth critical assessment of the work of French psychoanalyst and literary theorist Julia Kristeva brings together for the first time readings both classical and new Kristeva's writing on literature and psychoanalysis language and social issues as well as her fiction are all considered Each reading confronts questions raised by Kristeva's thought and contributes to giving an overview of her concerns Chapters written especially for this volume take the reader into the most recent work of this most eminent thinker of the post War era Essays Address yKristeva's writings in the 1960s and 1970s on the semiotic and on poetic language yThe implications for feminism art psychoanalysis and cultural difference of the works of the 1980s yKristeva's theory of revolt and the feminine genius in the writings of the 1990s Both the non specialist reader and the Kristeva scholar will find this to be an essential collection of criticism Key Features yFull coverage of Kristeva's thought and writings yExplanatory and contextualising headnotes at the beginning of each reading yPrimary bibliography of Kristeva's works and a secondary bibliography of works cited yGlossary of key terms Aeneas Takes the Metro Fiona Cox, 1999 This study traces Virgil's journey through twentieth century France by examining his profile in the works of Gide Aragon Valery Pagnol Klossowski Butor Simon and Pinget and by looking at how their Virgilian appropriations complement and modify current readings of the Aeneid and other works His presence in these works provides insights not only into modern French culture but into the Virgilian oeuvre itself This process of mutual illumination is highlighted in Cox's argument by theories of intertextuality and dialogism Although Virgil's presence in French literature is characterized by its focus on exile and uncertainty Cox's study reaffirms the multivalency of this great European poet and his continuing relevance at the turn of the millennium Processes of Literary Creation Marion Schmid, 1998 This work examines the genetic processes that shaped two of the great literary masterpieces of modernity Flaubert's L Education Sentimentale and Proust's A la Recherche de Temps Perdu A detailed investigation of Flaubert's notebooks and scenarios from 1864 and 1869 and Proust's Cahiers from 1908 to 1911 reveals the almost diametrically opposed ways in which the two novels evolved in their early stages Breeches and Metaphysics Siegbert Salomon Praver, 1997 This study traces the successive stages of Thackeray's contact with the German world and analyses the discourse he developed as a result The author is concerned with the fiction and criticism of Thackeray's Paris Sketch Book and the impressions related by the cockney traveller in Irish Sketch Book and Notes of a Journey from Cornhill to Grand Cairo Thackeray's own pictorial illustrations of his writings and those by Cruikshank Doyle and Walker which he supervised and supplemented are recognized as an integral part of his German discourse The study is a chronological one setting Thackeray's construction of German and the Germans against the background of his own development and of the social industrial cultural and political history of Britain and its continental neighbours History Painting and Narrative Peter Brooks, 1998 The narrative of historical events was of prime political and aesthetic importance to the generation that came to the fore in France in 1830 The choice of the right moment to illustrate historical events was a continuing subject of concern for Delacroix as the brief explanations he wrote for the salon and catalogue demonstrate He wants spectators to understand the chosen moment as part of a continuing narrative but also as the moment most revelatory of the historical meaning of the narrative This lecture illuminates Delacroix's sense of illustrative historical moment with some reference to Sartre Freud Delaroche and Isabey

Le Partage de la Parole Luce Irigaray, 2001 The work of Luce Irigaray on feminism and language is expanded in this essay drawing on both previous writing and new empirical evidence In this collection her arguments are underpinned by empirical research on the language of schoolchildren

A Self-administered Poison Arlen Viktorovich Bliu[m], 2003 Censorship of the media has been a constant element in Russian cultural life throughout the ages In the Soviet period it was institutionalized and systematized with unprecedented thoroughness and sophistication acquiring not only proscriptive but prescriptive powers Awareness of its workings is fundamental to the understanding of Russian culture in the twentieth century Drawing on research in archives that have been opened only since the collapse of the USSR Arlen Blyum long recognized as Russia's leading authority on this control system in all its aspects brings fresh detail and nuance to his comprehensive survey of the subject
