William Johnson Everett

Public Love:

The Public, 1914 Public Opinion Slavko Splichal, 1999 A survey of the historical roots theoretical foundations and normative claims of 20th century conceptualizations of public opinion It examines research strategies such as polling the spiral of silence model and the role of the media in the formation and expression of public opinion The Hundred Boston Orators Appointed by the Municipal Authorities and Other Public Bodies, from 1770-1852 James Spear Loring, 1854 An Historical Account of the British Trade Over the Caspian Sea, with the Autor's Journal of Travels Through Russia Into Persia by Jonas Hanway Jonas Hanway, 1762 The Whitman Revolution Betsy Erkkila, 2020-12-15 The Whitman Revolution brings together a rich collection of Betsy Erkkila's phenomenally influential essays that have been published over the years along with two powerful new essays Erkkila offers a moving account of the inseparable mix of the spiritual sexual political in Whitman and the absolute centrality of male male connection to his work and thinking Her work has been at the forefront of scholarship positing that Whitman's songs are songs not only of workers and occupations but of sex and the body homoeroticism and liberation What is more Erkkila's writing demonstrates that this sexuality and communal impulse is central to Whitman's revolutionary poetry and his conception of democracy itself an insight that was all but suppressed during the mid twentieth century emergence of American literature as a field of study Highlights of this collection include Erkkila's essays on pairings such as Marx and Whitman Dickinson and Whitman and Melville and Whitman Across the volume she demonstrates an international vision that highlights the place of Leaves of Grass within a global struggle for democracy The Whitman Revolution is evidence of Erkkila's remarkable ability to lead critical discussions and marks an exciting event in Whitman studies CORP 2011 Proceedings/Tagungsband Manfred Schrenk, Vasily V. The Poems of Robert Browning: Volume Five John

Woolford, Daniel Karlin, Joseph Phelan, 2022-06-30 The Ring and the Book published serially in 1868-9 is one of the most daring and innovative poems in the English language. The story is based on the trial of an Italian nobleman Guido Franceschini for the murder of his wife Pompilia in Rome in 1698. Browning's discovery of the old yellow book, a bundle of legal documents and letters relating to the trial on a second-hand market stall in Florence, sparked an imaginative engagement with this sordid tale of domestic cruelty, adultery, and greed, which grew through four years of arduous labour into an epic peopled not by gods and warriors but by concrete, recognisably human beings. Fusing the technique of the dramatic monologue, the form he had made his own, with the grandeur of classical epic and the vivid realism of the modern novel, Browning created a unique hybrid form that allowed him not only to bring to life an entire historical period but also to reflect on the process of artistic creation itself: the forging of the golden ring of the poem from the pure, crude fact of its historical original. This edition, comprising volumes 5 and 6 in the acclaimed Longman Annotated English Poets edition of Browning's poems, does full justice to the scope and depth of Browning's achievement. The headnote in volume 5 gives an authoritative account of the poem's composition, publication, sources, and reception, making use of hitherto unpublished letters and textual material. In addition to giving readers help where needed with historical and linguistic comprehension, the notes track Browning's formidable range of allusion from the most erudite to the most vulgar. The appendices in volume 6 present a selection from the original sources, a list of variants from extant proofs, and key passages from Browning's fascinating and revealing correspondence with one of the earliest readers of the poem, Julia Wedgwood. The aim is to enable readers not just to understand the poem as an object of study but to take pleasure in its abounding intellectual and emotional energies.
