 Stokstad, 2021-12-24 This beautifully produced survey of over a thousand years of Western art and architecture introduces the reader to a vast period of history ranging from ancient Rome to the age of exploration The monumental arts and the diverse minor arts of the Middle Ages are presented here within the social religious and political frameworks of lands as varied as France and Denmark Spain and Turkey Marilyn Stokstad also teaches her reader how to look at medieval art which aspects of architecture sculpture or painting are important and for what reasons Stylistic and iconographic issues and the Metropolitan Museum of Art and the Cloisters Metropolitan Museum of Art (New York, N.Y.), Lisbeth Castelnovo-Tedesco, Jack Sultanian, 2010 The collection of Italian medieval sculpture in The Metropolitan Museum of Art and The Cloisters began with the acquisition in 1908 of a Romanesque column statue today the Museum s holdings comprise more than seventy works dating from the ninth to the late fifteenth century The birthplaces of these works range from Sicily to Venice some typify local styles others illustrate the intense artistic exchanges taking place within Italy and between Italy and the wider world Technological advances of the last decades have made it possible to determine more precisely the materials and techniques from which works of art are made the history of their alteration and the mechanisms of their deterioration Using such techniques scholars have been able to ascertain for example that sculptures previously thought to be modern works carved in the medieval manner were in fact completely authentic This innovative volume represents a watershed in the study of sculpture a collaborative dialogue between an art historian and a conservator between art history and art science that deepens our understanding of the object we see while illuminating its elusive enigmatic history From publisher s description English and French Stained Glass in the Collection of the Metropolitan Museum of Art Jane Hayward, 2003 The Four Modes of Seeing Elizabeth Carson Pastan, 2017-07-05 Borrowing its title from Madeline Harrison Caviness s influential work on the modes of seeing articulated by the twelfth century cleric Richard of Saint Victor this interdisciplinary collection brings together the work of thirty scholars from England France Germany Italy Switzerland and the United States Each author has contributed an original article that engages with ideas formulated in Caviness s wide ranging scholarship The historiographic introduction discusses themes in Caviness s publications and their importance for art historical and medieval studies today The book's thematic matrix groups together essays concerned with The Material Object Documentary Reconstruction Post Disciplinary Approaches Multiple Readings Gender and Reception Performativity Text and Image Collecting and Consumption and Politics and Ideology The contributors include curators art historians historians and literary scholars Their subjects range from medieval stained glass to the nineteenth century Gothic Revival the Sachsenspiegel and Mel Gibson's The Passion of the Christ Many foreground issues of gender reception and textuality which have permeated Caviness's scholarship Some also present approaches to sites that have been the subject of important studies by Caviness including Canterbury Chartres Reims Saint Denis Sens and Troyes The volume offers a broad range of methodological approaches to key topics in the study of medieval imagery and thus highlights the vitality of the field today

Saracens, Demons, & Jews Debra Higgs Strickland, 2003 These images which reached a broad and socially varied audience across Western Europe appeared in virtually all artistic media including illuminated manuscripts stained glass sculpture metalwork and tapestry

Romanesque Architecture and its Sculptural in Christian Spain, 1000-1120

Janice Mann, 2009-04-08 The decades following the year 1000 marked a watershed in the history of the Iberian Peninsula when the balance of power shifted from Muslims to Christians During this crucial period of religious and political change Romanesque churches were constructed for the first time in Spain Romanesque Architecture and Its Sculptural Decoration in Christian Spain 1000-1120 examines how the financial patronage of newly empowered local rulers allowed Romanesque architecture and sculptural decoration to significantly redefine the cultural identities of those who lived in the frontier kingdoms of Christian Spain Proceeding chronologically Janice Mann studies the earliest Romanesque monuments constructed by Sancho el Mayor r 1004-1035 and his wife daughters and granddaughters as well as those that were built by Sancho Ramirez king of Aragon 1064-1094 Mann examines groups of buildings constructed by particular patrons against the backdrop of changing social conditions and attitudes that resulted from increased influence from beyond the Pyrenees the consolidation of royal power and intensified aggression against Muslims An in-depth study of the rise of an architectural style this is the first book to examine early Romanesque architecture and sculpture of the Iberian Peninsula as it relates to frontier culture

Stained Glass in England During the Middle Ages Richard Marks, 2006-01-16 First published in 1993 The first modern study of the medium this book considers stained glass in relation to architecture and other arts and by examining contemporary documents it throws valuable light on workshop organisation prices and patronage

Legends in Limestone Linda Seidel, 1999-10-15 Whereas twelfth century pilgrims flocked to the church of St Lazare in Autun to visit the relics of its patron saint present day pilgrims journey there to admire its superb sculpture said to have been created by the artist Gislebertus whose name is inscribed above one of the church doors These two cults of sculptor and of saint form points of departure and arrival for Linda Seidel's study Legends in Limestone reveals how Gislebertus sculptor was discovered and subsequently sanctified over the course of the last century Seidel makes a compelling case for the identification of the name with an ancestor of the local ducal family invoked for his role in the acquisition of the precious relics With the aid of evidence drawn from the richly carved decoration of the building she demonstrates how medieval visitors would have read a different holy narrative in the church fabric one that constructed before their eyes an account of their patron saint's life Legends in Limestone an absorbing study of one of France's most revered medieval monuments provides fresh insights into modern and medieval interpretive practices Handbook to Life in the Medieval World, 3-Volume Set Madeleine Pelter Cosman, Linda Gale Jones, 2009 Presents a three volume set that examines the medieval civilizations of the Muslims Jews and Christians including history economics medicine technology art literature and clothing The Marvellous and the Monstrous in the Sculpture of Twelfth-century Europe Kirk Ambrose, 2013 Richly illustrated consideration of the meaning of the carvings of non human beings from centaurs to eagles found in ecclesiastical settings Representations of monsters and the monstrous are common in medieval art and architecture from the grotesques in the borders of illuminated manuscripts to the symbol of the green man widespread in churches and cathedrals These mysterious depictions are frequently interpreted as embodying or mitigating the fears symptomatic of a dark age This book however considers an alternative scenario in what ways did monsters in twelfth century sculpture help audiences envision perhaps even achieve various ambitions Using examples of Romanesque sculpture from across Europe with a focus on France and northern Portugal the author suggests that medieval representations of monsters could service ideals whether intellectual political religious and social even as they could simultaneously articulate fears he argues that their material presence energizes works of art in paradoxical even contradictory ways In this way Romanesque monsters resist containment within modern interpretive categories and offer testimony to the density and nuance of the medieval imagination KIRK AMBROSE is Associate Professor Chair Department of Art and Art History University of Colorado Boulder
