RESHAPING DEFENCE DIPLOMACY: NEW ROLES FOR MILITARY COOPERATION AND ASSISTANCE<sup>1</sup>

Lucas Pereira Rezende<sup>2</sup>

Parte da série publicada pelo International Institute for Strategic Studies (IISS), a obra em questão é um Adelphi Paper<sup>3</sup> assinado por Andrew Cottey, da University College Cork, e Anthony Forster, da University of Bristol. Ainda que pequeno em tamanho, é um livro essencial para a discussão das novas formas de cooperação militar em curso desde o colapso da União Soviética. Em especial, o livro direciona o conceito da diplomacia de defesa e sua mudança prática e conceitual após os anos 1990. Diferentemente do papel tradicional das forças armadas, a “Diplomacia de Defesa (...) envolve o uso cooperativo das forças armadas e suas estruturas relacionadas (primariamente ministérios de defesa) em tempos de paz como uma ferramenta de política externa e de segurança” (COTTEY & FORSTER, 2004, p. 5-6).

Segundo os autores, para além do contrabalanceamento, os novos usos da cooperação militar são feitos para: (1) o engajamento estratégico, usando a assistência militar com antigos ou potenciais inimigos; (2) espalhar a democracia; (3) desenvolver capacidades em operações de paz (PKO) e de imposição da paz. Esses três pontos são exatamente os três capítulos que o livro se divide.

O engajamento estratégico, tema do Capítulo 1, é um fenômeno típico da nova diplomacia de defesa por buscar a cooperação militar com oponentes antigos ou

The nexus between Public Diplomacy and Military Diplomacy in Foreign Affairs and Defense Policy Göran Swistek, 2013-07-18 Essay from the year 2012 in the subject Politics Topic Peace and Conflict Security grade 2 1 language English abstract Public Diplomacy by the idea was implemented approximately 100 years ago as a purely civilian part of diplomacy which aimed to inform foreign populations and citizens about the goals of countries foreign policy by the use of information and cultural programs In the meaning of the Clausewitz philosophy that the war is the continuation of politics by other means the military was always linked to the diplomacy but never part of it On the other hand Military Diplomacy for a long period was just the business for military attaches and their mission was to be the Nation s eye and ears abroad in the days before satellite photography and sophisticated electronic collection techniques Along with the changes in the international theatre regarding constellation of alliances goals of foreign policies and threat assumptions the content of Public Diplomacy has changed and its targeted programs expanded At the same time the understanding and definition of security changed its content since the collapse of the Iron Curtain and the breakdown of the Soviet Union Nowadays the term of a comprehensive approach marks the definition of security Security is now an interconnection between civilian and military means and approaches whilst the use military force remains a last resort Therefore programs and means from the areas of Military and Public Diplomacy received an increased attention and a more prominent status For this reason this essay will try to show the close relation of modern defense strategies policies and diplomacies The guiding research question for this essay therefore shall be Is there in modern Foreign Affairs and Defense Policy a relation between Military Diplomacy and Public Diplomacy and if so what characterizes this relation Along that line this essay will try to study the nexus between Public Diplomacy and Military Diplomacy with the assumption that International Relations and Defense Policy s are aiming on overlapping areas especially when it comes to diplomacy The hypothesis therefore can be encapsulates without naming it in official policy documents and without a focused strategy an area developed recently where Public Diplomacy and Military Diplomacy are going along together with a common tool set Hereby the special case study of the German Armed Forces are should prove that they are already practicing Public Diplomacy within their military posture since decades      The SAGE Handbook of Diplomacy Costas M.

Wolfley,2021-06-29 Winner of the Andrew F Krepinevich Writing Award A 2022 Choice Reviews Outstanding Academic Title Selected for the Irregular Warfare Initiative s Inaugural Reading List 2022 In today s complex international environment how do the United States China and Russia manage the return of great power competition as well as the persistent threat of violent non state actors This book explores shaping the use of military power to construct a more favorable environment by influencing the characteristics of other militaries altering the relationships between them or managing the behavior of allies As opposed to traditional strategies of warfighting or coercion shaping relies less on threats demonstrations and uses of violence and more on attraction persuasion and legitimacy Because shaping relies more on soft power than on hard power this approach contradicts the conventional wisdom of the purpose militaries serve Kyle J Wolfley explores the emergence of shaping in classical strategy and its increased frequency following the end of the Cold War when threats and allies became more ambiguous He illustrates the four logics of shaping attraction socialization delegation and assurance through five case studies of recent major military exercise programs led by the United States China India the United Kingdom and Russia Moreover the author reveals through sentiment analysis and statistics of over one thousand multinational exercises from 1980 to 2016 how major powers reacted to a complex international environment by expanding the number and scope of shaping exercises Illuminating an understudied but surprisingly common tool of military statecraft this book offers a fresh understanding of military power in today s competitive international system      U.S. Public Diplomacy Towards China Di Wu,2022-06-29 This book aims to understand public diplomacy by examining its practice In particular it focuses on the implementation of educational and exchange programs by the US Departments of State and Defense toward China Implementation is the focal point of this study and is utilized both as a practical process and a methodology It refers to the process of translating a public diplomacy policy goal the specific order given to a governmental institution in order to achieve a general foreign policy objective into public diplomacy practices and impact. In addition, it refers to a research method that centers implementation and accepts the prerequisite of discretion from studies of policy implementation. This book maps out where and by whom implementation discretion is exercised in public diplomacy. It argues that public diplomacy is in the eye of the beholder and that its meanings can vary significantly according to different actors.

Defense Engagement since 1900 Greg Kennedy, 2020-05-20. There is more to defense than military might and more to the military than a fighting force. At a moment of global upheaval, domestic turmoil, and political uncertainty, this timely volume seeks to define and reframe the terms of defense engagement: the use of military capabilities to exert soft power influence as opposed to hard power military force. Defense Engagement since 1900 is a work of applied military history that brings lessons of the past to bear on current issues. In a number of case studies spanning the twentieth century and the globe, the authors explore various dimensions of defense engagement. Their work, which attempts to recast the role of a state's military from wielder of force to employer of power, is squarely aimed at tackling the causes of designated security threats and not merely managing their consequences. The chapters by scholars and practitioners representing diverse points of view focus primarily on the British experience, perhaps the most extensive example of the use of military power in a nonmartial fashion in pursuit of policy goals. However, the chapters also consider events in the United States, Canada, Japan, the Middle East, and Africa. Intelligence, diplomacy, deterrence, alliances, coalitions, and networks all are within the authors' scope as they address the need to use a wide range of attributes and capabilities associated with military power in various contemporary conflicts and national security strategies. The understanding their work provides will prove critically important to strategic thinkers of our day as democratic states increasingly contend with hybrid, subthreshold, and Gray Zone warfare.

An Army of Influence Craig Stockings, Peter Dennis, 2021-11-15. A thought-provoking analysis of the Australian Army's capacity to change with a particular focus on the Asia Pacific region.

Where is Nato Going? Martin Smith, 2013-09-13. Since the end of the Cold War and especially since September 11, 2001, the future of NATO has been the subject of intense debate. This book brings together a group of international relations specialists in order to offer fresh perspectives on the Alliance's current and future purposes and roles. Rather than revisiting long-standing debates in areas such as NATO enlargement, the contributors focus instead on relevant contemporary issues. These include the prospects for NATO going global, NATO's role in the US-led war on terror, and the challenges posed by the transatlantic capabilities gap and the emergence of a military dimension to the European Union. The paradox facing NATO today is that whilst it is busier than it has ever been before, it still does not appear to many observers to have found a viable core role or roles in the contemporary international security arena. By exploring key issues and debates on NATO's current agenda, this book helps us to better understand the prospects for its long-term survival and viability. This book was previously published as a special issue of the leading journal Contemporary Security Policy.

Japan's Defense Engagement in the Indo-Pacific Nanae Baldauff, 2024-07-17 This original book systematically examines Japan's defense engagement with its strategic partners since the end of the Cold War based on Japan's national security strategy The author maps three defense engagement activities military exercises capacity building and defense equipment transfer and technology cooperation and subsequently evaluates these against the three national security objectives deterrence cooperative security and the Free and Open Indo Pacific vision The book asks two important research questions why is Japan active in defense engagement with the armed forces of its strategic partners And what purposes do Japan's self defense forces pursue Through the ten carefully selected cases of strategic partners Australia India Indonesia Vietnam the Philippines ASEAN the UK France NATO and the EU the book follows a structured cross case comparison based on the analytical framework developed for the research It also discusses the evolution of Japan's postwar defense policy providing a solid background for the case studies The book overall argues that while the Japan US alliance is still the most indispensable Japan's strategic partnerships are a valuable instrument of deterrence that contributes to Japan's national security objectives In order to more effectively pursue these objectives and thus secure the national interest Japan must pursue a purpose driven defense engagement

International Security in the Asia-Pacific Alan Chong, 2017-09-13 This volume argues that international security in the Asia Pacific lends itself to contradictory analyses of centrifugal and centripetal trends Transitional polycentrism is intrinsically awkward as a description of the security of states and their populations it implies the loosening of state control and the emergence of newly asserted authority by mixed constellations of intergovernmental organizations and non state actors It implies a competition of agendas threats to the integrity of borders and human security threats such as natural disasters airliner crashes and displacement by man made pollution and food scarcity Conversely polycentrism could also imply a return to a more neo realist oriented international order where great powers ignore ASEAN and steer regional order according to their perceived interests and relative military superiority This book embraces these contradictory trends as a foundation of analysis and accepts that disorder can also be re described from the perspective of studied detachment as polycentric order
