Resituating Writing Constructing And Administering Writing Programs:

Resituating Writing Joseph Janangelo, Kristine Hansen, 1995 Second is that WPAs can creatively use this different and liminal status to help writing programs resituate themselves at the center rather than at the margins of their institutions

Writing Program Administration Susan H. McLeod, 2007-03-16 This reference guide provides a comprehensive review of the literature on all the issues responsibilities and opportunities that writing program administrators need to understand manage and enact including budgets personnel curriculum assessment teacher training and supervision and more Writing Program Administration also provides the first comprehensive history of writing program administration in U S higher education Writing Program Administration includes a helpful glossary of terms and an annotated bibliography for further reading

The Writing Program Administrator's Resource Stuart C. Brown, Theresa Jarnagi Enos, 2005-04-11 The role of the writing program administrator is one of diverse activities and challenges and preparation for the position has traditionally come through performing the job itself As a result uninitiated WPAs often find themselves struggling to manage the various requirements and demands of the position and even experienced WPAs often encounter situations on which they need advice The Writing Program Administrator's Resource has been developed to address the needs of all WPAs regardless of background or experience It provides practical applicable tools to effectively address the differing and sometimes competing roles in which WPAs find themselves Readers will find an invaluable collection of articles in this volume addressing fundamental practices and issues encountered by WPAs in their workplace settings and focusing on the hows and whys of writing program administration With formal preparation and training only now beginning to catch up to the very real needs of the WPA this volume offers guidance and support from authoritative and experienced sources educators who have established the definitions and standards of the position who have run into obstacles and surmounted them and who have not just survived but thrived in their roles as WPAs Editors Stuart C Brown and Theresa Enos contribute their own experience and bring together the voices of their colleagues to delineate the intellectual scope and practices of writing program administration as an emerging discipline Established and esteemed leaders in the field offer insights advice and plans of action for the myriad scenarios encountered in the position encouraging WPAs and helping them to realize that they often know more than they think they do This resource is required reading for the new WPA and an essential reference for all who serve in the WPA role As a guidebook for WPAs it is destined to become a fixture on the desk of every educator involved with or interested in administering writing programs writing centers and writing across the curriculum efforts

Historical Studies of Writing Program Administration Barbara L'Eplattenier, Lisa Mastrangelo, 2004-03-14 Historical Studies of Writing Program Administration Individuals Communities and the Formation of a Discipline collects essays that shine new light on the early history of writing program administration Broad in scope the book illuminates the development of the profession in the narratives of the individuals who helped form the discipline prior to the emergence of the Council of Writing

Program Administrators in 1976 including those narratives of Gertrude Buck and Laura J Wylie Edwin Hopkins Regina Crandall Rose Colby George Jardine Clara Stevens Stith Thompson and George Wykoff Drawing from deep archival work these narratives offer rare glimpses into writing program administration and the development of composition as a college requirement

Landmark Essays on Writing Program Administration Kelly Ritter, MELISSA IANETTA, 2024-11-01 Leading with the provocative observation that writing programs administration lacks an established set of texts that provides a baseline of shared knowledge in which to root our ongoing conversations and with which to welcome newcomers Landmark Essays on Writing Program Administration focuses on WPA identity to propose one such grouping of texts This Landmark volume is the cornerstone resource for new Writing Program Administrators and graduate students seeking an ever important overview of the literature on Writing Program Administration Drawing broadly across scholarship in writing programs and writing centers Ritter and Ianetta work to historicize theorize and problematize the ever shifting answers offered to the question Who or what is a WPA

Transnational Writing Program Administration David S. Martins, 2015-03-15 While local conditions remain at the forefront of writing program administration transnational activities are slowly and thoroughly shifting the questions we ask about writing curricula the space and place in which writing happens and the cultural and linguistic issues at the heart of the relationships forged in literacy work Transnational Writing Program Administration challenges taken for granted assumptions regarding program identity curriculum and pedagogical effectiveness logistics and quality assurance faculty and student demographics innovative partnerships and research and the infrastructure needed to support writing instruction in higher education Well known scholars and new voices in the field extend the theoretical underpinnings of writing program administration to consider programs activities and institutions involving students and faculty from two or more countries working together and highlight the situated practices of such efforts The collection brings translingual graduate students at the forefront of writing studies together with established administrators teachers and researchers and intends to enrich the efforts of WPAs by examining the practices and theories that impact our ability to conceive of writing program administration as transnational This collection will enable writing program administrators to take the emerging locations of writing instruction seriously to address the role of language difference in writing and to engage critically with the key notions and approaches to writing program administration that reveal its transnationality

Untenured Faculty as Writing Program Administrators Debra Frank Dew, Alice Horning, 2007-08-06 Contributors examine the politics of untenured writing program administrator appointments given the demands of writing program administration and reconciles the tension between WPA position statements and current institutional practice

WPAing in a Pandemic and Beyond Todd Ruecker, Sheila Carter-Tod, 2025-04-01 Writing program administrators have a long history of advocating for their students fellow faculty and programs This advocacy includes defending their work against other entities that seek to dictate the work challenging institutional policies that define student success in a narrow way or create untenable conditions for writing faculty workloads and making antiracism a central part of writing programs The COVID 19 pandemic undoubtedly created a variety of additional challenges for those working in education at all levels WPAs suddenly had to navigate new public health mandates alongside student and instructor fears as well as pressures by administrations and publics to teach in person The chapters in this collection include a variety of voices who have been involved in writing program administration in recent years to reflect on the work done in this moment of crisis Through both short vignettes and longer chapters this book explores the complicated interactions between WPA work and navigating times of crisis to provide insights for moving forward Authors explore a variety of topics including professional development curricular change advocating in the face of intransigent administrations and others caring for students and taking time for self care Pointing to specific actions for continued advocacy WPAing in a Pandemic and Beyond will be of great interest to WPAs and writing studies scholars

A Rhetoric for Writing Program Administrators 2e Rita Malenczyk, 2016-09-01 A Rhetoric for Writing Program Administrators 2nd Edition presents the major issues and questions in the field of writing program administration The collection provides aspiring new and seasoned WPAs with the theoretical lenses terminologies historical contexts and research they need to understand the nature history and complexities of their intellectual and administrative work

Guide to College Writing Assessment Peggy O'Neill, Cindy Moore, Brian Huot, 2009-04-15 While most English professionals feel comfortable with language and literacy theories assessment theories seem more alien English professionals often don't have a clear understanding of the key concepts in educational measurement such as validity and reliability nor do they understand the statistical formulas associated with psychometrics But understanding assessment theory and applying it by those who are not psychometricians is critical in developing useful ethical assessments in college writing programs and in interpreting and using assessment results A Guide to College Writing Assessment is designed as an introduction and source book for WPAs department chairs teachers and administrators Always cognizant of the critical components of particular teaching contexts O'Neill Moore and Huot have written sophisticated but accessible chapters on the history theory application and background of writing assessment and they offer a dozen appendices of practical samples and models for a range of common assessment needs Because there are numerous resources available to assist faculty in assessing the writing of individual students in particular classrooms A Guide to College Writing Assessment focuses on approaches to the kinds of assessment that typically happen outside of individual classrooms placement evaluation exit examination programmatic assessment and faculty evaluation Most of all the argument of this book is that creating the conditions for meaningful college writing assessment hinges not only on understanding the history and theories informing assessment practice but also on composition programs availing themselves of the full range of available assessment practices

The Promise and Perils of Writing Program Administration Theresa Enos, Shane Borrowman, 2008-01-26 Combining formal quantitative research with narrative based scholarship THE PROMISE AND

PERILS OF WRITING PROGRAM ADMINISTRATION represents multiple voices from faculty balancing between the demands of teaching writing and administering writing programs in professional ethical ways often under circumstances that can be defined at best as difficult In these pages junior faculty tell their stories of triumph and trauma while more firmly established composition scholars reflect upon the changing and challenging profession we all share GenAdmin Colin

Charlton,Jonikka Charlton,2011-09-26 GenAdmin Theorizing WPA Identities in the Twenty First Century examines identity formation in a generation of rhetoric and composition professionals who have undergone explicit preparation in scholarly dimensions of writing program administration The authors argue for GenAdmin both as an intellectual identity and as a contingent philosophy of writing program work GenAdmin alternates between traditional chapters and accompanying Interludes each of which offers extended illuminations of the single conflict or theoretical question integral to the preceding chapter Exploring Composition Studies Kelly Ritter,Paul Kei Matsuda,2012-04-30 Kelly Ritter and Paul Kei Matsuda have created an essential introduction to the field of composition studies for graduate students and instructors new to the study of writing The book offers a careful exploration of this diverse field focusing specifically on scholarship of writing and composing Within this territory the authors draw the boundaries broadly to include allied sites of research such as professional and technical writing writing across the curriculum programs writing centers and writing program administration Importantly they represent composition as a dynamic eclectic field influenced by factors both within the academy and without The editors and their sixteen seasoned contributors have created a comprehensive and thoughtful exploration of composition studies as it stands in the early twenty first century Given the rapid growth of this field and the evolution of it research and pedagogical agendas over even the last ten years this multi vocal introduction is long overdue

First-Year Composition Deborah Coxwell-Teague,Ronald F. Lunsford,2014-05-01 First Year Composition From Theory to Practice s combination of theory and practice provides readers an opportunity to hear twelve of the leading theorists in composition studies answer in their own voices the key question of what it is they hope to accomplish in a first year composition course In addition these chapters and the accompanying syllabi provide rich insights into the classroom practices of these theorists Designing and Implementing Multimodal Curricula and Programs J. C. Lee,Santosh

Khadka,2018-01-19 This volume presents a comprehensive overview of multimodal approaches to curriculum and programmatic implementation across a diverse range of teaching environments and across geographic and cultural boundaries Featuring contributions from scholars within and across both disciplines the book examines the ways in which new technologies link to expanding definitions of literacy and building on this how multimodal approaches might most effectively address the unique opportunities and challenges instructors face in contemporary classrooms and professional development programs Chapters draw on case studies from both existing scholarship and findings from the authors own experiences in practice including examples from writing rhetoric and composition courses open online learning courses and interdisciplinary faculty training programs The final section of the book showcases how the conversation might be further extended to address increasingly multilingual classrooms by exploring how multimodality has been implemented in transnational settings Engaging with key questions at the intersection of programmatic and curricular development and multimodal studies this book is a fundamental resource for graduate students and scholars in multimodality rhetoric studies language education applied linguistics and communication studies Talking Back Norbert Elliot,Alice S.

Horning,2020-05-01 In Talking Back a veritable Who's Who of writing studies scholars deliberate on intellectual traditions current practices and important directions for the future In response junior and mid career scholars reflect on each chapter with thoughtful and measured moves forward into the contemporary environment of research teaching and service Each of the prestigious chapter authors in the volume has three common traits a sense of responsibility for advancing the profession a passion for programs of research dedicated to advancing opportunities for others and a reflective sense of their work accompanied by humility for their contributions As a documentary Talking Back is the first history of writing studies in autobiography Contributors Jo Allen Ann N Amicucci Akua Duku Anokye Paige Davis Arrington Doug Baldwin John C Brereton Judy Buchanan Hugh Burns Leasa Burton Ellen C Carillo William Condon Dylan B Dryer Michelle F Eble Jennifer Enoch Joan Feinberg Patricia Friedrich Cinthia Gannett Eli Goldblatt Shenika Hankerson Janis Haswell Richard Haswell Eric Heltzel Douglas Hesse Bruce Horner Alice S Horning Asao B Inoue Ruth Ray Karpen Suzanne Lane Min Zhan Lu Donald McQuade Elisabeth L Miller Rebecca Williams Mlynarczyk Sean Molloy Les Perelman Louise Wetherbee Phelps Stacey Pigg Sherry Rankins Robertson Jessica Restaino J Michael Rifenburg Eliana Schonberg Geneva Smitherman Richard Sterling Katherine E Tirabassi Devon Tomasulo Martha A Townsend Mike Truong Victor Villanueva Edward M White Anne Elrod Whitney Kathleen Blake Yancey Re Visioning Composition Textbooks Xin Liu Gale,Fredric G.
