Resolving Disputes Between Nations Coercion Or Conciliation:

Resolving Disputes Between Nations Martin Patchen, 1988 The use of force and coercion to settle disputes between nations is a central problem of our time Martin Patchen considers the circumstances that lead nations to use coercive means in disputes with other nations and also examines the effectiveness of other means of resolving international disputes Patchen examines conflict and cooperation as general social processes and builds on previous work to present an overall theoretical framework that encompasses the conflict situation perceptions of the adversary decision making bargaining and interaction and influence sequences

The Price of Peace David Cortright, 1997 Carrots and sticks have always been used in combination in diplomatic affairs but scholars and policymakers have focused more on the sticks than the carrots In this provocative study policy savvy scholars examine a wide range of cases from North Korea to South Africa to El Salvador and Bosnia to demonstrate the power of incentives to deter nuclear proliferation prevent armed conflict defend civil and human rights and rebuild war torn societies The book addresses the moral hazard of incentives the danger that they can be construed as bribes concessions or appeasement Incentives can take many forms economic and political as palpable as fuel oil and as intangible yet powerful as diplomatic recognition and constructive engagement The cases demonstrate that incentives can sometimes succeed when traditional methods threats sanctions or force fail or are too dangerous to apply

From the Eye of the Storm, 2022-07-04 From the Eye of the Storm Regional Conflicts and the Philosophy of Peace presents to the reader a cross section of an emerging field of study the philosophy of peace The editors bring together articles that explore the philosophic implications of many recent regional conflicts Reflecting the diversity and vitality and any new field of study this volume contains five sections Conceptual Foundations America's Homefront Desert Storm Assessments Jihad Intifada and Other Mideast Concerns and Latin American Issues The topics of the articles include war militarism patriotism nationalism nonviolence conscientious objection feminist peace the media the ethics of the Gulf War the Israeli Palestinian conflict Islamic pacifism and Latin American resistance A concluding postscript assesses prospects for achieving peace and change within our fast changing international scene This volume has an extensive bibliography of writings concerning peace and conflict and is suited to professional and student audiences Enforcing International Law Math Noortmann, 2016-04-29 Until recently the fundamental link between two basic concepts in international law namely the right to self help and the obligation to settle disputes by peaceful means has been neglected in doctrine and practice The main issue is that international law traditionally recognizes the right of states to safeguard their own rights by resorting to countermeasures as well as the obligation to settle their disputes by accepted and recognized diplomatic and judicial procedures Both concepts are based on their own merits which are assumed to be valid in contemporary international law It is the primary purpose of this study to determine which rules and principles govern the relationship between the two concepts The book's major findings arise from an analysis of scholarly work supported by examples from five different case studies Drawing insights from legal as well as political science it will be a valuable resource for students academics and policy makers in international law international relations and related areas Transboundary

Water Resources Management Jacques Ganoulis, Lucien Duckstein, Peter Literathy, Istvan Bogardi, 2013-04-17 In a world facing a growing water crisis conflicts regarding water sharing and environmental issues are expected to grow especially in transboundary river basins where 40% of the world's population lives This book represents one of the first attempts to bring together methodologies and analytical tools from socio economic international policy engineering and water management specialists dealing with transboundary water resources The book is divided into three parts Part I introduces state of the art concepts in institutional policy and conflict analysis Part II presents engineering approaches and models for transboundary water management and conflict resolution Part III analyzes cases in international river basins and enclosed seas

Communitarian Foreign Policy Nikolas K. Gvosdev, 2017-07-05 This volume establishes Amitai Etzioni's communitarian approach to international relations as a distinct school of American foreign policy thought Nikolas K Gvosdev systematically evaluates Etzioni's ideas tracing their origins during the Cold War and their relevance to current challenges in Asia and the Middle East and considering their strengths and weaknesses Etzioni agrees with liberal internationalists who believe that traditional notions of state sovereignty are eroding and that a new set of global norms is required However he argues against the imposition of Western policies on the rest of the world which he sees as a recipe for conflict which the United States cannot afford He warns against the post Cold War triumphalism arguing that it undercuts efforts to find necessary common ground with both Russia and China An enduring and stable global architecture cannot be maintained unless it appeals to the interests of a broad community of nations The trust that is needed for forming closer associations between nations and to have a productive dialogue on human rights can only come about through the voluntary coordination of states forced to combat an increasing array of transnational threats The Clash with Distant Cultures Richard J.

Payne, 1995-01-01 An analysis of the impact of cultural values on the use of force and negotiations in American foreign policy

Indian Foreign and Security Policy in South Asia Sandra Destradi, 2012-02-27 This book examines Indian foreign policy and security relations in its eastern regional neighbourhood Indian Foreign and Security Policy in South Asia conducts an in depth analysis into India s foreign policy towards the three main countries in India s Eastern neighbourhood Sri Lanka Nepal and Bangladesh In particular it deals with India s role in the final years of the civil war in Sri Lanka its approach to the peace and democratisation process in Nepal and Indian foreign policy towards Bangladesh on a range of issues including Islamist militancy migration border security and insurgency Set within an analytical framework centred on the notions of empire hegemony and leadership the study reveals that India pursued predominantly hegemonic strategies and was not able to generate genuine followership among its smaller neighbours The South Asian case therefore shows the discrepancy that may exist between the possession of power capabilities and the ability to exercise actual influence a conclusion which lifts the study from geographical specifics and extends its relevance to other cases and cross regional comparisons This text will be of much interest to students of Indian foreign policy Asian security foreign policy analysis strategic studies and IR in general

Israel: Israel in the international arena Efraim Karsh,2004 Globalization and Global Governance Raimo Väyrynen,1999 The world is becoming more integrated and interdependent heightening the need for new approaches to global governance How can the international community collectively respond to pressing global problems What kinds of institutions are needed and what kinds of instruments will help them function A distinguished group of international scholars wrestles here with what global governance is and is not and with what it might be given a clearer understanding of the challenges and opportunities posed by international financial flows communications technologies environmental threats domestic disorders peacekeeping and intervention and sanctions and incentives Taken together this collection of original essays pays special attention to the prospect for strengthening an institutional world order by encouraging and enforcing compliance with international norms

The Forgotten Front Walter C. Ladwig III,2017-06-09 After a decade and a half of war in Iraq and Afghanistan US policymakers are seeking to provide aid and advice to local governments counterinsurgency campaigns rather than directly intervening with US forces This strategy and US counterinsurgency doctrine in general fail to recognize that despite a shared aim of defeating an insurgency the US and its local partner frequently have differing priorities with respect to the conduct of counterinsurgency operations Without some degree of reform or policy change on the part of the insurgency plagued government American support will have a limited impact Using three detailed case studies the Hukbalahap Rebellion in the Philippines Vietnam during the rule of Ngo Dinh Diem and the Salvadorian Civil War Ladwig demonstrates that providing significant amounts of aid will not generate sufficient leverage to affect a client s behaviour and policies Instead he argues that influence flows from pressure and tight conditions on aid rather than from boundless generosity

When Opponents Cooperate Benjamin Miller,2002 A multilevel theory of international relations that accounts for intended and unintended outcomes of cooperation and conflict Understanding Conflict and Conflict Analysis Ho-Won Jeong,2008-04-08 effectively fills a long standing void and will no doubt be hailed as a much needed new addition to the literature This text very much exemplifies the strength of Ho Won Jeong as a theorist and one of the more prolific writers in the larger peace and conflict studies field the final three chapters on De escalation Dynamics which includes a brief section on third party intervention on Conciliation Strategies and especially the one on Ending Conflict which provides a range of outcomes beyond the usual focus on third party intervention read mediation epitomizes the value of this new text Journal of Peace Research an awesome tour d horizon of modern war violence and confrontation within and between nations Illustrating via just about every conflict in every corner of the world the author invokes an endless array of insights and interpretations ranging from the micro to the macro beautifully written in a seamless sequence of closely linked and discursive essays Professor J David Singer University of Michigan Ho Won Jeong has written an illuminating analysis of the dynamics of conflict He lays out the tools we have to analyze conflict in a literate and comprehensive way A valuable book for anyone interested in a more comprehensive understanding of conflict its sources and its deescalation and termination Janice Gross Stein Belzberg Professor of Conflict Management Director Munk Centre for International Studies University of Toronto Jeong has successfully combined behavioral and structural analysis of the dynamics of social conflict This volume covers the multiple dimensions escalation entrapment de escalation termination and resolution both of violent and non violent confrontation between adversaries as well as the utility and limitations of external intervention For students of the social sciences it should serve as an excellent introduction to the complex realities of social conflict Milton Esman John S Knight Professor of International Studies Emeritus Cornell University By examining the dynamic forces which shape and re shape major conflicts this timely book provides students with the knowledge base needed to successfully study conflict sources processes and transformations Broad in focus it addresses the multiple social political and psychological features central to understanding conflict situations and behaviour A range of both recent and historical examples including the Arab Israeli conflict the War on Terrorism the Cold War and the civil wars in Sudan former Yugoslavia and Sri Lanka are discussed illustrating the application of concepts and theories essential to the analysis of inter group inter state and intra state conflict and conflict resolution in a wider context Understanding Conflict and Conflict Analysis is key reading for students of international relations peace and conflict studies conflict resolution international security and international law

International and Regional Security Benjamin Miller, 2016-11-10 This volume is a collection of the best essays of Professor Benjamin Miller on the subjects of international and regional security The book analyses the interrelationships between international politics and regional and national security with a special focus on the sources of international conflict and collaboration and the causes of war and peace More specifically it explains the sources of intended and unintended great power conflict and collaboration The book also accounts for the sources of regional war and peace by developing the concept of the state to nation balance Thus the volume is able to explain the variations in the outcomes of great power interventions and the differences in the level and type of war and peace in different eras and various parts of the world For example the book's model can account for recent outcomes such as the effects of the 2003 American intervention in Iraq the post 2011 Arab Spring and the conflicts between Russia and Ukraine The book also provides a model for explaining the changes in American grand strategy with a special focus on accounting for the causes of the invasion of Iraq in 2003 Finally the book addresses the debate on the future of war and peace in the 21st century This book will be essential reading for students of international security regional security Middle Eastern politics foreign policy and IR Israel's National Security Towards the 21st Century Uri Bar-Joseph, 2014-09-19 This volume discusses three principal issues the Israeli army and the Revolution of Military Affairs RMA Israel's present and future answers to the threats of weapons of mass destruction WMD and the impact of societal political and technological changes on Israel's future war objectives John F. Kennedy and the Politics of Arms Sales to Israel Abraham Ben-Zvi, 2012-12-06 This volume seeks to reconstruct the process by which the Kennedy administration decided to sell to Israel Hawk surface to air missiles It argues that both domestic considerations and political calculations were part of a highly complex decision made by members of Washington's high policy elite

Toward a History of Game Theory E. Roy Weintraub, 1992 During the 1940s game theory emerged from the fields of mathematics and economics to provide a revolutionary new method of analysis Today game theory provides a language for discussing conflict and cooperation not only for economists but also for business analysts sociologists war planners international relations theorists and evolutionary biologists Toward a History of Game Theory offers the first history of the development reception and dissemination of this crucial theory Drawing on interviews with original members of the game theory community and on the Morgenstern diaries the first section of the book examines early work in game theory It focuses on the groundbreaking role of the von Neumann Morgenstern collaborative work The Theory of Games and Economic Behavior 1944 The second section recounts the reception of this new theory revealing just how game theory made its way into the literatures of the time and thus became known among relevant communities of scholars The contributors explore how game theory became a wedge in opening up the social sciences to mathematical tools and use the personal recollections of scholars who taught at Michigan and Princeton in the late 1940s to show why the theory captivated those practitioners now considered to be giants in the field The final section traces the flow of the ideas of game theory into political science operations research and experimental economics Contributors Mary Ann Dimand Robert W Dimand Robert J Leonard Philip Mirowski Angela M O Rand Howard Raiffa Urs Rellstab Robin E Rider William H Riker Andrew Schotter Martin Shubik Vernon L Smith
