Shifting Protracted Conflict Systems Through Local Interactions

Tamra Pearson d'Estrée, 2023-12-29 This volume explores the evolution of theoretical and practical approaches to intervening in protracted conflicts following the work of Herb Kelman Interactive problem solving as developed by Kelman and others sought to increase understanding about the microprocesses of international relations Kelman early on emphasised the centrality of an interactive approach for constructing new identities new narratives and new ways forward Transforming conflict systems requires strategic attention to the interactions between agents of change that provide stability or induce shift This volume on interactive conflict approaches includes both critical reflections and new ideas from scholar practitioners who have developed revised and expanded these approaches Contributors take up important issues from the shape and likelihood of solutions in intractable conflicts to how individuals can exist in realities with seemingly irresolvable inner and outer conflicts The volume represents the best of current thinking about how the mechanisms theoretical framework and application of interactive problem solving should be moved into the twenty first century context of increasing complexity increasing uncertainty and increasing polarisation This book will be of interest to students of peace studies conflict resolution and international relations

Peace and Conflict Resolution in Africa Ernest E. Uwazie, 2019-01-15 This publication is the product of the 25th Annual Africa and Diaspora Conference in 2016 organized by the Center for African Peace and Conflict Resolution at California State University Sacramento on the theme of Peace and Conflict Resolution in Africa 25 Years Later Lessons Best Practices and Opportunities It brings together reflections on both historical and contemporary or recurring conflicts in Africa especially on issues of ethno religious conflicts corruption land and leadership The chapters include case studies and some theoretical perspectives on the persistent search for the right size and scope of visioning and programming on peace and conflict resolution in Africa Understandably this collection of ideas thoughts and proposals will resonate with the field of Peace and Conflict Studies Arguably Africa is rising in the 21st century with declining violent conflicts and an increase in stable democracies and economies However there are still the significant challenges of extremism climate change poor governance ineffective leadership widening wealth gaps and weak institutions of moderation The essays collected here also document areas of progress in legitimizing democracy and conceptualizing social justice and suggest the need for building the next generation of peace leaders in Africa
