Respect The Formation Of Character In An Age Of Inequality:

Respect Richard Sennett, 2004-01-29 In this provocative and timely book Richard Sennett examines the forces that erode respect in modern society Respect can be gained by attaining success by developing talents through financial independence and by helping others But Sennett argues many who are not able to achieve the demands of today's meritocracy lose the esteem that should be given to them From his childhood in a poor Chicago housing project to the contrasting methods of care practised by a nun and a social worker from the harmonious interaction of musicians to the welfare system Sennett explores the ways in which mutual respect can forge bonds across the divide of inequality Respect Richard Sennett, 2003 This text looks at the pivotal role respect plays in contemporary society Drawing on his own experience as a left wing activist and idealist in the US and the UK Sennett examines what has gone wrong with the modern world and argues that respect is the glue that keeps society together and a serious factor in social change Theory of World Security Ken Booth, 2007-12-20

What is real What can we know How might we act This book sets out to answer these fundamental philosophical questions in a radical and original theory of security for our times Arguing that the concept of security in world politics has long been imprisoned by conservative thinking Ken Booth explores security as a precious instrumental value which gives individuals and groups the opportunity to pursue the invention of humanity rather than live determined and diminished lives Booth suggests that human society globally is facing a set of converging historical crises He looks to critical social theory and radical international theory to develop a comprehensive framework for understanding the historical challenges facing global business as usual and for planning to reconstruct a more cosmopolitan future Theory of World Security is a challenge both to well established ways of thinking about security and alternative approaches within critical security studies South Africa

Pushed to the Limit Hein Marais, 2013-07-04 Since 1994 the democratic government in South Africa has worked hard at improving the lives of the black majority yet close to half the population lives in poverty jobs are scarce and the country is more unequal than ever For millions the colour of people's skin still decides their destiny In his wide ranging incisive and provocative analysis Hein Marais shows that although the legacies of apartheid and colonialism weigh heavy many of the strategic choices made since the early 1990s have compounded those handicaps Marais explains why those choices were made where they went awry and why South Africa's vaunted formations of the left old and new have failed to prevent or alter them From the real reasons behind President Jacob Zuma's rise and the purging of his predecessor Thabo Mbeki to a devastating critique of the country's continuing AIDS crisis its economic path and its approach to the rights and entitlements of citizens South Africa Pushed to the Limit presents a riveting benchmark analysis of the incomplete journey beyond apartheid Where Have All the Intellectuals Gone? Frank Furedi, 2006-09-10 In this urgent and passionate book Frank Furedi explains the essential contribution of intellectuals both to culture and to democracy and why we need to recreate a public sphere in which intellectuals and the general public can talk to each other again Narratives of Neglect Jacqui

Karn,2013-06-17 Based on extensive ethnographic research this book addresses the local governance of security and the ways in which the community engaged with attempts to improve the quality of life of its residents and to attract wealthier new residents in the future by examining the process leading up to the demolition of a small council estate in the north of England and its subsequent regeneration

Crafting Citizenship M. Hurenkamp,E. Tonkens,J. Duyvendak,2012-08-21 According to politics and the media immigration and individualization drive citizens apart but in neighbourhoods social life is often thriving depending on the talents of particular citizens or of local institutions This book examines new forms of active citizenship and the actual conditions that hinder social cohesion

Building and Dwelling Richard Sennett,2023-08-22 A reflection on the past and present of city life and a bold proposal for its future Constantly stimulating ideas from a veteran of urban thinking Jonathan Meades The Guardian In this sweeping work the preeminent sociologist Richard Sennett traces the anguished relation between how cities are built and how people live in them from ancient Athens to twenty first century Shanghai He shows how Paris Barcelona and New York City assumed their modern forms rethinks the reputations of Jane Jacobs Lewis Mumford and others and takes us on a tour of emblematic contemporary locations from the backstreets of Medell n Colombia to Google headquarters in Manhattan Through it all Sennett laments that the closed city segregated regimented and controlled has spread from the Global North to the exploding urban centers of the Global South He argues instead for a flexible and dynamic open city one that provides a better quality of life that can adapt to climate change and challenge economic stagnation and racial separation With arguments that speak directly to our moment a time when more humans live in urban spaces than ever before Sennett forms a bold and original vision for the future of cities

Philosophical Criminology Andrew Millie,2016-09-21 Philosophical criminology asks big questions about how we get on with one another and what happens when we do not This accessible book in the New Horizons in Criminology series is the first to foreground this growing area The book is structured around six philosophical ideas concerning our relations with others values morality aesthetics order rules and respect Building on the author s theoretical and empirical research the book considers the boundaries of criminology and the scope for greater exchange between criminology and philosophy The book is illustrated using examples from a range of countries and provides a platform for engaging with important topical issues using philosophical and theoretical insights

Youth Gill Jones,2009 This accessible book takes a fresh and original approach to the concept of youth placing changes in the social construction of youth within a more general story of the rise and fall of grand theory in social science Gill Jones evaluates the current relevance of these wider social theories to understanding youth in late modernity in the light of key examples of empirical work on young people Individual chapters are organized around the themes of action identity transition inequality and dependence conceptual themes which cross cut young people s lives The book considers the validity of youth as a social concept and examines ways of identifying what is specific to young people without resorting to seeing them as a homogeneous group defined by their age in so doing it uncovers notions which are erroneously attributed to young people Youth represents a thought provoking challenge to a new generation of social science students youth researchers and practitioners to distance themselves from the politically and emotively charged issue of youth in contemporary society and move further towards re theorizing the concept of youth in ways which are relevant to young people s lives today Jacket

Comparing Conviviality Tilmann Heil,2020-03-02 In a world where difference is often seen as a threat or challenge Comparing Conviviality explores how people actually live in diverse societies Based on a long term ethnography of West Africans in both Senegal and Spain this book proposes that conviviality is a commitment to difference across ethnicities languages religions and practices Heil brings together longstanding histories political projects and everyday practices of living with difference With a focus on neighbourhood life in Casamance Senegal and Catalonia Spain two equally complex regions Comparing Conviviality depicts how Senegalese people skillfully negotiate and translate the intricacies of difference and power In these lived African and European worlds conviviality is ever temporary and changing This book offers a textured realist yet hopeful understanding of difference social change power and respect It will be invaluable to students and scholars of African migration and diversity studies across anthropology sociology geography political sciences and law

Well-Preserved Boundaries Gülen Göktürk,2020-06-01 Cappadocia was a place of co habitation of Christians and Muslims until the Greco Turkish Population Exchange 1923 terminated the Christian presence in the region Using an interdisciplinary approach drawing on history political science and anthropology this study investigates the relationship between tolerance co habitation and nationalism Concentrating particularly on Orthodox Muslim and Orthodox Protestant practices of living together in Cappadocia during the last fifty years of the Ottoman Empire it responds to the prevailing romanticism about the Ottoman way of handling diversity The study also analyses the transformation of the social identity of Cappadocian Orthodox Christians from Christians to Greeks through various mechanisms including the endeavour of the elite to utilise education and the press and through nationalist antagonism during the long war of 1912 to 1922

The Auditory Culture Reader Michael Bull,Les Back,2020-05-31 The first edition of The Auditory Culture Reader offered an introduction to both classical and recent work on auditory culture laying the foundations for new academic research in sound studies Today interest and research on sound thrives across disciplines such as music anthropology geography sociology and cultural studies as well as within the new interdisciplinary sphere of sound studies itself This second edition reflects on the changes to the field since the first edition and offers a vast amount of new content a user friendly organization which highlights key themes and concepts and a methodologies section which addresses practical questions for students setting out on auditory explorations All essays are accessible to non experts and encompass scholarship from leading figures in the field discussing issues relating to sound and listening from the broadest set of interdisciplinary perspectives Inspiring students and researchers attentive to sound in their work newly commissioned and classical excerpts bring urban research and ethnography alive with sensory case studies that open up a world beyond the visual This book is core reading for all courses that cover the role of sound in culture within sound studies anthropology sociology cultural studies history media studies and urban geography

The Routledge Handbook of Mobile Socialities Annette Hill, Maren Hartmann, Magnus Andersson, 2021-05-06 This is a state of the art survey of an emerging area of study in media communication and cultural studies mobility studies and mobile communications Mobile socialities demarcates a new area of research that captures people's various and contrary experiences of media in relation to their mobilities and socialities The chapters in this volume are written by a range of international scholars offering a comprehensive overview and source of inspiration for a diverse range of topics on the contingent practices and finite resources of people and media on the move The book demonstrates through empirical and theoretical research how mobile socialities is a generative concept for thinking through power identity and the contexts of media in public and mediated spaces work and everyday life addressing a spectrum of mobile socialities and lived politics The research and various cases make visible previously hidden or obscured social practices and allow us to rethink the meanings of mobility digital media or the home in these examples of people living within the centre and peripheries of society The Handbook establishes mobile socialities as a new area of academic enquiry ideal for advanced undergraduate students and scholars across the disciplines of media communication and cultural studies anthropology cultural geography and sociology

Globalizing Education Policy Fazal Rizvi, Bob Lingard, 2009-12-04 Rizvi and Lingard's account of the global politics of education is thoughtful complex and compelling It is the first really comprehensive discussion and analysis of global trends in education policy their effects structural and individual and resistance to them In the enormous body of writing on globalisation this book stands out and will become a basic text in education policy courses around the world Stephen J Ball Karl Mannheim Professor of Sociology of Education Institute of Education University of London UK In what ways have the processes of globalization reshaped the educational policy terrain How might we analyse education policies located within this new terrain which is at once local national regional and global In Globalizing Education Policy the authors explore the key global drivers of policy change in education and suggest that these do not operate in the same way in all nation states They examine the transformative effects of globalization on the discursive terrain within which educational policies are developed and enacted arguing that this terrain is increasingly informed by a range of neo liberal precepts which have fundamentally changed the ways in which we think about educational governance They also suggest that whilst in some countries these precepts are resisted to some extent they have nonetheless become hegemonic and provide an overview of some critical issues in educational policy to which this hegemonic view of globalization has given rise including devolution and decentralization new forms of governance the balance between public and private funding of education access and equity and the education of girls curriculum particularly with respect to the teaching of English language and technology pedagogies and high stakes testing and the global trade in education These issues are explored within the context of major shifts in global processes and ideological discourses currently being experienced and negotiated by all countries The book also provides an approach to education policy analysis in an age of globalization and will be of interest to those studying globalization and education policy across the social sciences
