What Lips My Lips Have Kissed Daniel Mark Epstein, 2024-06-04 A noted biographer and poet illuminates the unique woman who wrote the greatest American love poetry of the twentieth century What Lips My Lips Have Kissed is the story of a rare sort of American genius who grew up in grinding poverty in Camden Maine Nothing could save the sensitive child but her talent for words music and drama and an inexorable desire to be loved When she was twenty her poetry would make her famous at thirty she would be loved by readers the world over Edna St Vincent Millay was widely considered to be the most seductive woman of her age Few men could resist her and many women also fell under her spell From the publication of her first poems until the scandal over Fatal Interview twenty years later gossip about the poet's liberated lifestyle prompted speculation about who might be the real subject of her verses Using letters diaries and journals of the poet and her lovers that have only recently become available Daniel Mark Epstein tells the astonishing story of the life dedicated to art and love that inspired the sublime lyrics of Edna St Vincent Millay

Literature and Musical Adaptation, 2016-08-09 It can safely be said that when literary texts are utilized or adapted by a musician to create a new work of art it is seldom that a diminished or lessened product results Rather such a merging usually enlarges and enhances both text and tune perhaps significantly changing the message of the original Discovering exactly what the new form has to offer and how it relates to the text or melody that preceded it is often a daunting task requiring a close examination of both the author's and the composer's intent The essays in this collection offer an analysis of several adaptations some successful some not so successful and attempt to assess just what the musicians or writers have modified or changed from to the original as they re form it into an altogether different media Ranging from Pasternak's appropriation of Tchaikovsky to Britten's operatic versions of Billy Budd and The Turn of the Screw from Celan's use of fugal technique in his Todesfuge to the way that the musicianship of several women writers found voice in their writing a broad spectrum of collaborations is examined As readers examine an author's respect for a long dead musician Hopkins admiration of Purcell or as they discover how John Harbison worked to transform Fitzgerald's musicality in The Great Gatsby it will be evident that musical adaptations often provide a richness that the originals did not possess and that the potential for greatness is heightened when the arts intersect

The Women of Provincetown, 1915-1922 Cheryl Black, 2002 In this work Cheryl Black argues that Provincetown has another largely unacknowledged claim to fame it was one of the first theatre companies in America in which women achieved prominence in every area of operation At a time when women playwrights were rare women directors rarer and women scenic designers unheard of Provincetown's female members excelled in all these functions making significant contributions to the development of modern American drama and theatre In addition to playwright Glaspell the company's female membership included the likes of poets Edna St Vincent Millay Mina Loy and Djuna Barnes journalists Louise Bryant and Mary Heaton Vorse novelists Neith Boyce and Evelyn Scott and painter Marguerite Zorach Girl Called Vincent Krystyna Goddu,2016-04-01 Tracing Millay's life from her youth in Maine to the bohemian fervor of her early adulthood in Greenwich Village and Paris this fascinating biography will captivate middle grade readers Including photos full length poems plentiful letter and diary excerpts a time line source notes and bibliography this is an indispensable resource for any young person interested in poetry literature or biographies of remarkable people in American history Magill's Bibliography of Literary Criticism: Longus to Sexton Stephen L.
