Restoring The Soul Experiencing Gods Grace In Time Of Crisis:

Restoring the Soul Miriam Bundy, Stuart Bundy, 1999 What happens to the soul when tragedy strikes How can we hold on to what we know is true when God seems so far away The Bundys found out first hand when Miriam was diagnosed with terminal cancer They chose not to lose hope and sought the peace God promised Charisma with Character Patrice Montgomery, 2007 The Mediation of the Spirit Mark J. Cartledge, 2015-07-08 A noteworthy theology of the Holy Spirit that challenges current scholarship in the field How might a distinctively Pentecostal and charismatic theological perspective inform and enrich the discourse of academic practical theology In order to address that question Mark Cartledge in this book probes the relationship between Scripture experience and the Holy Spirit by means of the concept of mediation that is how the divine is experienced in the world An expert in both Pentecostal theology and practical theology Cartledge offers a unique intervention into practical theology through the lens of the Holy Spirit He presents an original reading of Pentecost and the Spirit reception texts in the book of Acts and engages with current literature in both Pentecostal studies and practical theology Further Cartledge places his whole discussion within a broader Protestant theological framework and he interrogates an existing congregational study to provide a real life example of theological intervention

Julian of Norwich and the Ecological Crisis Claire Gilbert, 2024-07-01 This book presents ecological insights drawn from a reading of Julian of Norwich considering how effectively she can help us in our current plight The argument is that to address the ecological crisis with the mindset that created it will only cause more problems and that to really undo the harm humanity has done and continues to do will take a transformation of selfhood and hence of perception from the Gestell technological self that is the child of the Enlightenment to the porous self that we truly are underneath our buffered separated controlling and lonely exterior The author suggests Julian of Norwich's text Revelations of Divine Love has the power to effect this transformation if we can learn to read it as disciples not masters just as Julian received and responded to her revelations as a performative porous receptive disciple The chapters describe the technological mindset and its causal relationship with the ecological crisis and articulate in detail how if they are to transform us we must read the Julian texts taking first steps away from our technological selves as we do so The book then takes significant passages from Julian and reads them in the performative porous way that has been recommended It will be of particular interest to scholars of theology and ecology as well as medieval mysticism
