Restructuring Schooling:

Restructuring Schooling Joseph Murphy, Philip Hallinger, 1993-03-16 Make good decisions about your own restructuring effort by seeing what has and what hasn't worked in other schools      Handbook on Restructuring and Substantial School Improvement Herbert J. Walberg, 2007-08-01 Published in cooperation with The Center on Innovation Improvement As suggested by the title the purpose of this Handbook on Restructuring and Substantial School Improvement is to provide principles for restructuring and substantially improving schools Sponsored by the U S Department of Education the Center on Innovation Improvement CII engaged leading experts on restructuring and school improvement to prepare modules for this handbook to assist states districts and schools in establishing policies procedures and support to successfully restructure schools The Handbook is organized into three sections The topic of the Handbook's modules restructuring with a focus on the district as the impetus for dramatic improvement is relatively new in the nation's education history For this reason the module authors were selected because they are highly experienced experts in their fields and can be counted on to judiciously weigh the less than definitive evidence and to state useful guiding principles      Restructuring High Schools for Equity and Excellence Valerie E. Lee, Julia Smith, 2001 This book demonstrates empirical links with achievement and investigates how restructuring relates to school size teachers attitudes toward students and how teachers press their students to work hard and succeed      Restructuring American Education Ray C. Rist, 1972-01-01      Race, Class, and Power in School Restructuring Pauline Lipman, 1998-02-26 Explores the intersection of two central issues in American education today school reform through restructuring and alienation from school of many children of color A tough look at the impact of teachers and administrators beliefs and practices      The Practice and Theory of School Improvement David Hopkins, 2005-10 ANDY HARGREAVES Department of Teacher Education Curriculum and Instruction Lynch School of Education Boston College MA U S A ANN LIEBERMAN Carnegie Foundation for the Advancement of Teaching Stanford CA U S A MICHAEL FULLAN Ontario Institute for Studies in Education University of Toronto Canada DAVID HOPKINS Department for Education and Skills London U K This set of four volumes on Educational Change brings together evidence and insights on educational change issues from leading writers and researchers in the field from across the world Many of these writers whose chapters have been specially written for these books have been investigating helping initiate and implementing educational change for most or all of their lengthy careers Others are working on the cutting edge of theory and practice in educational change taking the field in new or even more challenging directions And some are more skeptical about the literature of educational change and the assumptions on which it rests They help us to approach projects of understanding or initiating educational change more deeply reflectively and realistically Educational change and reform have rarely had so much prominence within public policy in so many different places Educational change is ubiquitous It figures large in Presidential and Prime Ministerial speeches It is at or near the top of many National policy agendas Everywhere educational change is not only a policy priority but also major public news Yet action to bring about educational change usually exceeds people s understanding of how to do so effectively

International Handbook of Educational Change Andy Hargreaves,A. Lieberman,M. Fullan,D.W. Hopkins,2014-11-14 The International Handbook of Educational Change is a state of the art collection of the most important ideas and evidence of educational change The book brings together some of the most influential thinkers and writers on educational change It deals with issues like educational innovation reform restructuring culture building inspection school review and change management It asks why some people resist change and what their resistance means It looks at how men and women older teachers and younger teachers experience change differently It looks at the positive aspects of change but does not hesitate to raise uncomfortable questions about many aspects of educational change either It looks critically and controversially at the social economic cultural and political forces that are driving educational change School leaders system administration teacher leaders consultants facilitators educational researchers staff developers and change agents of all kinds will find this book an indispensable resource for guiding them to both classic and cutting edge understandings of educational change no other work provides as comprehensive coverage of the field of educational change

Restructuring High Schools for All Students Cheryl M. Jorgensen,1998 This unique resource asserts and demonstrates that all students benefit from the social opportunities and academic expectations of high school Restructuring High Schools for All Students provides numerous strategies that readers can apply in their own schools concrete information on creating a collaborative environment rethinking staff roles and designing an inclusive curriculum And using real life examples it shows how self determination transition planning and other special education practices can be broadened to work in general education settings

Schools With Heart Daniel Brown,2019-05-28 In Schools with Heart Brown explores voluntarism by using original data gathered from 185 interviews with public school principals teachers and volunteers many of whom worked in schools known for their volunteer programs Supplementing these data from other studies this careful inquiry finds that volunteers offer much to schools School volun

New Schools for a New Century Tewel,1995-02-28 Combining both the theory as well as the practice of the education reform process this unique breakthrough volume focuses on every aspect of the change process in high school education today Short and long term strategies for each phase of the process provoking creating managing supporting and sustaining reform are covered Based on the real life experiences of the author and others this book recognizes that most high school reform is short lived It stresses the ways to create and maintain positive change making the process a long lasting worthwhile mission for the school s leadership and ultimately the students Short useful summaries of high school reform provide true life pictures of what really happens in the midst of changing the way educational institutions operate These stories cover school based management collaborative or shared leadership school within a school groupings interdisciplinary instruction school based budgeting new models for professional development and others Through these examples readers can understand how reform strategies work and how to apply and adapt them to their own situations As an added feature this book provides the names and locations of schools attempting each reform as well as the names and addresses of school reform networks that readers can contact in their own efforts A Leader's Guide to School Restructuring James W. Keefe, National Association of Secondary School Principals (U.S.), National Association of Secondary School Principals (U.S.). Commission on Restructuring, 1992 Designing the Learning-centred School Clive Dimmock, 2005-12-01 Schools are expected and challenged to achieve student outcomes commensurate with the abilities of all students but few are capable of this This book demonstrates that present school structures and processes need to be redesigned and suggests ways of reforming schools to enhance student outcomes The author suggests that a holistic approach that integrates all facets of school life learning teaching curriculum school structures resources leadership and management is needed A practical and coherent model is used underpinned by research evidence of what works and how practitioners can apply best practice to improvements for student outcomes Effective School District Leadership Kenneth Leithwood, 1995-02-16 The authors describe how effective superintendents work with their immediate staffs elected trustees and school based administrators Each chapter examines the meaning of effective district leadership from different perspectives Politics, Policies and Pedagogies in Education Bob Lingard, 2013-07-24 In the World Library of Educationalists international experts compile career long collections of what they judge to be their finest pieces of work extracts from books key articles salient research findings major theoretical and practical contributions so the world can read them in a single manageable volume Readers will be able to follow the themes and strands and see how their work contributes to the development of the field Bob Lingard has spent the last 30 years researching and writing in universities in Australia England and Scotland about changing education policy issues His work is written from a sociological perspective and with a commitment to social justice He is the co editor and co author of 17 books and more than 100 journal articles and book chapters In Politics Policies and Pedagogies in Education Bob Lingard provides critical sociological engagement with the politics of education The focus is education policy and the impact of globalization including epistemological and methodological issues necessary for researching education policy today Topics analyzed include educational restructuring new accountabilities and testing mediatization of education policy policy as numbers the global policy field and policy borrowing pedagogies Lingard also considers the nature of educational research today He has selected 12 of his key writings and in a critical introduction situates and contextualizes the work against key developments in the field and in the changing world Restructuring in the Classroom Richard F. Elmore, Penelope L. Peterson, Sarah J. McCarthey, 1996-03-15 Restructuring in the Classroom goes into the classrooms of three elementary schools to take a detailed look at how teachers responded to changes in structure in their schools The authors interviewed principals teachers parents support staff and district personnel to produce in depth case studies of schools at various stages of restructuring showing what the school had done to change its structure and how those changes had occurred Selecting four teachers in each school for closer observation and discussion the authors reveal how those teachers responded to the changes around them in their day to day practice in the classroom They show for example how teaching practice is or is not affected by changes in the way students are grouped for learning in the way teachers relate to groups of students and to each other and in the way time is allocated to subject matter
