Moving Forward in Mid-Career John Henry Weiss, 2018-01-09. Losing a job is one of the most devastating events one can experience. For trauma, it ranks up there with divorce, loss of a loved one, or permanent personal injury, and it happens more often than one would think. According to the Bureau of Labor Statistics, approximately 50 000 workers are fired or laid off each day. That is over 18 000 000 workers each year. Moving Forward in Mid-Career is a guide for workers who have been fired or laid off and are in process of rebuilding not only their careers but also their personal identities independent of a job title. The main objectives of Moving Forward are: To address challenges that are unique to the mid-career job seekers such as perceptions of overqualification and the need to keep with advances in technology; To provide support and encouragement for workers who are in process of rebuilding their careers as individual contributors, as employees of small businesses or large corporations, or as founders/owners of a new business; To provide job hunting rules for workers reentering the workplace; To provide guidelines for staying up to date on competitive skills demanded by today's workplace; To provide practical information for rebuilding wealth. By addressing the many aspects of job loss and job search, Moving Forward provides solutions for dealing with the challenges encountered at each stage of the rebuilding process, from the initial shock and humiliation to the difficult but rewarding task of rebuilding persona and seeking new employment opportunities.
