who knew Tupac from their shared circle of high school friends in Marin City California and who was entrusted by his mother Afeni Shakur to share his story unravels the myths and unpacks the complexities that have shadowed Tupac's existence. Decades in the making this book pulls back the curtain to reveal a powerful story of a life defined by politics and art a man driven by equal parts brilliance and impulsiveness steeped in the rich intellectual tradition of Black empowerment and unafraid to utter raw truths about race in America. It is a story of a mother and son bound together by a love for each other and for their people and the relationship that endured through their darkest times. It is a political story that begins in the whirlwind of the 1960s civil rights movement and unfolds through a young artist's awakening to rage and purpose in the 90s era of Rodney King. It is a story of dizzying success and its devastating consequences. And of course it is the story of Tupac's music his timeless undying message as it continues to touch and inspire us today.
