Dryden's Second Hundred Years: a Central New York Town in the 20Th Century Elizabeth Denver Gutchess, 2020-11-18 Dryden's Second Hundred Years Part II does two exceptional things First its tight focus on local participation in World War II paradoxically chronicles the entire war a conflict which drew its combatants from small rural townships like Dryden NY assigned and scattered them throughout the world and then delivered the survivors back home again creating in every small American community a microcosm of the entire conflict an eye witnessing of the whole story Second that story is told here largely in local participants own words in letters from camps troopships carriers cruisers foxholes and hospitals their voices a quiet backdrop to the horrific war they had been asked to fight The resulting narrative suggests that those who don't know history while not always doomed to repeat it are very likely doomed to live their lives without perspective to mistake inconvenience for hardship and hardship for catastrophe and to be blind to the miracle of everyday normal life

Meyers ,2015-05-12 In December 1941 Japanese naval bombers destroyed the United States Pacific battleship fleet at Pearl Harbor unleashed a rampage of conquest in the Pacific Ocean and Rim and invaded the Dutch East Indies and New Guinea The battered United States Pacific Fleet was then confronted by the formidable Japanese naval superiority in quality and quantity of warships planes pilots and torpedoes but staggered up from its flaming decks to first check and then dominate a samurai warrior obsessed foe which killed between 28 63 million Asians Author Don Meyers analyzes the main causes of the remarkable comeback victory at the amazingly low cost of less than 0 2% of all military fatalities in WWII Not least among them was the skill and courage of fewer than 100 pilots and sub skippers who sank all 22 Japanese aircraft carriers and nearly 3 million tons of their Merchant Marine leading to their unconditional surrender There has never been a war like World War II in the Pacific

The Vinson Court Michal R. Belknap,2004-06-29 Spanning the years from 1946 until 1953 the Vinson Court made the legal transition from World War II to the Korean War and the outspoken justices Felix Frankfurter and Hugo Black helped shape its legacy The Vinson Court summons students and legal professionals to understand the impact and tensions of Fred Vinson s term as Chief Justice from 1946 1953 Court scholar Michal R Belknap explores McCarthyism the Cold War racial segregation and capital punishment from the Supreme Court s view These controversies shaped the most important decision on presidential powers restrictions on political expression and a nasty conflict over the Rosenbergs Significant rulings are reviewed and the 12 justices on the Vinson Court including Felix Frankfurter and Hugo Black are introduced Clashes were common between some of the Supreme Court s strongest personalities and these are highlighted throughout the text The court s legacy completes this powerful study of constitutional law

Germany and the Second World War Horst Boog, Gerhard Krebs, Detlef Vogel,2006-05-04 By the spring of 1943 after the defeat at Stalingrad the writing was on the wall But while commanders close to the troops on Germany s various fronts were beginning to read it those at the top were resolutely looking the other way This seventh volume in the magisterial 10 volume series from the Milit rgeschichtliches Forschungsamt Research Institute for Military History shows both Germany and her Japanese ally on the defensive from 1943 into early 1945 It looks in depth at the strategic air war over the Reich and the mounting toll taken in the Battles of the Ruhr Hamburg and Berlin and at the Battle of the Radar Sets so central to them all The collapse of the Luftwaffe in its retaliatory role led to hopes being pinned on the revolutionary V weapons whose dramatic but ultimately fruitless achievements are chronicled The Luftwaffe s weakness in defence is seen during the Normandy invasion Operation overlord an account of the planning preparation and execution of which form the central part of this volume together with the landings in the south of France the setback suffered at Arnhem and the German counter offensive in the Ardennes The final part follows the fortunes of Germany's ally fighting in the Pacific Burma Thailand and China with American forces capturing islands ever closer to Japan's homeland and culminates in her capitulation and the creation of a new postwar order in the Far East The struggle between internal factions in the Japanese high command and imperial court is studied in detail and highlights an interesting contrast with the intolerance of all dissent that typified the Nazi power structure Based on meticulous research by MGFA's team of historians at Potsdam this analysis of events is illustrated by a wealth of tables and maps covering aspects ranging from Germany's radar defence system and the targets of RAF Bomber Command and the US 8th Air Force through the break out from the Normandy beachhead to the battles for Iwo Jima and Okinawa

World War II Alan Warren, 2016-08-12 In the First World War many battles on the Western Front had lasted weeks or months All too often they degenerated into glacial and indecisive campaigns of attrition By the 1930s however military science had recreated the possibility of a decisive battle An unprecedented rate of technological change meant that a stream of new inventions were readily at hand for military innovators to exploit Aircraft armoured vehicles and new forms of motorised transport became available to make possible a fresh style of offensive warfare when the next European war began in 1939 A belief in the importance of effective war fighting was vital to the Nazi vision of Germany's future Nazi Germany's political and military leaders aimed for rapid and decisive victory in battle From 1939-45 new ideologies and new machines of war carried destruction across the globe Alan Warren chronicles the sixteen most decisive battles of the Second World War from the Blitzkrieg of Poland to the fall of Berlin

My Wars and in Between Lt Col James S. Oliver USAF (Ret.), 2016-02-20 James

S Oliver grew up on the southern Philippine Island of Mindanao hiding from World War II aggressors with his Filipino mother and three siblings. He did not know it then but war would become a constant in his life even after he moved to the United States. He graduated from college and became an officer in the US Air Force where he spent the next twenty-four years. During the Cold War with Soviet Russia, he specialized in intercontinental ballistic missile operations and maintenance and was selected for Special Forces training at Fort Bragg. Then he joined a controversial top secret Provincial Advisory Group Team for one year operating out of Bao Trai Hau Nghia, a former province in South Vietnam where an all-new war was underway. He retired in 1984 as commander of the Ninetieth Organizational Missile Maintenance Squadron 90 OMMS, an ICBM maintenance squadron of the Strategic Air Command. Despite numerous challenges, the author maintained his faith in humanity and you'll be inspired by the years of devoted service he highlights in My Wars and In Between. The Intrepid Guerrillas of North Luzon Bernard Norling, 2005-06-01 Following the Japanese invasion of the islands in 1942, North Luzon was the staging area for several Filipino American guerrilla bands who sought to gather intelligence and to destroy enemy military installations or supplies. Bernard Norling focuses on the Cagayan Apayao Forces or CAF, commanded by Maj Ralph Praeger. Their bravery was unquestionable but by September 1943, all but one member of Troop C had been claimed by combat, enemy capture, or disease. The only survivor, Capt Thomas S Jones, remembered: Defeat is a terrible thing. It brings down with it the whole structure about which a nation or an army has been built. It subjects men to the most severe of moral tests at a time when they are physically least able to meet them. Based primarily upon unpublished sources, The Intrepid Guerrillas of North Luzon includes the diary of Praeger's executive officer Jones and draws on transcripts of radio communications between Praeger and General MacArthur's headquarters in Australia. The struggles of the men of the CAF tell a harrowing tale of valor, determination, and occasional successes mixed with the wildcat schemes, rivalries, mistrust, and betrayals that characterized the intramural relations of guerrilla forces all over the Pacific islands.
