Rethinking Basic Writing Exploring Identity Politics And C:

Rethinking Basic Writing Laura Gray-Rosendale, 1999-12-01 This book surveys the history of basic writing scholarship suggesting that we cannot adequately theorize the situations of basic writers unless we examine how they construct their own conceptions of their identities their constructions of their relationships to social forces and their representations of their relationships to written work Using a cross disciplinary analytic model Gray Rosendale offers a detailed examination of the oral conversations that take place within one basic writing peer revision group She explains the ways in which the students own conversational structures impact and shape their written products Gray Rosendale then draws out the potentials of her work for basic writing administrators curricula builders and teachers Rethinking Basic Writing Laura

Alternative Rhetorics Laura Gray-Rosendale, Sibylle Gruber, 2001-04-19 Challenges the traditional rhetorical canon

On Discourse Analysis in Classrooms David Bloome, Stephanie Power Carter, Beth Morton Christian, Samara Madrid, Sheila Otto, Nora Shuart-Faris, Mandy Smith, 2008 This book in the NCRL Collection provides an introductory discussion of discourse analysis of language and literacy events in classrooms The authors introduce approaches to discourse analysis in a way that redefines traditional topics and provokes the imagination of researchers For those who have limited knowledge of discourse analysis this book will help generate new questions about literacy events in classrooms For those familiar with this research perspective it will map diverse new approaches Offers examples of classroom discourse with analyses that researchers and practitioners can use as the basis for pursuing their own analyses Rob Tierney Dean Faculty of Education University of British Columbia On Discourse Analysis provokes us to rethink discourse analytic approaches as generative tools that can open up new ways of seeing language and literacy events in classrooms The authors richly illustrate the complexity and potential of discourse analysis studies with cases that orient us to foreground the local with broader cultural historical and social relations in ways that make evident what it means to be human On Discourse Analysis provides a fresh approach to discourse analysis studies Kris Gutierrez University of California at Los Angeles

Teaching/Writing in Thirdspaces Rhonda C. Grego, Nancy S. Thompson, 2008 Rhonda C Grego and Nancy S Thompson argue that because the studio is physically and institutionally outside but alongside both students other coursework and the hierarchy of the institution it represents a thirdspace a unique position in which to effect institutional change Teaching Writing in Thirdspaces provides an alternative approach to traditional basic writing courses that can be adopted in educational institutions of all types and at all levels BOOK JACKET

Reimagining Popular Notions of American Intellectualism Kelly Susan Bradbury, 2016-03-02 The image of the lazy media obsessed American preoccupied with vanity and consumerism permeates popular culture and fuels critiques of American education In Reimagining Popular Notions of American Intellectualism Kelly Susan Bradbury challenges this image by examining and reimagining widespread conceptions of intellectualism that assume intellectual activity is situated solely in elite institutions of higher education Bradbury begins by tracing the origins and evolution of the narrow views of intellectualism that are common in the United States today Then applying a more inclusive and egalitarian definition of intellectualism she examines the literacy and learning practices of three nonelite sites of adult public education in the United States the nineteenth century lyceum a twentieth century labor college and a twenty first century GED writing workshop Bradbury argues that together these three case studies teach us much about literacy learning and intellectualism in the United States over time and place She concludes the book with a reflection on her own efforts to aid students in recognizing and resisting the rhetoric of anti intellectualism that surrounds them and that influences their attitudes and actions Drawing on case studies as well as Bradbury s own experiences with students Reimagining Popular Notions of American Intellectualism demonstrates that Americans have engaged and do engage in the process and exercise of intellectual inquiry contrary to what many people believe Addressing a topic often overlooked by rhetoric composition and literacy studies scholars it offers methods for helping students reimagine what it means to be intellectual in the twenty first century

Escritura académica e identidad en la educación superior Alfonso Vargas Franco, 2019-02-01 Este texto aborda desde el enfoque de las literacidades acad micas el tema de la escritura acad mica del estudiante a trav s de una investigaci n cualitativa etnogr fica donde se describen las concepciones puntos de vista actitudes y valores de un estudiante maduro sobre la escritura de textos acad micos como el resumen la rese a y el art culo cient fico y de otros dispositivos de ense anza y aprendizaje como la revisi n entre iguales Se propone adem s que las cuestiones de la escritura acad mica no consisten solo en el desarrollo de habilidades descontextualizadas sino que la historia de vida y literacidad del sujeto escritor tambi n es determinante para comprender el xito o el fracaso del estudiante como productor de textos acad micos

Inoue,2015-11-08 In Antiracist Writing Assessment Ecologies Asao B Inoue theorizes classroom writing assessment as a complex system that is more than its interconnected elements To explain how and why antiracist work in the writing classroom is vital to literacy learning Inoue incorporates ideas about the white racial habitus that informs dominant discourses in the academy and other contexts Critical Sociolinguistics Alfonso Del Percio,Mi-Cha Flubacher,2024-10-03 Providing a series of crucial debates on language power difference and social inequality this volume traces developments and dissonances in critical sociolinguistics Eminent and emerging academic figures from around the world collaboratively engage with the work of Monica Heller offering insights into the politics and power formations that surround knowledge of language and society Challenging disciplinary power dynamics in critical sociolinguistics this book is an experiment testing new ways of producing knowledge on language and society Critically discussing central sociolinguistic concepts from critique to political economy labor to media education to capitalism each chapter features a number of scholars offering their distinct social and political perspectives on the place played by language in the social fabric Through its theoretical epistemological and methodological breadth the volume foregrounds political alliances in how language is known and explored by scholars writing from specific geopolitical spaces that come with diverse political struggles and dynamics of power Allowing for a diversity of genres debates controversies fragments and programmatic manifestos the volume prefigures a new mode of knowledge production that multiplies perspectives and starts practicing the more inclusive just and equal worlds that critical sociolinguists envision The Routledge International Handbook of the Sociology of Education Michael W. Apple,Stephen J. Ball,Luis Armando Gandin,2009-12-16 This collection brings together the work of a group of the world's leading sociologists of education to explore and address key issues and concerns within the discipline The chapters draw upon theory and research to provide state of the art accounts of contemporary educational processes global trends and changing and enduring forms of social conflict and social inequality The topics which are addressed are of international relevance and significance Sociolinguistics of Writing Theresa Lillis,2013-03-11 Brings the study of writing to the heart of sociolinguistic inquiry This book puts writing at the centre of sociolinguistic inquiry drawing on a range of academic fields including New Literacy Studies semiotics genre studies stylistics and new rhetoric The key question the book explores is what do we mean by writing in the 21 century Using examples from across a range of contexts the book argues that writing involving both old and new technologies is a pervasive and complex communicative feature of contemporary life The book is organised around the following areas The multimodal nature of writing The verbal dimension to writing Writing as everyday practice Writing as a differentiated semiotic and social resource Writing as the inscription of identity A range of analytic tools for analysing writing as text and practice are illustrated including genre register discourse and metaphor as well as notions which emphasise the mobile potential of writing such as genre chains networks literacy brokers and text trajectories This book seeks to redress the neglect of writing in the field of sociolinguistics by introducing readers to the nature and consequences of what it means to do writing in a globalised world 21st Century Education: A Reference Handbook Thomas L Good, 2008-10-01 21st Century Education A Reference Handbook offers 100 chapters written by leading experts in the field that highlight the most important topics issues questions and debates facing educators today This comprehensive and authoritative two volume work provides undergraduate education majors with insight into the rich array of issues inherent in education issues informing debates that involve all Americans Key Features Provides undergraduate majors with an authoritative reference source ideal for their classroom research needs preparation for GREs and research into directions to take in pursuing a graduate degree or career Offers more detailed information than encyclopedia entries but not as much jargon detail or density as journal articles or research handbook chapters Explores educational policy and reform teacher education and certification educational administration curriculum and instruction Offers a reader friendly common format Theory Methods Applications Comparison Future Directions Summary References and Further Readings 21st Century Education A Reference Handbook is designed to prepare teachers professors and administrators for their future careers informing the debates and preparing them to address the questions and meet the challenges of education today

Research Methods for Early Childhood Education Rosie Flewitt, Lynn Ang, 2020-01-23 Research Methods for Early Childhood Education takes an international perspective on research design and illustrates how research methods are inextricably linked to cultural and theoretical understandings of early childhood young children s competences and the purposes of education The book offers a critical and reflective approach to established and innovative research methods in early childhood education making links between diverse methodologies methods and theory with illustrative examples of research in practice Each chapter addresses a specific methodological approach linking the methodology to early childhood education with vignettes as examples of research practice in the global north south east and west offering practical examples and critical thinking around new theoretical understandings of early childhood across geographical and cultural contexts The book critically examines the role of the researcher conceptualisations of how research is undertaken the often sensitive nature of conducting research with young children how early childhood education is understood how young children can be included as active research participants Throughout the book emphasises ethical and methodological issues that arise from undertaking research in mono cultural and cross cultural contexts Annotated further reading lists provide a selection of seminal and recent studies that have adopted each methodological approach Academics Writing Karin Tusting, Sharon McCulloch, Ibrar Bhatt, Mary Hamilton, David Barton, 2019-03-14 Academics Writing recounts how academic writing is changing in the contemporary university transforming what it means to be an academic and how as a society we produce academic knowledge Writing practices are changing as the academic profession itself is reconfigured through new forms of governance and accountability increasing use of digital resources and the internationalisation of higher education Through detailed studies of writing in the daily life of academics in different disciplines and in different institutions this book explores the space and time of academic writing tensions between disciplines and institutions around genres of writing the diversity of stances adopted towards the tools and technologies of writing and towards engagement with social media and the importance of relationships and collaboration with others in writing and in ongoing learning in a context of constant change Drawing out implications of the work for academics university management professional training and policy Academics Writing The Dynamics of Knowledge Creation is key reading for anyone studying or researching writing academic support and development within education and applied linguistics Arts & Humanities Citation Index ,2003
