Rethinking Europe Social Theory And The Implications Of Europeanization:

Rethinking Europe Gerard Delanty, Chris Rumford, 2005 Europeanization and European Integration R. Coman, T. Kostera, L. Tomini, 2014-09-17 After two decades of research into the impact of the EU on domestic politics and policies this book explores the relationship between Europeanization and EU integration It argues that Europeanization should be considered as a stage in the development of EU integration as well as questioning the notion of incremental Europeanization

Sociology of Europeanization Sebastian M. Büttner, Monika Eig Müller, Susann Worschech, 2022-02-02 The numerous and far reaching socio political transformations that have taken place on the European continent since the mid 20th century have stipulated the emergence of new approaches and research fields in the social sciences One of these is the development of a Sociology of Europeanization This textbook provides an overview of its major topics concepts and research approaches Each of the 14 chapters of this textbook introduces one particular topic of the Sociology of Europeanization ranging from major conceptual considerations to an exploration of the numerous spatial cultural economic political judicial and socio structural implications of Europeanization Hence this book is very suitable as a fundamental introductory reading and for teaching in European studies and related study programs It is also recommended to everyone who is interested in more recent European history and current sociological studies of transnationalization Events around the book Link to a De Gruyter Online Event in which renowned scholars and experts discuss what is necessary for the teaching of European Studies today and what future directions European Studies should take in light of current challenges and crises The event was moderated by Sebastian Büttner and Susann Worschech two co editors of this textbook <https://youtu.be/Deh13FJ1ctE> During the annual colloquium of the European General Studies Programme of the College of Europe Bruges Sebastian Büttner discussed and presented his co edited book <https://youtu.be/GLheIHQOEv4> Europe and World Society Chris Rumford, Didem Buhari-Gulmez, 2017-10-02 Europe and World Society offers a distinctive critical approach to understanding European transformations exploring both the progress and limitations of integration on various key policy areas such as agricultural policy education reform migration and external relations as well as the relationship between European regionalism and globalization Due to its innovative theoretical framework based on macro perspectives including World Polity Theory developed by Stanford sociologist John W Meyer this collection contributes to both the recent sociological turn in European studies and to the constructivist critiques of rational choice accounts of modern Europe At a time when the European integration project has been severely challenged by multiple economic political and social crises this book offers a timely global perspective that sheds light on the dynamism and multiplicity of the actors discourses and processes which underlie contemporary Europe The book's distinctive global approach allows it to move the debate beyond state and EU centrism and establish the missing link between Europe and its global context This book was published as a special issue of the Journal of Contemporary European Studies Europe in the Classroom Simona Szakács, 2017-10-13 This book provides an unconventional account of post 1989 education reform in Romania By drawing on policy documentation interviews with key players qualitative data from everyday school contexts and extensive textbook analysis this groundbreaking study explores change within the Romanian education system as a process that institutionalises world culture through symbolic mediation of the concept Europe The book argues that the education system s structural and organisational evolution through time is decoupled from its self depiction by ultimately serving a nation building agenda It does so despite notable changes in the discourse reflecting increasingly transnational definitions of the mission of the school in the post 1989 era The book also suggests that the notions of nation and citizen institutionalised by the school are gradually being redefined as cosmopolitan matching post war patterns of post national affiliations on a worldwide level

Europe and Asia beyond East and West

Gerard Delanty,2006-10-03 This major new book tackles key questions on Europe in the context of shifting parameters of East and West The contributors sociologists anthropologists philosophers and historians show from a variety of different perspectives that the conventional equation of Europe with the West must be questioned Featuring four thematically organized chapters the book looks at a post Western world Asia in Europe encounters in history between Europe and Asia otherness in Europe and Asia Exploring new expressions of European self understanding in a way that challenges recent ideological notions of the clash of civilizations this outstanding work draws on recent scholarship that shows how Europe and Asia were mutually linked in history and in contemporary perspective It argues that as a result of current developments and the changing geopolitical context both Europe and Asia have much in common and that it is possible to speak of cosmopolitan links rather than clashes This book will be of great value to students and researchers in the fields of sociology European politics and history and cultural theory

Democratising the EU from Below? Ulrike Liebert,Alexander

Gattig,2016-05-23 For the European Union of the 21st century the search for sustainable prosperity and stability includes the challenge of reconciling democratic ideals and practices with the construction of a European constitutional order From the 2001 Laeken Summit to the 2009 Lisbon Treaty and beyond EU leaders have repeatedly set out to bring citizens closer to EU governance by making it more democratic and effective yet several national ratification referendums have shown that publics are divided about whether and why to endorse or veto complex EU reform packages imposed from the top down Despite these limitations people do effectively engage in the making of a European polity By initiating national court proceedings active citizens are promoting fundamental European rights in Member States practices As party members they contribute to shaping mass media communication about and national publics understanding of European political alternatives As civil society activists citizens help build social networks for contesting certain EU reforms or advocating others Last but not least as voters in national and European elections they choose between competing party visions and national parliamentary stances regarding the role of democratic citizenship This original contribution to the debate about democratic citizenship vis the challenges of economic globalization and European political integration presents critical explorations of different fields of direct representative participatory and deliberative democratic citizenship practices that affect the transformation of Europe Routledge Handbook of Cosmopolitanism Studies Gerard Delanty,2012-05-23 Pt 1 Cosmopolitan theory and approaches pt 2 Cosmopolitan cultures pt 3 Cosmopolitics pt 4 World varieties of cosmopolitanism Globalisation and Citizenship Wayne Hudson,Steven Slaughter,2007-04-11 This wide ranging volume explores the impact of globalization upon citizenship with a special focus on the transnational challenges that globalization poses While there is much debate over the concept globalization implies at least two distinct phenomena First it suggests that political economic and social activities are becoming increasingly inter regional or intercontinental in scope Secondly it suggests that there has been an intensification of levels of interaction and interconnectedness between states and societies Citizenship as one of the foundational concepts of the modern liberal democratic states provides the normative framework within which globalization debates may be understood and evaluated It also examines how different concepts theories and practices of citizenship are evolving in response to globalization Central questions explored in this text are How does globalization challenge traditional conceptions of citizenship in specific respects How is globalization creating new citizenships or new civil society spaces How is transnational citizenship developing and what problems are associated with it in specific areas Discussing the theoretical and practical prospects for new forms of liberal republican and cosmopolitan citizenship Globalisation and Citizenship will appeal to students and scholars in the fields of international relations globalization sociology and political science
