Rethinking Social Inequality Explorations In Sociology:

Rethinking the Life Cycle Alan Bryman, Bill Bytheway, Patricia Allatt, Teresa Keil, 1987-11-13      Youth Unemployment and the Family Patricia Allatt, Susan Yeandle, 2025-06-30 First published in 1992 Youth Unemployment and the Family examines an area of social life which has not been investigated widely the relationship between parents and young adults living in the parental home Tracing the effects of a poor labour market on 40 families in the North East the book reveals how change in the public domain of the economy penetrates the routines and intimacies of family life The text gives voice to those affected particularly to parents who are seldom heard revealing the continuing importance of the family in times of stress and its role in the mediation of social change As well as social change the theme of social order runs through the book the pursuit of order and predictability through which people try to make sense of their lives the resources out of which such order is constructed and the essential fragility of the order created The book is essential reading for anyone interested in the price paid for the economic restructuring of Britain that has been underway since the 1970s and challenges the notion that unemployment is more easily borne by those living in regions where it has been endemic The book will be of interest to researchers of sociology social anthropology political economy social policy and to anyone interested in working class family and working class culture      Rethinking Social Inequality David Robbins, Lesley Caldwell, Graham Day, Karen Jones, Hilary Rose, 2018-05-11 Originally published in 1982 Rethinking Social Inequality is a collection of essays looking at the breadth of contemporary work in social inequality The book focuses on inequality as a central project of sociological enquiry and is unified by the overarching rejection of a distributional notion of inequality in the place of a relational one The object of the study is not the deprived social group but the unequal social relations which is manifested in a variety of forms The themes addressed in this collection indicate a shift in the areas of study concerned with social inequality rejecting class based inequality in with that of race gender and age      Sociology in Action Malcolm Cross, Geoff Payne, 1993-10-22 In the last decade of this century sociology has grown into a major contributor to public debate and social policy After a period of introspection and uncertainty sociologists are becoming more self confident about their subject s potential to influence events in the world at large Here a collection of well known sociologists debate what this means for the way sociology is professionally practised in areas as diverse as regulating medicine combating racism managing manufacturing evaluating wealth and poverty and structuring education The issues and opportunities they identify will interest both sociologists and other social scientists concerned with moving ideas into a framework for social action      Fordism and Flexibility Roger Burrows, Nigel Gilbert, Anna Pollert, 1992-06-12 During the 1980s there were profound changes in the labour process towards the flexible worker and in the labour market towards a flexible workforce Three approaches to explain these changes provide the focus for this book Marxist regulation theory the notion of flexible specialisation associated with the new institutional economics and the model of the flexible firm derived from managerialist literature In the book the claims made by these approaches are investigated and their implications are examined in relation to emerging patterns of work in advanced societies

Social Relations and the Life Course G. Allan, G. Jones, 2016-01-28 This collection of essays represents some of the most important recent research into changing patterns of family household and community life It brings together some of the leading sociologists in the field to explore how these informal social relationships change over time and the life course It will be essential reading on courses concerned with the family and youth sociology

Sexual Cultures Jeffrey Weeks, 1996-07-13 The new sociology of sexuality has a two fold aim to demonstrate how the social shapes the sexual and to analyse how the sexual in turn becomes a focal point for personal identity cultural anxiety value debates and political action Drawing on papers from the 1994 British Sociological Association annual conference on Sexualities in Social Context this volume brings together key contributors to this stimulating new approach Topics covered include theoretical developments the relationship between history and contemporary controversies community and identity especially in the context of AIDS value conflicts and changes in the meanings of intimacy The book as a whole offers a significant intervention into debates on sexuality and a thoughtful contribution to the broadening of the sociological agenda

Methodological Imaginations Joan Busfield, E. Stina Lyon, 1996-04-01 This book brings together a collection of essays which look creatively and imaginatively at issues of research methods and methodology in sociology Some papers critically revisit and redefine techniques such as the classic community study the use of diaries photography and art others examine the need for reflexivity in the research process and the epistemological issues arising from being a researcher in administrative and political contexts The diversity of research approaches discussed in this reader should make it an important contribution to research methods teaching for undergraduate and graduate students of sociology

Sociology of War and Peace Colin Creighton, Martin Shaw, 1987-04-24

Beyond Law and Order Robert Reiner, Malcolm Cross, 1991-04-12 Part of a series which explores contemporary sociological issues this volume examines criminal justice policy and politics in the UK looking to their development into the 1990s

Nationalisms Old and New Kevin J. Brehony, Naz Rassool, 2016-01-07 Nationalism is a collection of papers from the British Sociological Association conference Worlds of the Future The central themes of the conference were ethnicity and nationalism in the contemporary world Older discourses on national sovereignty and statehood are evaluated in terms of their validity within a world increasingly defined by transnational integration and global economic competition

Social Conceptions of Time G. Crow, S. Heath, 2002-08-05 This book is concerned with the significance of time in work and everyday life The contributors are among the foremost authorities in the field and their up to date contributions consider the changing social meanings that time has in work leisure and everyday routines Together they provide a combination of theoretical and empirically based approaches that reveal the social significance of time in all aspects of everyday lives

Gender, Power and Sexuality Pamela Abbott, Claire Wallace, 2016-07-27 Gender Power and Sexuality is a collection of original and exciting articles by well known feminists which makes a major contribution to our understanding of the ways in which men exercise control over girls and women in their daily lives in the home at school at work and in the courts Women are seen to resent and challenge male power but the institutionalisation of male power is shown to mitigate against women taking control over their own lives      Political Action and Social Identity Gareth Rees,1985-05-16      Global Futures A. Brah,M. Hickman,M. Mac an Ghail,1999-04-30 Providing critical assessment of the globalization thesis through sustained analysis of the nexus of processes underlying social and cultural relations this book examines explores and teases out the many contradictions embedded within different discourses of globalization Together the various chapters in the collection offer a wide ranging critique of those accounts which represent globalization primarily if not exclusively as the classic story of European modernity with its attendant narratives of ostensibly unfettered movement of people unmitigated economic growth and social progress      Exploring the Body S. Cunningham-Burley,K. Backett-Milburn,2001-09-24 This volume explores diverse ways of researching and theorizing the body It draws together a range of empirical work on different themes each taking the body and its study as its central problematic It creatively combines contributions on disability illness scars sleep complementary medicine running as well as the lifecourse themes of childhood youth and death The different approaches to researching the body examined through these contributions include autobiography case studies interviews and participant observation      Relating Intimacies Julie Seymour,1999-11-26 Relating Intimacies contains papers presented at the 1997 British Sociological Association Conference which discuss contemporary research and theorizing with regard to intimate relationships Researchers examine the development of new forms of intimate relationships exploring their emotional and legal dimensions the issues of parenting in a changing world and the tensions and negotiations which are managed by those in intimate relationships This volume will be of interest to sociologists social policy and gender studies students social workers and legal students      The Social Construction of Social Policy Colin Samson,Nigel South,1996-06-12 This volume draws together an impressive series of papers that explore enduring and new problems in the construction and analysis of British social policy Critical but accessible the various chapters cover methodological issues and the nature of competing claims about social policy knowledge racism and health services citizenship and access to housing and other amenities and the importance of the environment as an emerging area for social policy debate      Sex, Sensibility and the Gendered Body Lisa Adkins,Janet Holland,2016-07-27 The study of sexuality is moving from margin to centre stage in sociology as the 1994 British Sociological Association annual conference on Sexualities in Social Context demonstrated Drawn from that conference the papers in this volume contribute to the debates which have developed on the relationship between the sexual and the social and between gender and sexuality The focus is on women and from different perspectives the authors explore the themes of gendered identity the construction of sexuality embodiment and control The social contexts in which these themes are elaborated include the family the law the education system medical practice and discourse and cultural representations and texts      Politics Of Everyday Life Helen

Corr,Lynn Jamieson,1990-05-22
